THIRTY-FIVE HAVE PASSED
 Result of Examinations of Pupils of County Schools.
NAMES OF SUCCESSFUL ONES
 Seventy Took the First Examination Held in Liberty Hall—Two Hundred and Twenty-Four Attended the Central Examinations This Year.

A final examination in common branches for pupils in Lackawanna county schools, in Liberty Hall in this city on Saturday, May 18, at which seventy pupils, representing twenty-two districts, were examined. The County Superintendent J. C. Taylor and a committee consisting of Principals Carrie A. Kenyon, Ida A. White, Ella M. Drake, R. N. Davis, M. J. Lloyd, James F. Foley, W. A. Peck, E. L. Thompson and F. H. Green.

The committee finished its work on Friday last and announces the following results: Thirty-four candidates were successful and will receive certificates of rank, showing their standing in the several branches. The first ten made an average above 85 per cent., the one who has the highest mark being Miss Mathilda J. Smith, of Fairport, who made 90 per cent. The remainder of the successful pupils made averages below 85 and not less than 80 per cent. Superintendent Taylor introduced this method of examining the pupils. All of them who in the final examination receive an average of not less than 80 per cent. are entitled to a common school diploma, and upon successful marks in theory of teaching they will receive a provisional certificate.

Names of Successful Ones.
 The names of the thirty-five pupils who passed are as follows: Mathilda J. Smith, Fairport; Mary Hogan, Olyphant; Ernest L. Bovard, Jermy; Minnie May, Blakely; Mary Van Buskirk, Taylor; May O'Dell, Jermy; Best Fern, Moscow; Lizzie Dolphin, Fairport; May Martin, Jermy; Maggie Evans, Olyphant; Lizzie Williams, Taylor; Alice Landell, Moscow; Sallie Price, Taylor; Katie Walsh, Olyphant; Belle Wallace, Blakely; Lizzie Hurdon, Moscow; Jessie Morgan, Minooka; Howard Ackery, Clark's Summit; John Pressman, Fairport; Maggie Mulhern, Jermy; Mary Sussie, Fairport; Harris Taylor, Saddle Mahoney, Waverly; Mabel Decker, North Abington; Katie Donnelly, Winton; Jennie McCann, Olyphant; Elizabeth Mary, North Abington; Anna Brown, Minooka; John Mahoney, Waverly; May O'Hara, Fairport; Charles Thompson, Saddle Mahoney; Minooka; Gilbert Taylor, Blakely.

The plan of county graduation is rapidly growing in favor, as is shown by the number of the classes examined. Last year there were 128 candidates in the central examinations and 36 in the final one. This year the number of candidates in the final examinations, and 70 the final at Liberty Hall.

Merit of the Plan.
 The number of graduates last year was 14. This year 35. Another merit which Superintendent Taylor thinks the plan possesses, is its tendency to unify teaching in common branches throughout the county and to standardize by which all teachers may measure their work. It also calls attention to neglected branches.

TWO HOUSES RAIDED.
 Eight Evil-Doers Captured in the Police Drug Net.

For some time past complaint has reached the police in regard to a disorderly house, 317 Center street, kept by Jennie Roth. A warrant was sworn out and last night Lieutenants Davis and Patrolmen Neuls, Moll, Day, Evans, Lowry and Melzer visited the place and arrested two men and two women. Roth, the proprietress, was not at home, and therefore escaped arrest. The woman are Jennie Sauter and Lottie Smith, but the men were given their names.

The house at 317 Center street was very disorderly and the police raided it, capturing three women and one man. Two of them are Mrs. Frank Arnold and Barbara Wright.

WILL CONTEST THE CLAIM
 Councils Decide Not to Pay the Turnpike Company's Claim.

POSITION THAT THEY TAKE
 No Debate Upon Matter—Think It Will Do a Good Thing to Have Dispute Definitively Settled as a Guide in Similar Affairs.

A joint session of councils last night decided to contest the claim of $5,382.74 of the Providence Turnpike company against the city.

In 1888 the company agreed to remove its toll gate from Providence square to a point outside the city line, the city agreeing to keep in good repair that portion of the turnpike remaining within the city. Nearly $2,000 was expended by the city during the first two years, but the company was not satisfied with the work and claims that $5,382.74 had to be expended to keep the turnpike in good condition. Last year the company renewed its demand for the amount in question. Councils demurred and directed the mayor to secure a legal opinion on the validity of the claim. City Solicitor Torrey having been interested in the case before his election, the matter was referred to Judge Jessup, who recommended that the claim be paid.

Nothing was done in the matter, and as the case is the trial list for today Mayor Connell called last night's special session for the purpose of taking up the matter. The Turnpike company's willingness to wait until April of next year for payment was not asked and Mr. Manly's resolution and the resolution of the council were new council and request from the court a continuance of the case. The resolution provides that the suit shall not be contested unless the new council disputes the validity of the claim.

The decision of the councils was the unanimous voice of the fourteen members present in favor of the city. There was no debate upon the matter, as preceding the meeting the members expressed the opinion that by court the matter would be decided definitely, and the result would guide the city in further contracts of a nature similar to the one in dispute.

HELD IN BONDAGE
 All Her Life—Happy Release at Last of Miss Alice Young, Who Resides at 302 Alexander Street, Rochester, N. Y.

(From the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.)

Our representative was received very pleasantly at 302 Alexander street, by Miss Alice Young, who told how since childhood she had been held in the bondage of pain from her back, never remembering the time that she had not suffered pain or aches in the region of the kidneys. Many were the means she used to find relief, but there seemed no remedy for her case and she remained a captive; then along comes these little enemies to backache, Doan's Kidney Pills, and a half box releases the bonds, as one by one the aches and pains disappear, she finds herself a slave to pain no more, by her continued use. She says: "I was utterly relieved of all my suffering and now I am perfectly strong, healthy and well."

"How did you take this remedy?" Miss Young was asked by our representative. She replied that she followed directions explicitly. Miss Young then told how the malady affected her, saying her symptoms were: "Stooping, bending over, walking or standing a long time always gave me a pain in the small of my back, I had a pain in the kidneys all the time and if I caught cold it would always settle there; the pain I suffered was of a very exhausting nature; at night I could only lie flat on my back, any other position causing pain and suffering; the nerves passing up my back were affected and this brought with it severe headache, but as I said before, Doan's Kidney Pills have removed all pain and suffering entirely and I never felt better and healthier in my life."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents, mailed by Posters-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States.

VERY FINE SPECIALTIES.
 Given in the Theater at Laurel Hill Park.

The few who risked the raw and chilly weather last night were amply repaid by the excellent vaudeville entertainment which is surely worth more than ordinary patronage. The first night of the season, given by the "Crescent" troupe, has been secured at great expense by Manager Laine and presents a most delicious and characterful character.

The Lundgreens, George and May, appeared in a dancing and sentimental play, "The Girl of the Year," which Morris' educated ponies are controlled by Master Leon Morris and gave evidence that the claim is true; they are the best trained body of equines in the world. This act concludes with a wrestling bout between a pony and his trainer, and is followed by a letter-advantage than a similar specialty presented here by the "A Country Circus" company.

Cooper, the original battle club manipulator; Marie Warren, the Boston soloist; and Carrie Monroe, in a paper tearing specialty, complete the company, which is better than good.

Owing to the very inclement weather the balloon ascension, announced for Monday night, could not be made yesterday afternoon, but will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Professor Charles Thompson will ascend in a balloon, which will weigh 1,000 feet and descend in a parachute.

The first performance in the curriculum will take place at 2 o'clock, when the pupils will perform on the high wire and the Morris school of ten highly trained ponies will appear in a versatile programme of horsemanship. At 7 o'clock the orchestra band will give its first open air afternoon concert from the park bandstand. At 8.30 the second performance of the vaudeville company will take place in the new Pavilion Opera house.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE.
 Little Teresa Tobin Found Ten Miles from Home—Entertainment by Sunday School Class—The Funeral of Michael Dempsey.

Teresa Tobin, 7-year-old daughter of Michael Tobin, of Irving avenue, whose absence from home was noted in this column several days ago, was found on a farm, ten miles away on the mountain, by some young boys who went in search of her. She is in a dazed condition, and very much exhausted from her tramp through the woods. She had not been drenched by the rain, having taken shelter under a tree. Her parents were overjoyed at the return of their daughter. As Irving avenue is close to the woods, she must have wandered and got lost; as yet no one has been able to give any story, because she is nervous and almost terror-stricken from a night in the forest.

An admission fee of 15 cents will be charged, and after the programme refreshments will be served free of all.

Michael Dempsey Buried.
 One of the largest funerals of this side was the one that accompanied the remains of Michael J. Dempsey, of Pittston avenue, to the grave yesterday afternoon. The remains were borne to St. Stephen's church and a solemn high mass of requiem celebrated. Father Moffitt, Father Melley, and Rev. John Loughran, of Fairport, officiated. The sermon was preached by Father Melley, who spoke of the life and character of the deceased. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock in the morning at the Catholic cemetery. As the remains were being borne from the church Miss Wreath Melley sang the hymn, "I am a Bird." The pall-bearers were from Branch 35, Catholic Mutual Benefit association.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.
 (Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

Honestale Is Ahead.
 Editor of The Tribune.
 Sir: In the Friday's issue of The Tribune we notice the statement that the proposed chorus choir for the First Presbyterian church of your city is "a feature in church music that is not known outside of New York, Philadelphia and other large cities."

The writer of the article seems to have been misinformed on the subject. In justice to Honestale, we would like to mention the fact that the First Presbyterian church of this place has a chorus choir of fifty voices, which made its first appearance on Easter Sunday. The organ is situated on the east side of the church, and the chorus choir is seated in the gallery at the south side, opposite the minister. Although the organ and sinners are separated by a little distance, the harmony is pronounced good and "no difficulty is experienced in keeping together." Since the chorus choir is a "feature in church music" in your city we invite you to come over here, and we may be able to give you some points, so, once again, in respect to Honestale, Scranton is willing to adopt the motto: "We'll admit, but not inferior."

Respectfully yours,
 H. E. Rockwell.
 Honestale, May 27, 1895.

WIDENING MATTES STREET.
 Artisans Have Begun the Work in Connection With It.

A gang of carpenters started yesterday morning at work on the widening of a temporary bridge on Mattes street, preliminary to the widening of that thoroughfare and the raising of the present bridge two feet.

The work will be done by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and pushed ahead to early completion. The work will be done on the temporary track that will be built for use while the iron bridge is being lengthened, raised and the street made wider.

WEST PIER COMPLETED.
 Iron Work of Linden Street Bridge Can Begin at Once.

The masonry work on the Linden Street bridge is sufficiently advanced to permit the beginning of the middle and western spans. The west pier was completed yesterday, when excavation was begun for the eastern abutment. From this time on the iron work of the spans will arrive this week over the Jersey Central road, and it is expected that the work of placing it in position will be started next week. The excavating and masonry operations for the Spruce Street bridge are not progressing very rapidly.

Are you paying too much for plumbing? Our telephone is 232. Try us. W. G. Doud & Co., 509 Lacka. ave.

The members of the Father Whitty Temperance society are requested to be present at a meeting which will be held in their rooms next Sunday afternoon.

The committee of the Providence Cambrian Glee society will meet tonight in Alderman Robert's office to complete arrangements for the concert which they will hold in the near future.

John Caffery, of Fulton street, for many years a resident of this place, died last Saturday of apoplexy. He was 69 years of age, and is survived by two sons and three daughters, all of whom are married and with exception, reside here. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in the Hyde Park cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Anthony Neary, James Murphy, Anthony Barrett, James Ruddy, Michael McGuire, and Edward Neary.

A meeting of the John R. Fordham Prohibition league was held in the annex of the Zion Evangelical church, on Centre street, last night when the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Rev. G. L. Malco, president; John Davis, first vice-president; J. F. Hantz, second vice-president; J. M. Howells, secretary; C. A. Nicholson, financial secretary; W. C. Reynolds, treasurer, and A. L. Callender and A. G. Thomason, members of the executive committee.

During the summer there will be but one meeting each month, which will be held on the third Monday evening.

Yesterday afternoon Joseph Rink, of Lloyd street, swore out a warrant for Alderman Roberts for assault and battery. About six weeks ago Rink placed a garden after which he moved from the house on that lot, but it was agreed that the garden should still remain in his possession. Justin moved into the house vacated by Rink and allowed his chickens to roam at large. They got into Rink's garden Sunday morning and in a dispute over them, Justin assaulted Rink. After hearing the evidence Alderman Roberts held him in $200 bail to appear in court.
