

SCRANTON, PA., MONDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1895.

Turndil otals? EIGHT PAGES

THESE SWIVEL SILKS

cost the importer 25c. for every yard he landed on for 50c.

We've got 76 pieces, which represent the very cream of the New Patterns and Colorings; they're full 28 inches wide, and once more we repeat, we guar-antee this to be the best cloth on the market.

OUR PRICE IS 25C

is now in progress at the store. Prices have gone far below what would usually be considered rock bottom figures. Take these five numbers as examples of values:

The second s

week to secure the right of incorp

BATTLES IN LEGISLATURE Harrisburg Promises to Be Lively During the Coming Week.

APPORTIONMENT CONSIDERED An Effort Is Being Made to Reopen the Case-Sentiments in Favor of the Defeated Bills-State College Appropriation Opposed. and that this state loses the bonus.

Scranton

Special to the Scranton Tribune American soll. They are Harrisburg, Pa., May 26.-Those who favor a cut of $1,000,000 in the school the highest grade of Swiv-el Wash Silks known to the trade, and are being sold all over the country to hold them as a club over the holds-until it agrees to the reduction. Un-fortunately for the projectors of the plan, the grangers have dropped on to the trick and will battle to a finish for the million dollars. "We are not going to be cheated out of a cent to the schools if not a con-

"We are not going to be cheated out of a cent to the schools if not a cop-per is given to any other purpose," said Representative Seanor, secretary of the "Agriculture combine." yesterday. "One hundred and twenty-two mem-bers of the house have signed a peti-tion to Governor Hastings, asking him to save the money to the schools and every one of these representatives will stand to their agreement. The grangers of the house held a meeting a few days

Mr. Seanor intimated that many of the appropriations asked for by the charitable institutions of the state would be knocked out by the grangers. Speaking for himself, he said he was opposed to the appropriation of $200,-000 to the State college and a like amount to the University of Pennsyl-vania for dormitories. He is also op-posed to an appropriation for the ex-penses of the commission from Penn-sylvania to the Cotton States exposi-tion at Atlanta next fall. The grangers are prepared to make a fight against the bill ceating an ap-pellate court. This measure has gone through the senate and is on the house calendar among the postponed bills on through the senate and is on the house calendar among the postponed bills on third reading. It will be called up this week by Representative Kunkel. Ex-Magistrate Durham is here directing the fight against the bill. His lleuten-ants are Representatives Merrick, Mat-tox and Baldwin. The latter has made a systematic carwass of the house and tox and Baldwin. The latter has made a systematic canvass of the house and found eighty-two members opposed to it. Many of those with whom he has spoken have led him to believe that while they are pledged to one for the bill they will be conveniently absent when the roll is called. The Demo-crats are nearly all against the meas-ure and it is doubtful if more than ten of the twenty-nine will support it. Mr. Martin Not in the Fight.

Mr. Martin Not in the Fight.

mayor of the city will extend a wel-come to be responded to by General John B. Gordon, the commander of the Southern veterans. At 9 o'clock the generals will participate in a banquet.

week to secure the right of incorpora-tion from the present legislature. A special order has been secured for the bill, which passed second reading on a fluke one day when John Fow was ab-sent from the house. The Philadelphian has been the bitter opponent of this measure, and his arguments that it would lead to trusts among firms deal-ing in the necessaries of life has been sufficient to rally the county members around him. If Fow continues his war-fare it is doubful if the bill will be TWO YOUNG MEN LYNCHED John Halls, Jr., and William Royce Hanged by a Mob. CRIME AND ITS PUNISHMENT are it is doubtful if the bill will be Determined Assault on an Illinois Jail passed. The wholesale merchants of Philadelphia and Pittsurg are urging Prisoners Taken Out in Spite of a the passage of this measure. They say they are now forced into New Jersey and West Virginia to secure charters, Judgo's Assertion That Justice Would Be Done.

BUSCH FASTS FOR DAYS.

Danville, Ill., May 26.—Early yester-day morning a mob which had been in possession of Vermillion county's jail for several hours succeeded in finding two young men, John Halls, jr., and William Royce, in their cells, and took them outside and hanged them for as-saulting Miss Laura Barnett on Thurs-day evening last. From midnight, when the mob first made its appear-ance at the ind doors there was a dele fins Established a Religion Called the

> The mob openly declared that they thought Governor Altgeld would par-don the men if the law was allowed to take its course.

to take its course. At 7.30 o'clock on Thursday evening Miss Barnett, in company with Lillian Draper, was walking on the Vermillion river bridge at the foot of main street. When accosted by Halls and Royce the girls started to run. One of the men knocked Miss Barnett down. Miss Draper made her escape up Main street. Her shricks collected a crowd, which started in pursuit of Halls and Royce. The latter dragged Miss Barnett with them. They passed John Downs, an old man, who attempted to interfere. mposing Exercises at Chicago on Memo old man, who attempted to interfere. He was knocked down by Halls. The two assailants took the girl through the fields to the river bottom, where Miss Barnett was found at 12.30

a. m. in an unconscious condition. Halls and Royce were arrested.

waived preliminary examination, and were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $5,000 each. The mob to lynch the men had been forming all day, but its presence was not known to any of the officials of the town. The rendezvous was an old barn on the edge of the town, and it was nearly dark before the townspeople no-ticed thet many strangers had arrived hearly dark before the townspeople no-ticed that many strangers had arrived in that neighborhood. Early in the evening the mob seemed to know no way of identifying the prisoners, but evening the mob seemed to know ho way of identifying the prisoners, but accurate information was furnished hate in the evening, when the assault upon the jall was made. The mob con-sisted of between 200 and 300 men, all masked. Battering Ram Used.

After repeated efforts to break down the outer jall door with a telegraph pole, which produced little or no effect, the crowd desisted for a time in their efforts to break into the jall. Ed Mccusker stood on the jall steps and ad-dressed the mob begging them to de-sist. They laughed him down. Sheriff Thompson, his wife, and Deputy Sheriff Thompson, his wire, and Deputy Shehn James Sloan also besought the mob to disperse. F. V. Barnett, the father of the injured girl, said to Mrs. Thompson: "Madam, you never had a daughter assaulted, and her blood demands vengeance." His reply was wildly vengeance. applauded.

At 2 o'clock Sheriff Thompson sent for Judge Bookwalter of the circuit court, who addressed the crowd from the jail corridor. He made an earnest mesmerism act." A $5 bill was offered to the holder of lucky card. Fifty cards were sold at a piece, one man buying eight. "Now," said the fakir, "I will drive Marti's Death Is Still a Matter of around the corner to show you how the photos are produced." And away he shot, never to be seen again. DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

asked all to turn their backs to the Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara Officiates at th Impressive Services. pecial to the Scranton Tribune.

Special to the Seranton Tribune. Avoca, May 26.—St. Mary's Catholle church, Rev. M. F. Crane, pastor, was dedicated this morning by Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara. On Nov. 2, 1875, the parish of Avoca was formed from St. John's parish, of Pittston. From time of to time additions and alterations were made; but a severe blow fell upon the congregation in the autumn of 1893, where a strong windstorm almost wrecked the church, which was then being repaired. The root was blown off and in failing it struck the parochial residence, damaging it to a great exspondent Not Popular. Havana, May 22.—'The government claims to have absolute proof of the death of Marti, but Cubans here declared that the body must be viewed by others than Spanish army officers be-fore his identity is established.

WAR

SITUATION IN CUBA

Dispute.

The American newspaper correspond-ent who was reported killed in the Dos Rios fight is probably a young man named Woodward, who arrived at San-tiago about a month ago. He repre-sented the New York Morning Journal. residence, damaging it to a great ex-But not undaunted Father Crane beand one or two other papers. He went into the interior on May 6 to join Ma-ceo, Comez and Marti. Woodward has gan immediately to continue the re-pairing and at hist his reward his ar-rived. The main edifice is 48 b. 133 feet and its architectural finish miskes not been heard from since and in all probability met his death with Marti. Aside from the killing of Marti and the it one of the foremost churches in the diocese. The interior work and rich paintings are especially beautiful and reversion at Dos Elos, Spain has ac-complished very little toward putting down the rebellion with force of arms, and Martinez Campos has now decidsplendld. At 10.30 a solemn high mass was be-gun with Rev. J. J. McCabe, as. istant at Avoca, celebrant; Rev. J. J. Curran, of Carbondale, was deacon; Rev. Thomas Carmody, of the cathedral, sub-deacon, and Rev. P. F. Quinnan, of the cathedral, master of ceremonies. There were mesont about twenty and Martinez Campos has now decid-cd to try diplomacy as well. When he arrived in Cuba about six weeks ago, he proclaimed war, vigorous, relentless war. No promise of righting wrongs was made, no hope of instituting re-forms was held out. He has found the insurrection far more serious than he at first supposed, and he has now de-cided to institute reforms at an early doe with the hore of disarming the in-There were present about twenty priests from various parts of the dio-cese. The choir sang Mozart's seventh mass and the new pipe organ for the first time pealed forth its grand tones. Very Rev. John Finnen, vicar gen-eral of the diocese, preached the ser-mon He concretulated the pastor and day, with the hope of disarming the in-surgents of the claim, which wins them oth sympathy and support, that Spain mon. He congratulated the pastor and the congregation on the completion of the church. The venerable bishop also refuses all reforms.

gaining recruits.

Will Fight for Referms

preached, but his sermon was brief. The dedicatory services were then com-pleted. In the afternoon a class of 200 children was confirmed.

KILLED BY THE CARS.

splendid.

o'clock by an Erie train in charge of Conductor Pruner. She had started out before breakfast in search of her cow and was standing on the breaker switch south of the depot when struck. south of the depot when struck. The trainmen had orders to put a number of cars in the switch, the cars to be taken from the middle of the train, which was south bound; the engine and a number of cars next to it were detached while the train was in motion and passed on down the main track. The switch was thrown open and the remaining cars were allowed to enter it. Mrs. McGrath stood on the switch waiting for the engine to pass, and failed to notice the cars coming into the switch, they struck and ran over her, severing one leg from her body and killing her almost instantly. BIMETALLIC LEAGUE CALL.

Silks and

Wool Dress Goods

the dotails in connection with the ap-pearance of the federation in the pa-rade on the afternoon of Memorial Day, Grand Marshal P. J. Honan, of the division that will consist of the Irish so-cleties, reported that he will make out clettes, reported that he will make out the programme this morning and pub-lish is in the newspapers, so that the societies will be guided accordingly. Mr. Honan wishes to formulate his orders so that they will not conflict with the ones that Colonel E. H. Rip-ple, grand marshal of the day, will send out. Mr. Honan will see Colonel Rip-ple before arranging the programme for the Irish societies. The following will narticipate: St. WAR CORRESPONDENT KILLED The Spanish Government Finds the Insurgents Much Stronger Than Anticipated-The American War Corre-

Lackawanna avenue to complete all

Tribune.

The following will participate: St. Leo's Battalion, of the West Side, Thomas O'Connor in charge: St. Peter's

Thomas O'Connor in charge; St. Peter's Total Abstinence and Benevolent so-clety, of Bellevue, J. E. Regan; Father Mathews' of Hyde Park, P. T. Murray; Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hi-bernians, Board of Erin, Michael Mur-ray; Division No. 17, Board of America, John Power O'Connor; Division No. 3, James Gillespie; Division No. 6, Peter Clifford in charge. On the third Sunday of June the elec-tion of officers will take place, and on tion of officers will take place, and on Sunday evening. June 9, a special meet-ing to confer with Sheridan Monument association officels will be held.

MUSIC AT LAUREL HILL.

New Park Is Opened with Delightful Con certs by Gilmore's Band.

opening of Laurel Hill park on Saturday afternoon was an occasion of much enjoyment to music-lovers and others who were delighted at the ar-rangement of Scranton's new pleasure resort, which is flow under manage-ment of J. H. Laine. A better attraction probably could not have been secured for the opening days of the pert then Glimone's celenot have been secured for the opening days of the park than Glimore's cele-brated band, which gave four grand concerts in the Pavillon theater. The band, which has been reorganized un-der direction of the well-known violoncello virtuoso and composer, Victo The effect will undoubtedly be marked cello virtuoso and composer, victor Herbert, was in fine condition for the concerts Saturday afternoon and even-ing and the secred concerts yesterday, and rendered the various programmes with the old-time finish that made the band celebrated years ago. Notwithstanding the threatening Cubans who have been teetering on the fence for two months-they will fall on the government side; but those who are already in arms at the eastern end of the island, will not stop fighting for the triffing reforms that are prom-

Notwithstanding the threatening weather a large audience filled the pa-vilion theater and gathered upon the

KILLED BY THE CARS. Sudden Death of Mrs. Daulel McGrath, Who Is Run Down by a Train at Forest City. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, May 26.—Mrs. Daulel Mc Grath, aged 62 years, one of the oldest and most respected residents of this place, was instantly killed this morning at 7 o'clock by an Eric train in charge of Conductor Pruner. She had started out it if the re-At present lists. bellion comes this way. At present they do nothing but talk. At the east-ern end of the island matters are dif-The programme at each concert embraced selections from the classic to popular airs which were given with a spirit that left nothing to be desired. Enjoyable numbers on the list were compositions of Victor Herbert, includ-lar airs from his new complete control ferent. The entire province of Santi-ago, with the exception of the fortified towns is in arms. Insurgents who numbered 3,000 when Campos landed, now number 8,000. They are constantly ing airs from his new comic opera, "Prince Ananins," which is now being performed by the Bostonians.

Martinez Campos has no use for the American correspondent. He has muz-Encores were frequent and the spirit of good nature seemed to prevail. The arrangements for the comfort of visitors at the park reflect great credit upon Manager Laine, Polite attendants are found in every department, and a

American correspondent. He has muz-zled the Spanish and Cuban press and would muzzle that of the United States if he could. His recent order to shoot down any correspondent who crosses to the insurgents' line and attempts to return was aimed at the American cor-mesonedistic The constraints of tole. force of watchful police are constantly on the ground night and day. Perfect order is maintained at all times. Judging from the success of the Gil-more band concerts, Laurel Hill park respondents. The censorship of tele-graphs and cables has not prevented them from sending the truth to the United States as to the progress of the insurrection, and the American papers lestined to be the po

Swivel Silks, Kai-Kai Silks, Habituai Silks, Printed India Silks, Brocade Taffeta Silks, in fancy effects for Waists; Black Brocade India Silks, Black Brocade Taffeta Silks, Arnures, Peau De Sole, Satin Duchesse, Satin Solell, etc., etc.

We Leave

The Settlement

Of the KNOTTY question of the NATIONAL-ITY of some of these goods to others who more time at their disposal, and will merely say that you will AL-WAYS find our

Qualities

And Prices Right

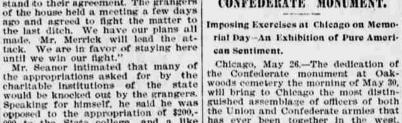

We have made Special Low Prices on a large line of Wool Dress Goods of this season to reduce stock.

510 and 512 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

Agent for Charles A.

Schleren & Co.'s

Leather

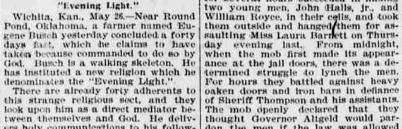

has ever been together in the west. The citizens of Chicago have made ample arrangements for their entertainbe a reception and reunion which will be a reception and reunion which will go a long way in more firmly cement-ing the fraternal bonds of the North and South. In that reunion there will be no North, no South, but a pure American sorthment and patricking un-

American sentiment and patrictism under the Stars and Stripes. There is to be no display of the Confederate colors. And while the citizens of Chicago ors. And while the clizens of Chicago are nobly doing their share in this great event the people of the South are giv-ing a helping hand. Already carloads of flowers, trees, plants, mosses and magnolias for decorating purposes have been started from several southern cities. The Chicago Veteran association an organization of Union veterans, will place a cross eight feet in height on the All of the guests arriving direct from Washington will come in special cars, and a special train will also come from the South. Rooms have been reserved for the entire party at the Palmer house, the guests of the owners. There will be a reception in the parlors and Mr. Martin Not in the Fight. The administration forces, together with Chris L. Magee and Senators Film and Porter, are in favor of the bill. David Martin is not taking a hand in the matter, and it is well for the friends of the bill that he is not. If it were known he favored it, the support-ers of Senator Quay, many of whom will vote for the bill, would vote the other way just to get a chance at Mar-tin. There is some doubt as to Sena-tor Quay's position on this measure. club room of the Palmer house Wednesday evening, May 29, at which the general citizens' committee will call upon the distinguished guests and the tween themselves and God. He deliv-ers holy communications to his follow-ers after he has passed through a sort of trance and he has instructed them to abandon all of their worldly posses-sions and take up a nomadic life. Busch and his formity will also give up that and his family will also give up their homes and become pilgrims. CONFEDERATE MONUMENT.

a genuine 18c. cloth, black grounds, with figures, rings, spots, sprays, etc. Sale price 12½c. NO. 2

Highest Class tch Ginghams, no better ds made. You know they're worth 25c. Sale price 12%c.

SALE CONTINUES IO DAYS. GLOBE WAREHOUSE.

On Thursday at 8 a. m. a national tin. There is some doubt as to sena-tor Quay's position on this measure. A week ago its friends heralded from the housetops that the Beaver man wanted the bill to pass, believing that the governor would sign it and appoint as one of the judges his friend and neighbor, Judge Wickham, of Beaver. Since then ex-Magistrate Durham salute will be given on the lake front The distinguished guests will take car jages at 8,30 a. m. at the Palmer house and, under the escort of the Chicago city troop, will take a train on the card invitation.

FIGHTING IN GUINEA.

thief Cabral Shoots Down the Flag o

Truce.

ter of the colonies, has received a cable dispatch from the governor of French

Guinea reporting severe fighting. The dispatch narrates that some Brazillan adventurers captured and robbed a Frenchman named Trajane, a settler on the boundary. Other Frenchmen Frenchman named Tragane, a setter on the boundary. Other Frenchmen had been similarly treated, and con-sequently the governor sent the dis-patch vessel Bangali and a number of marines to restore order. When the vessel reached Mapa, fifteen boat loads of marines went up the river fifteen miles. Capitain Lunier and some of the marines landed, the captain carrying a flag of truce, proceeded with a bugler and a sergeant toward the village, where Trajane was held, intending to demand his release. When they came into the presence of the chief, Cabral, the latter treach-erously fired at Capitain Lunier and ordered his followers to shoot the French-men. A general fusilade was opened on them from all the houses in the village. Lieutenant Destoux hearing the firing hurried to the village from the river with a company of marines, and a conflict followed that lasted two hours. Chief Cabral and sixty followers were killed. The French lost five killed, in-

STATE SNAP SHOTS.

The Girard estate has received $4,000 from Shenandoah borough for land ap-propriated for water works.

In a gas explosion in a Nanticoke mine, gnatz Wenishenk was fatally and An-irew Secowski badly injured.

Robert Jennings was yesterday appoint-d fourth-class postmaster at Barleytown, d fourth-class postmaster at E ice William Minnigh, resigned.

die

The |

$100.

Halls said:

minutes life appeared to be extinct

In Sympathy with the Mob.

The mother of Halls is greatly dis-

The faces of the men were not covered bodies, were cut down at 8 o'clock, and taken to an undertaker's office.

Paris, May 26 .- M. Chautemps,

Since then ex-Magistrate Durham and Senators Andrews and Penrose have been lobbying against the meashave been lobbying against the meas-ure, and the natural conclusion is that Senator Quay does not want it passed. The Allegheny delegation, with the possible exception of the two or three close Quay men, will support the bill.

the Philadelphia representatives are bout equally divided. The fight for a new apportionment is The fight for a new apportionment is not yet ended. Representative Smith, of Jefferson, whose county gains a rep-resentative by the legislative bill, will introduce a resolution in the house on Tuesday that the legislature do not ad-journ until a reapportionment of the state is made. Mr. Smith will demand a cull call on his resolution. This will state is made. Mr. Smith will demand a roll call on his resolution. This will show just how each member stands on the question. Many of the members have been hearing from their constitu-ents since the defeat of the congresents since the defeat of the congres-sional, senatorial and legislative appor-tionment bills last week and there is a decided change of sentiment. Every newspaper in the state has written edi-neities endemning the course of the orials condemning the course of the egislature in killing this legislation.

Canyass for Reconsideration.

A systematic canvass of the house is eing made to ascertain how many being made to ascertain how many members favor a reconsideration of the three bills. If enough pledges can be secured, a motion to reconsider the vote by which these bills were defeated will be made. This must be done by Tues-day, as under the rules, bills cannot be day, as under the rates, miss cannot be reconsidered after five legislative days. A special effort will be made to get the legislative apportionment bill through. There will be a number of important changes in the departments on Capitol Hill this week. Those who speak by author#y say Auditor General Mylin authority authority say Author General Mynn will make a complete reorganization of the force in the auditor general's of-fice. Some of the attaches who have been there for years are to go to make been there for years are to go to make been there for years are to go to make room for younger and more active poli-tical workers. General Mylin is wait-ing for the house to dispose of the bill creating the office of deputy auditor general before he reorganizes the de-partmnt. Th bill is on the calendar for third reading and final massing and will third reading and final passage and will be disposed of this week. Professor Albert S. Bolles, of Phila-lelphia, retires next Friday as chief of the Bureau of industrial statistics. He will be succeeded by Captain James M.

cluding Captain Lunier, and twenty wounded. M. Chautemps is now con-ferring by cable with the governor re-garding the measures to be taken in Clark, of New Castle. It is expected that Secretary Latta will make a few changes in the department of Internal garding the the matter. affairs next month. James M. Barnett, of Washington, will be here this week to assume the duties of deputy secretary of the commonwealth. He succeeds A. L. Tilden, of Eris, a hold-over of the Is Stroudsburg, with a population of ,018, there are 140 more women than men. Thieves stole $,500 cigars from D. R. Frank's store, at Richland, Lebanon

L. Thur, of Ene, a non-ver of the re-tained by Secretary Reeder until hext fall. There are several Democrats in General Reeder's office who will give way to Republicans after the legislaadjourns.

Easy on Pattisou's Men. Easy on Pattisou's Men. This administration has been very lenient with the appointees of Gover-nor Fattison. Only one change has been made in the insurance department, and none of the clerks in the adjutant general's department have been dis-turbed. Factory Inspector Campbell has made no changes in the corps of deputies appointed by his predecessor, Robert Watchorn. All the Democratic appointees in the executive and banking department have long since been re-moved.

Colonel John M. Wetherill, of Pottsville, left an estate worth $300,000 and gave $1,000 to the Society of Free Quakers of Philadel-phia. A man with the letters J. G. tatooed on his arm and supposed to be from Jersey City, N. J., was killed on the railroad at Bethlehem.

department have long since been re-moved. The wholesale mercantile interestar will make another and final effort this interestar plea to let the law take its course. "We will give these fellows a heavy sentence, and they will get their just Pronunciamento to the People United States. dues," said the judge. "The law will Memphis, Tenn., May 26 .- The Bimegive them heavy sentences." One of the leaders replied:

tallic league of Tennessee has issued the following pronunciamento: Illinois Central road for Oakwoods. On the arrival of the special train at "Yes, we know the jury will convlct them and give them a severe sentence, but Governor Altgeld will pardon them To the People of the United States "Yes, we know the jury will convict them and give them a severe sentence, but Governor Altgeld will pardon them out. He recently pardoned three brutes you sent up from Champaign county for twenty years, and he will pardon these men. If any other man that Alt-geld was governor we would not lynch these men. But we are determined he will never have a chance to turn them loose. Sixty-seventh street station the party vill take carriages, and, under the escort of the Black Hussars, will be driver to the monument site, where they will occupy an elevated and commodious stand, in front of which there will be seats to accommodate several thousand people. The space necessary for the ceremonies will be roped off, and loose. access to stand and seats will be by

The mob would not listen to the judge and the sheriff telegraphed to the gov-ernor asking that militia be sent to his The address than goes on to say: That the people may come together and take counsel of each other, it has been deemed expedient to call together a con-vention to assemble at Momphis on the tweifth and thirteenh days of June. Ev-ery community, every city and town, and every state in the Union are earnestly re-quested and cordially invited to send dele-rates to that convention. It is prepared At the conclusion of the dedicatory ceremonies guests of honor will take aid. At 3.15 the mob secured both of the carriages and be driven to the city, and torium hotel, and annex to witness the where the girls were attacked. The will occupy the balconies of the Audi-torium hotel, and annex to witness the Grand Army of the Republic memorial parade in the afternoon. Thursday night, in the floral hall at the Palmer house, there will be a so-cial and military reception. gates to that convention. It is proposed that this convention shall voice the senti-that this convention shall voice the senti-ments of the people. The object of this convention is to for-mulate some definite plan of future ac-tion; to give direction to the overwheiming volume of public sentiment favoring a re-turn to our own, and establishing our inthe day began to break at 3.40 o'clock Then the lynchers became impatient, and refused to wait longer. Royce's "I am innocent, but I am prepared to die. "I have made my peace with God."

dependence of allen inancial institutions; to devise means for such campaign of edu-cation that it hereafter will be possible to elect only such men to the legislative and executive offices of the nation as are unawed by power and unbought by spolls. "Those are my sentiments, but I am not ashamed of what I have done

The ropes were fastened to the bridge railing, and the young men were told to jump. They refused. Men seized each of them and threw them over the LIGHT FOR KENTUCKY.

The Author of "Coin's Financial School rall. The ropes were fifteen fact long, stout, and well tied. After about ten Invited to Make Speeches.

Louisville, Ky., May 26.—The Dem-ocratic state leaders of Kentucky, headed by John D. Carrell, chairman of the Democratic state executive com-mittee, have invited W. H. Harvey, author of "Coin's Financial School," to lets. come to Kentucky and make speeches advocating the free and unlimited coin-

While a few citizens deplore mob vio-lence, the general majority of the peo-ple are in full sympahty with the work of the night. A committee from the lynchers has offered to pay for the age of silver. The object The object of this is to counteract the effect of Secretary Carlisle's arguments from a sound money standpoint, which have already set up a counter-tide to the silver movement which has taken a firm hold on the people. damage done to the jal, and although the iron doors to corridors and cells were battered down the sheriff does not think the damage will be in excess

M'KINLEY BOOM GROWS.

Plans to Fix the Tennessee Delegation for 1806.

The mother of Halls is greatly dis-tracted. Living in the edge of South Danville, she could look across the river and see the crowd around the jail, and hear the blows of the battering ram Memphis, Tenn., May 26.-Congress-man Charles Grosvenor, of Ohlo, will come to Memphis on June 2 to spend upon the iron doors of the jail. She ran through the streets of the village pull-ing her hair until restrained by friends come to themphis on June 2 to spend several days. The object of the visit, according to local politichans, will be to begin the formation of plans that will tend to fix the Tennessee delegation in 1896 favorably to Hon. William McKin-ley for the presidential nomination of the next to ing her hair until restrained by friends A public meeting has been called to meet in South Danville tomorrow night at which time notice is to be served upon all tough characters in that place to leave the country or run the risk of meeting the same fate that befell Halls and Royce. It is reported that the parents of the young men lynched will sue the county young men lynched will sue the county for damages, and will make an effort to have the members of the mob indicted.

have the members of the mob indicted. It was expected by some that Judge Bookwalter would, yesterday, call the grand jury before him and instruct them to make a searching investigation into the lynching, but he did not.

DUPED BY A FAKIR.

Michigan Boys Give Up Money to See the "Mesmerism Act." Ann Arbor, Mich., May 28.—A far-sighted fakir caught a lot of suckers yesterday afternoon. Standing at the rear end of an open hack, he produced a deck of cards and asked each on-locker to draw one. He would place the card in a cigar box and return it in a few minutes with a photograph of the onlooker on the back. Then he have been brought here by the thousfor Scrantonians during the pleasant and and read with great interest in the afternoons and evenings of the coming nomes and clubs of Cubans. But as the Spanish army operates summer.

CHANGES ON THE TIMES. without establishing sentinel lines, and even the insurgents scouts pass and re-pass without difficulty the correspond-Editor Hudson Retires and Mr. Bell Takes onts will prohably visit the interior in a New Partner. Papers will today pass between Sam-uel Hudson and W. R. Bell, proprietors of the Scranton Times, whereby Mr. Hudson will dispose of his half interest to Mr. Bell, who will immediately take Full Time at Susquehanna.

WEATHER REPORT.

George B. Montgomery Kills Archbald Riley.

whenever occasion requires it.

KENTUCKY VENGEANCE.

into partnership Charles J. Watkins, of the West Side, formerly pressman and Versailles, Ky., May 26.-At noon to-day the steps of Troy Presbyterian church, seven miles south of here, were stereotyper on The Tribune, and a gen tleman well-known in newspaper tricles. Mr. Watkins will become part owner with Mr. Bell, and assume the newspaper Converted in a dueling ground, George B. Montgomery killing his brother-in-haw, Archibald Riley, and being himself mortally wounded by Riley. The mur-der was the culmination of a sensation that upsot high society in the Blue Comes section three years are when it business management. The latter will take charge of the editorial depart-ment. John H. Blackwood will conthrue his capable relation with the busi-ness end of the paper. M. J. O'Toole, for three years an Grass section three years ago, when it is said Riley seduced Montgomery's sister and fled to Mississippi. He was energetic and reliable member of the local staff of the Republican, will bebrought back, and at the point of a pis-tol forced to marry the girl. He im-mediately described her and did not recome city editor and be assisted by J. Moriarity, of the South Side; J. D. Keator, of the North End, and W. G. Moser, of the West Side. turn to these parts until recently. Both men attended church today. There was a large congregation present There T. K. Laufer, who has been city edi-tor, will go west and accept a place on one of the Chicago dailies.

Neither man saw the other till after the services, when they met face to face on the steps. Both began firing at once and did not stop till one was JAMES CAYGILL BURIED.

at once and the other dying. The congregation became panic stricken at once, and the wildest con-fusion resulted. Scores of ladies fainted and several were badly trampled in the emains Laid at Rest in Forest Hill Cemetery. Preceded by Bauer's band, the de eased's position in the organization be stampede. The entire thing was done so quickly that no one thought of interng vacant, the funeral procession o was killed the late James Caygill, wh fering. Both men were astoundingly Friday night in the Pine Brook shaft, departed fom the late home on New street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and proceeded to Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church, where Rev. W. H. cool and deliberate. Neither is thought to have said a word before firing, nor to have made the slightest attempt to shield himself from the other's bul-

After firing the last shot, Montgrom Pearce, D. D., conducted the funera services. The pastor preached an im-pressive sermon, and the church quarery turned to the bystanders and said: "Gentlemen, I hated to do this; but was ette sang appropriate hymns. compelled to. My conscience is now The band played three dirges on the casy.

Riley was 30 years of age. Montmarch from the house to the grave in Forest Hill cemetery. The floral offer-ings were many and beautiful. The at-Riley was 30 years of age. Mont-gomery is 29, and unmarried. It is claimed that Riley had threatened Montgomery's life, and both men had been carrying pistols for each other. tendance at the funeral was large, and much sympathy was felt for the afflicted widow. The pall-bearers were se-lected from the Accident Fund of the SHOT GEORGE WASHINGTON. Pine Brook shaft.

Father of the Triplets Named by Rose A. L. FOOTE IS DEAD. Cleveland Is a Good Marksman. Cleveland Is a Good Marksman. Waco, Tex., May 26.—George Dallas Griffice was seated in his door yes-terday in the business conter of Waco, when George Washington Anderson, his son-in-iaw, and Columbus Ander-son drove up in a buggy. Griffice had been warned that his son-in-law in-tended to kill him, and he fired two bul-lets through Anderson. Washington Apderson fell from the buggy a corpse and Columbus Anderson fied, Griffice firing at him as he ran. The streets were crowded, and stray Green Ridge Liveryman Passed Away 4.30 Saturday Morning. Liveryman A. L. Foote flied at bis home, 1533 Capouse avenue, after an li-ness of two years. His wife and daughter, Mrs. E. Cadalso, and son, D. L. Foote, survive. The deceased was born in Susque-hanna county and had been a Scranton critizen since 1859. He was a well-known citizen and a successful business man. He belonged to the Green Ridge lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, and was

The streets were crowded, and stray bullets killed Tom Lewis, a colored boy, and wounded Henry Hays, col-ored. George Dallas Griffice is the a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd, on Monsey avenue. The fu-neral will take place tomorrow afterfather of striplets, who were named Ruby, Garnet and Coral by Rose Cleve-land, sister of the president. George Washington Anderson, the dead man, eloped with the 14-year-old daughter of Griffice and married her. He ran noon from the church. Interment will be made in Forest Hill comstery.

Susquehanna Pa., May 23.—For the first time in two years the extensive loco-motive abops here and all the shops in the New York. Lake Erie and Western 1535-tam will hereafter and until further notice be in operation ten hours per day. away a short time ago with a pretty girl.

ARRANGING THE DETAILS. ish-American Societies That Will Be in Line on Memorial Day.

For eastern Pennsylvania, generally air; except showers in northern portion; lecidedly cooler.

For the Youth, the Boy, the Man. their Fech. Our Shoes make us busy. 114 and 116 Wyo-ming avenue. Wholesale and ret. ii.

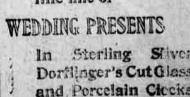

Just Received

A beautiful line of Engagement and Wedding Rings. Alco a fine line of

In Sterling Sliver, Dorflinger's CutGlass, and Porcelain Ciecks, at

w. J. Weichel's,

408 Spruce Street.

his party. The feeling among Republicans in this city is divided, but it is believed that the majority of them favor Mc-Kinley at present.

BRIEFLY WIRED.

A special meeting of the delegates from societies comprising the Lacka-wanna County Council of Irish-Ameri-can societies was held last night at 421

For the murder of his wife, Jacob Mil-ler, of Chicago, gets twenty-five years in prinson.

G. S. Osbórn. Leaving behind a $10,000 deficit, A. L. Brainard, bookkeeper for Carrow, Kelly & Co., of Omaha, has fied. The annual session of the Scotch-Irish Society of America will be held at Lex-ington, Ky., beginning June 20. Insane from Illness, Mrs. Victoria Machen, widow of United States Senator Machen, shot herself at Clinton.

A supposed explosion of gasoline blew up an Ornaha house, fatally burning Mrs. G. S. Osborn.