NOISE OVER THE SMITH BILL

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Harrisburg, May 24.-The house granted enough special orders this morning for bills for consideration next el Wash Silks known to Tuesday and Wednesday to prolong the session a week later than the time fixed by the senate. This change in the sold all over the country order will prevent the consideration of appropriation bills next week, and unless the session is extended to June 13 the bulk of them will never be Williamsport Hospital. 30,000 reached. Chairman Marshall, of the Meadville City Hospital. 7,500 legislators of this, but they did not heed his warning and went right ahead sranting orders for bills.

The calendar of appropriation measures has been completely disarranged.

Mr. Fow. of Philadelphia, tried to get through a resolution that before any of the special orders be preceded with the calendar of appropriation bills on these days be finished. The point was raised that the resolution. ford 1.08pital, Brad-Lancaster General Hos-pital 20,000 4,000 Charity Hospital, Norris-town 10,000 7,000 Wilkes-Barre City Hos-pital 20,000 that the resolution was out of order and the speaker ruled it so.

The house was in an uproar all morning. The rule prohibiting smoking was suspended, and the air was blue with smoke. The morning proceedings opened with a fight on the proposition opened with a fight on the proposition to change the method of distributing the school appropriation that resulted in a victory for the country members. The contest was brought about by a resolution of Mr. Smith, of Bedford, to make a special order for his bill for rea county. make a special order for his bill for next Tuesday and Wednesday. The city members promptly called for the yeas and nays. During the roll call the members flocked about the clerk's desk, and much excitement ensued. When the roll was read it showed an overwhelming majority in favor of the resolution. Mr. Bliss, of Delaware, was recorded as having voted in the negative. Several members claimed Mr. Bliss was absent and had not responded when his name was called. The speaker directed the clerk to call

Mr. Bliss' name. It was called twice usually be considered rock and either time there was no response. His name was then stricken from the roll. Soon after the member from Delaware appeared in the house. When he learned what had been done he protested against his name being stricken from the roll and at the suggestion of the speaker it was restored.

> Provisions of Smith Bill. The Smith bill provides for a distribu-tion of one-third of the school fund aclution to go into committee of the whole to amend the measure by giving each school and distributing the balance as at present. Pending the dis-cussion on the amendment the house adjourned and the whole matter went over until this morning. Under the resolution the amendment will be considered next Tuesday and the bill on third reading and final passage on Wednesday.

The house also made a special order for the Fritz bill for Tuesday and Wednesday. This measure distributes the school funds on the basis of the number of school children between the ages of 6 and 20 years. Special orders were also made for bills empowering the directors of the poor in counties having farm lands in connection with county almshouses to lease the lands for oi and gas purposes; creating the office of state fire marshal; fixing a ton of anthracite coal delivered by retailers at 2,240 pounds; creating a system of plumbing inspection in third class cities; to incorporate wholesale mercan-

Weights and Measures Bill.

The bill providing for the appointment of sealers of weights and measures for first and second class cities passed finally amid much confusion. It provides that the inspectors shall be designated by the county commissioners and appointed by the governor to serve for a term of four years. The nalaries are also fixed by the commissioners. The members were feeling tired when the roll was called and they did not respond to their names.

The clerks discovered there was not constitutional majority voting, and the Philadelphia members begun to crowd around the desk. There was a lively hustle for votes and the speaker turned a deaf ear to objections. After several minutes hustling, a Philadelphia member, who was standing up by the clerk's desk, held up three fingers and yelled out that a trio of votes were still needed. Another gentleman voted aye. The Philadelphian held up two fingers this time and asked for aid. The other two members got into line and the bill was passed by 104 to 27 votes. The following bills were passed finally by the house: A bill to punish the printing, posting, distributing of any libelous circular or poster or other written or printed paper; an act to enlarge the duties of the state food commisdoner, authorizing him to enforce all the laws against the adulterations or impurities in vinegar, jeilies, cider, evaporated apples and all apple products and the unlawful labeling in the state; an act to prevent fraud upon the users of commercial fertilizers in this state by using the word bone with intent to deceive; the Culbertson bill sishing the wearing of the button of the Grang Army or Loyal legion or Veteran legion; a bill amending the act of April 3, 1851, so us to provide a means whereby any borough incorporated under any other act may become subject to the provisions of said amend-ed act and its supplements; the Grigs-by bill to prohibit appropriations of the General Assembly at Pittsburg Agitated Yesterday.

REMARKS BY JUDGE JESSUP

An Attack Made Upon the Idea of a Gen eral Assembly as Exemplified in the Pertland, Washington and Joga Gatherings.

ty 24.-The under fires Pittsburg. of Briggsism h are ever burning beneath the sur e of the Presbyterian church broke at unexpectedly today in the assembly. They broke out with force sufficient to disturb the equanimity which for the past few days had settled down upon the assembly. The ever watchful ultra conservatives were up and awake at the first appearance of the old trouble and the promise of a debate was rich and full when suddenly quiet was restored by the en-trance of the procession of visiting delegates from the United Presbyterian assembly, in session here, and other corresponding bodies, Before visitors nothing unless it was kind and pleasant was to be said. So the measure that had awakened the old-time animosity was quickly put to vote and passed in a manner that told the stranger nothing of what lay behind. The question which had thus upset the temper of the assembly was a simple proposition to change the general assembly from an annual to a tri-ennial gathering. No one spposed that there was anything sub rosa about this over-ture, which had come before the assembly in a perfectly regular way from the presbytery of Lackawanna. It had met with consideration on committee on bills and overtures and was reported adversely along with a lot of overtures relating to the general as-sembly. An hour was fixed for the consideration of report of committee. The hour found the assembly listless and inattentive. Little interest was munifested in the matter. The finding of the committee presaged the adverse action of the assembly. Some interest might be excited by the debate on the proposed reduction of assessments for assembly expenses, but to change the assembly to a triennial gathering was an impossible proposition.

Judge Jessup's Remarks. Judge William H. Jessup, brother to the Syrian missionary, Henry Harris Jessup, read the Lackawanna overture, which set forth in full the reasons that had influenced the presbytery to make the proposal. These were simply seasons of a business and financial character. They were readily answered and when it was apparent that the overture would be lost Judge Jessup made an attack upon the committee's report, which was an attack upon the idea of a general assembly as exempli-fied in the Portland, Washington and Saratoga gatherings. The same terms that have been employed by the New York coterie of liberals to describe the assemblies that tried Dr. Briggs and Professor Smith were heard in this art in favor of tri-ennial asse 'What body in Christendom," it wa said, in reference to the monarchial gatherings of Methodists and Protestant Episcopals, 'has ever exercised the power of this general assembly? What body has ever been so swayed by the popular applause? Where in a court

Exposure from Philadelphia.

A preacher from Philadelphia, recognizing the spirit of the movement as dinner began at 6.30 p. m., and it was one of dissatisfaction with general assemblies per se, quickly made exposure. He characterized the demand for the change as coming from that same quarter of unrest and disquietude and essening respect for the highest court of the church which had been so active and persistent in its criticisms of the deliverances of the general assembly on doctrinal questions of the last few "Democracy," Hon. Gentleman James Corbett Becomes Angry and Makes Dire Threats of Vengennce.

New York, May 24.-The Corbett-Fitzsimmons match took a new turn today. "Joe" Vendig, the representative of the Florida Athletic club, asked both principles to meet him in an uptown resort at 2 o'clock this afternoon Corbett was on hand at the time mentioned. He waited three-quarters of an hour, but neither Fitzsimmons nor his representative put in an appearance

"Now, gentlemen," said Vendig, "I want to know whether I am to clare the match off, or what am I to

"No. by no means no." retorted Corbett hotly, "When I had theatrical enragements Fitzsimmons was hot and heavy after me, and declared to every one that I was afraid of him. Now I am free and ready to train and anxious to fight him. He will not put in an appearance. I don't want the match off. I want it decided in this country if ssible. I believe it can be brought off at Dallas, Tex. If the match is declared off he must be the man to do it.

"Now, listen," continued Corbett, drawing himself up to his full height. There was a gitter in his eyes that told the crowd that his dander was up, and they expected to hear something drop. They did. This is what Corbett said: 'Fitzsimmons has been making all sorts of bluffs. Now, I want to make a crack. He said that when he met me he would slap my face and pull my nose. I met him and he denied it. He did not make good.

"Now listen to what I say. If this match is declared off, I will go after Fitzsimmons, and I will pull his nose, by -..., if I get shot for it. That's all; I'm done. He did not make good, but I will."

So saying, Corbett turned on his heel and stalked out of the door followed by Brady and his friends. The others filed out slowly, pondering over the ex-citing scene that would take place when Corbett treated Fitz like Taffy did Svengali.

Corbett says he will give Fitzsimmons until tomorrow to live up to the Dun and Company's Encouraging Report.

GENERAL ADVANCE IN PRICES Wild Speculation Indicates That There Is a General Improvement All Along the Line-Wheat Steadily Advances-Iron Active.

New York, May 24.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

If wheat has been so greatly injured by the snows and frosts in May that the sudden rise of 12 cents in two weeks is justified, the calamity will affect all business prospects. The markets do not believe it, for stocks don't collapse, iron, leather and hides still rise, and no holders of wheat will sell at 80 cents, a lower price than had been known at this season for 30 years prior to 1893, if current reports were credited. Some injury has, undoubtedly, been sus-tained, but our own dispatches do not show that it is really serious.

The fact is that relief from long as xiety, and the abundance and cheapness of money for which industry and legitimate trade give as yet no adequate demand, have excited the speculative spirit beyond all restraint. The hot fever will have nothing to do with cold facts. The temper is to buy, regardles of visible requirements, in the faith that prices are sure to rise. Wild excitement in wheat, with sales in one day at Chicago alone of 300,000,000 bushels, about three times the wheat there is in the country, and a renewed frenzy in cotton, with sales in three days exceeding the whole visible stock in America, followed the furious rise in stocks, in oil, and in hids, and leather, is at once a recognition of real improvement in business, and a menace to its progress. Better Wages at Pittsburg.

The iron industry distinctly gains, and the improvement is no longer confined to prices of materials. Better wages at and west of Pittsburg convince buyers that prices must rise, and there have been larger sales of finished products with about $1 per ton better prices for structural forms and steel bars, while Bessemer pig has risen to $11,50 at Pittsburg and Grey Forge to $10. The Thomas company had advanced its anthracite pig 50 cents, and higher freights make southern cost more at the east. Sales of rails to May 1 were 420,000 tons, and deliveries 250,000, both larger than last year's. Nail works are combining, and a coke pool is extended to raise prices soon.

Failures during the week have been 207 in the United States against 183 last year, and 23 in Canada against 28 last
