Yesterday's games resulted in only one change in the positions of the clubs. By winning from Buffalo, the champions go into fourth place, and Syracuse goes down to fifth place by losing to Wilkes-Barre. Scranton won from Rochester and we remain within speaking distance of the alligators. Springfield won from Toronto, but the leaders can lose three successive games and still hold first position. POORLY PLAYED GAME.

Scranton Wins from Rochester, but the Cold Weather Froze the Players and They Played Yellow Ball-The Hits Only Doubled the Number of Errors. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Rochester, N. Y., May 21 .- Probably the cold and cheerless weather ac counted for the poor playing of both score; today. Scranton kept up a steady base hit pace from the beginning and won Meara, if..... the game by a score of 14-10. Delaney did not pitch his usual game. He was very wild, which may have been due to the severe weather. A total of fourteen hits, including four doubles, were made off him; he sent five batters to first on balls, struck out three, hit one and made four errors and as many wild pitches. From this, it will be seen that to save the game there must have been some good work in the field. Rochester was unfortunate in not being able to bunch their hits. The bases were occupied almost continuously.

Radford, Ward and Brady did good work in the field, while the stick work of Ward, Whitehead and Johnson contributed largely toward the run-get-CANUCKS DOWN THE LEADERS. Springfield's Average Lowered in a Ten Inning Game.

Toronto, Ont., May 21,-The Springfield leaders were beaten for the fourth time this season this morning, and Toronto did the trick by three runs to two, but it took ten innings to do it. It was a close and well played game all through. Gray pitched a steady game for Toronto, and, although hits were made off the visiting pitcher, they were generally scattered, but still they were sufficiently bunched to earn three runs Callahan pitched four innings and retired with a split finger. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Although all the National league games scheduled for yesterday were played, the positions of the clubs have not changed. It is a leaders' race, be tween Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and Boston. Considering the number of games played, Pittsburg's chances of holding its position until the end of 4 the week is better than the chances of the other three clubs to displace it. In additional to the big Scrantor united choir, which received attention in an extensive article in yesterday's Tribune, the West Side will send two male Glee clubs to Wilkes-Barre on June 11 and 12. These two organizations are composed of our best singers, and, though a Scranton united Glee club may be better than two rival organizations, yet so confident are each party of success, and, judging from the excellent timber in each, it is not improbable that one of our representatives will bring home the laurel of victory, thus once more demonstrating that Hyde Park is the home of melody. The Scranton Glee club and the Druids are rehearsing steadfastly for a superior rendition of the prize music. Great interest is being shown in the coming eisteddfod, and a large crowd of spectators will accompany our singers to the scene of conflict.

Frank Harder.

Quite a shake-up took place in the ervice on the South Side and Moosic car lines yesterday. The schedule which a month ago had been in force for a week, was resumed and will continue until the management of the com-pany finds it to be impracticable. One car has been taken off and the round trip to the city line will have to be made in forty-five minutes, instead of an hour. Cars will run to Moosic at intervals of forty-five minutes instead of every half hour; and this change, the traction officials promise, will give the patrons of the South Side as good a service and swifter transit than heretofore. The change in the crews sends Motorman James Higgins to Green Ridge People's line, alternating on Stone avenue line. Conductor Adam Pantle, an old favorite, comes back on the South Side, after an absence of several months.

Annual May Social.

Germania hall was an inviting place to be last evening. The annual May hop of the Scranton Athletic club was held, and attracted very many who always patronize the club's entertainments and find ever a delightful time awaiting them. The programme consisted of feasting and terpsichorean art. An ample menu was provided at midnight. The order of dances included fifteen numbers, beginning with the grand march and terminating with the waltz, "Home Sweet Home." Professor Johnson manipulated the plane keys and the committee of arrangements consisted of the subjoined gentlemen of the club: Peter Neuls, Joseph Rosar Henry Berghauser, Fred Wirth and James F. Best.
