Saturday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock the Shimmers left his horse attached to a buggy stand in front of the store of J. N. Foster & Co.

The horse became frightened, and jumping on the sidewalk, the sidewalk was filled with people who were warned by the shouts of others just in time to avoid being trampled.

The horse struck a sign standing in the street and sent it flying in the air. The horse then made direct for a table piled up with straw standing in front of Gardner Bros.

The horse struck the table with such force that it was completely demolished. The horse continued its way up West street...
