 F. R. White, of the Wyoming, left yesterday for Auburn, N. Y.

 Business College, last week secured a company.

ANOTHER REASON FILED.

Attorneys in Williams Will Case Argue Before Register Hopkins.

Another hearing, merely an argument by the attorneys, took place yesterday in the Williams will case before Register of Wills Hopkins.

The attorneys for the contestant filed the following additional reason against the will: "That at the time of the execution of the alleged will of Rachael Williams she was a single woman, her name being then Rachael Francis; that she afterwards married a Mr. Williams and that this subsequent marriage revoked the alleged will and the death of Mr. Williams before the death of Rachael Williams did not revive the alleged will of Rachael Williams."

At 10 a. m. Saturday another hearing will take place.

WAS A POLANDER.

The Man Killed on the Jersey Central Railroad.

Adam Grezzyk, who was killed below the Elm street crossing of the Jersey Central Railroad Monday evening, lived on River street on the lower South Side flats, and his father called at Undertaker Raub's establishment yesterday and identified the body. He said he had no money and did not want to take charge of the remains.
 A brother of the deceased was expected to arrive from Poland last night, and the father anticipates that he will have enough cash to give the remains a Christian burial. They will call this morning.

Coroner J. A. Kelley empaneled the following jury yesterday: William Mc-Bride, B. F. Squire, W. A. Raub, F. J.
 Johnson, J. J. O'Boyle and Thomas J.
 Flannery. The coroner examined the body and states that the wounds thereon were produced by an engine. The inquest was adjourned until 10.30 tomorrow.

The dead man had been five years in this country and leaves a widow and small family in the old country. He was employed as a laborer at the South Steel mill and got paid Saturday. His father said he left home Saturday night under the influence of liquor, and presumes that he started out on a jaunt of dissipation, went to sleep on the railroad track and met his death.

BUSY DAY IN POLICE COURT.
 Number of Offenders Arraigned Before Alderman W. S. Miller had an unusual number of prisoners brought before him at the police court yesterday morning. Nellie Connors, of Jackson street, a well-known character of the West Side, was arrested on Monday night for disorderly conduct, and on Tuesday, Kary Scott and James Fuller, gallantly went to the West Side police station house to arrange for her release. As they were drunk, they were promptly gathered in. Nellie was fined $10 and the two Italians $2.50 each.

James Tools, of Hyde Park, was sent to the county jail for five days for lodging on the cold, damp ground in Ennis court. Peter Kelly, of Hyde Park, and Patrick Mulcahey, gardener, were given ten days each in the county jail to recover from the effects of a debauch.

Lewis Peel, of 1324 Washington street, who charged William Roach, of Mill street, with robbing him of $20 at Robb's hotel, was fined $3.50 for drunkenness, and Roach was fined $5 for similar offense. The $20 was not found.

James H. Barnes, who was found asleep at Lackawanna and Jefferson avenues, was provided with a bed at the county jail for ten days. "Butch" Quinn, who, with Harry Vane, was charged with robbing a man without permission, was fined $10. Vane was fined $15.

THE OLD SOLDIER'S DAY

Graves of Departed Comrades Will Be Decorated in the Morning.

PARADE IN THE AFTERNOON

Entertainment at the Academy of Music.
 Rev. W. A. Spencer, D. D., of Philadelphia, Will Be Spoken—Elm Park Church Quartette to Sing.

Memorial Day this year will be celebrated by Scranton veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic in a most elaborate manner. At the different churches of the city the veterans will attend divine worship next Sunday, and on May 29 the graves of departed comrades will be visited and decorated in the morning. There will be a parade in the afternoon, and at night exercises consisting of literary and musical parts will conclude the program.

The parade will be made up of comrades of Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin post, No. 129, Grand Army of the Republic, and of Colonel Monies post, No.
 119, the Sons of Veterans, all the Scranton companies of the Thirtieth regiment, and many of the civic societies of the city. The parade will be in charge of Colonel E. H. Rippe, grand marshal. This evening at Memorial hall, on Washington avenue, the joint committees from the two Grand Army units will meet and decide upon the final arrangements. Captain F. J.
 Amodeo, of the Griffin post, is chairman of that committee, and of the Monies post committee John T. Howe is chairman. E. W. Pierce, of the former post, is secretary of the joint committee.

Work of Grim Reaper.
 During the year past the grim reaper has invaded the ranks of the veterans and carried away eleven comrades.
 Monies post lost two, and the remaining nine are absent from roll call in the Griffin hall. Their names are: Captain William Davies, Douglas Morton, George Sisco, Captain Frank Amodeo, Charles P. Leber, W. W. Adams and Colonel Thomas D. Lewis.

Next Sunday evening special services will be conducted at Penn Avenue Baptist church by Rev. Warren G. Partridge for the comrades of Griffin post, and at Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church Rev. W. H. Pearce, D. D., will officiate in the special services that will be conducted for the members of Colonel Monies post. It has been customary in past years with the two posts to conduct Memorial Day services separately, but the differences between them are healing up and this year they will join hands.

Rev. W. A. Spencer, D. D., of Philadelphia, has accepted the invitation to deliver the principal address at the entertainment in the evening at the Academy of Music. His subject will be "The Great Battles of History." John G. Barratt, editor of the Scranton Truth, will read a poem written by himself for the occasion. Music will be rendered by the Elm ark quartette—Miss Winifred Sullivan, soprano; Miss Ella Marie Draeger, contralto; Alfred Wooder, tenor; Richard Thomas, bass; Professor George B. Carter, director.
 A solo will be given by Miss Sullivan.

Work of Decorating the Graves.
 Squads have been detailed to depart from the post rooms at 10 o'clock on the morning of the day to visit the cemeteries of the city and decorate the graves of the departed comrades. The following commands: Dunmore, F. J. Amodeo, Post 129; Forest Hill, S. B. Mott, commander, Post 129; Pittsburg avenue, E.
 L. Huns, commander, Post 319; St.
 Mary's Catholic, P. F. Adams, Post 129; Petersburg Protestant, Captain De-Laey, Post 319; Petersburg Catholic, George Schultz, Post 129; Hyde Park Catholic, Moses Morey, Post 129; Washington street, S. Y. Haupt, Post 129.

Perhaps the feature of the exercises, which will most interest the public is the parade in the afternoon, which will start at 2.30. Companies A, B, C, D, F, and H, of the Thirtieth regiment, will assemble at the armory at 1.30 p. m., in marching order. The veterans of the two posts and the Sons of Veterans will assemble at their respective meeting places and form in line ready for the word of command. The parade will traverse the principal streets of the city. The business men along the line of march have agreed to decorate their places with patriotic colors, and everything will be done to make the day one to be remembered.

Next Sunday evening a special meeting of all the delegates in the Lackawanna County Council of Irish societies will meet at the law office of Senator J.
 C. Vaughan, on Lackawanna avenue, and will endeavor to finish all the business pertaining to the parade of the societies on Memorial Day. Senator Vaughan has given his assurance that the Irish societies will turn out in creditable array. P. J. Honan, who has been appointed marshal of the division, which the societies will form, is working energetically and has done much toward the announced success of the arrangements for a large representation of the Irish race in the parade.

The committee this evening will fix it so that all societies that may desire to join in the parade will be assigned places. There is a ready welcome to all who so desire.

Colonel Courson's Order.

 erty and give this one day of the year to the ceremonies incident to the memory of our illustrious dead.

CYRENE ENGAGED.

She Will Be Seen in Her Dances at Laurel Hill Park.

Alive to importance of dancing as a feature of the modern stage performance, Manager J. H. Laine has engaged "Cyrene," the wonderful dancer, of the Laurel Hill park. She is probably the best dancer Americans have seen since the days of the divine Fanny Ellsler or Lola Montez, whose dancing, it is said, resembled very much that of Cyrene's.

The acrobatic and other up-to-date appendages of the old-time dance originated with "Cyrene," and while her imitations are many, but few can equal the refined and graceful methods of this famous artist. Manager Laine will give short season of refined and vaudeville prior to the appearance of his opera company. "Cyrene" is only one of many important engagements announced to appear at the Pavilion Opera house.

NEW PENCIL SHARPENER.

The Invention of A. Tinney, of Court Street.

A neat and useful article has been patented by A. Tinney, of Court street, which is designed for a pencil sharpener in schools and other institutions.

The contrivance is so made that it can be fastened to any desk, or other piece of furniture.

The manufacturers committee of the board of trade will consider the advantage of organizing a company for the manufacture of the article.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

Charles Wiley, of the central Young Men's Christian association will address the meeting at the machine shops today.

A large sign board has been erected on the front of the Delaware and Hudson station bearing the familiar letters,
 "D. & H."

Coal traffic was brisk again yesterday on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, a total of forty coal trains being run on the three divisions.

Secretary Pearsall was at his desk yesterday, but his health was such that he was unable to attend to his duties.

He is charged with falling down the steps of a hotel, whereas he fell up the steps of the Young Men's Christian association hall at Springfield.

In all does Mr. Pearsall has the upward tendency, and this was experienced even in his "falling upward."

The elevator which is being placed in the Delaware and Hudson station is approaching completion and will be one of the most effective in the city. It is designed on the hydro-pneumatic system, with five shafts on either end of the cylinder, and is better known as the ten to one machine. It has a lifting capacity of 2,000 pounds, and will travel at the rate of 250 feet per minute. The same water will be used to raise and will supply a pressure of ninety pounds.
 The steam required for the pump will be supplied from the furnace which heats the building. The Graves Elevator company, of Rochester, have charge of the work.

DIED.

PADDEN—Thomas Padden, son of John Padden, aged 5 years 10 months 13 days.
 Funeral Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late home, 41 Cayuga street. Interment in Hyde Park cemetery.
