THE WORLD OF BUSINESS STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, May 27.—Speculation at the Stock exchange is still governed by the advices about the growing crops. At the opening today, for instance, stocks showed an improving tendency, the reports of damage so freely circulated on Saturday last having failed to materialize and the shorts had to undergo a bad quartet of an hour, especially in the Grangers, which advanced 1/2 and 1/4 per cent. The bears in these stocks did it hard work, but may be heard for a while, because that up-to-date representatives of the western lines in this city have been able to confirm the reports of damage to 45%, and returned to 44%. The Industrials were strong. Distillers and Tobaccos were very strong. In the last hour the market was quiet and firm, except for the cordage stocks, which sold reports of another reorganization of the property with heavy assessments all around. Speculation closed firm. Net change, show gains of 1/4 shares.

HONESDALE. Yesterday afternoon while A. W. Seaman, of the firm of Seaman & Co., was waiting on two boatmen, one of the men noticed a man making away with a pair of shoes that were hanging from a string in front of the store. Mr. Seaman at once gave pursuit, and after dodging the man for about two blocks found Officer Smith, who joined in the chase. The thief was captured on Second street, near Whitton's barn. He was recognized by an alarm clock which he had been trying to sell to a boatman. Officer Smith removed the pair of shoes from under his coat and marched the man over before Squire Smith. He gave his name as Frank Kelley and residence Honesdale. Officer Smith then sized him up with one glance and said he didn't belong to Honesdale, whereupon Kelley claimed Hawley as his residence. He said he didn't believe he took the shoes from Seaman & Co., and if he were he would have been intoxicated. Then he said he bought them from Seaman. Mr. Seaman identified the shoes as well as his trademark and price, which was 85 cents. After a little sparring Kelley pleaded guilty. Being unable to furnish $200 he was committed to jail. Officer Smith refused to leave his alarm clock with the justice, but he claimed it as his own and was allowed to take it home.

AS OF OLD.

Men want to Live Long, be Strong Happy, Love and be Loved. AND THEY MAY! THE SECRET DISCOVERED.

"Make it known!" "Make it known!" "Make it known!" "Tell it to all Men!" "Proclaim it to all the world that you have the secret of perfect health for men; of power over disease, weakness and decay; of glorious Manhood. Write it, talk it, sing it, shout it till all eyes and ears of these human wretches are saved!"

AS OF OLD. So writes a happy man, fresh from the Slough of Despond. "The discovery has been proclaimed but men are slow to believe. They will not open to inquire, to investigate. Why will not every man do so? There is a simple way to cure at home all the troubles of the human system, to drive out the excesses of later years which blast the lives of multitudes of men. A way to regain strength lost by disease, overwork and worry. A way to retain the abilities sacrificed to dissipation—to be glad again after suffering and lamentation. A way to retard drains on the system that sap the vitality. A way to replace nervousness, dread and despondency with courage and self-respect. A way to give full, energetic development and tone to every part of the mind and organ of the body. A way to remove every obstacle to happy and fruitful married life. All this is clearly shown in a little medical work recently published. It is not a treatise on general circulation, being purely medical and scientific, and for men only who need advice and aid. How to get it: Write to the Erie Medical Company, Buffalo, N. Y., say you read the article in this paper and ask them to send you the book. It costs $2.00, with a 10c postage to "Attain It." They will send you a copy entirely free in a plain sealed wrapper to any man who writes for it at once in good faith.

Diabetes Mellitus POSITIVELY CURED BY THE ONLY Magnetic Physician In Scranton. Dr. F. B. SMITH, 312 WYOMING AVENUE.

Diabetes is a disease of the nutritive system in which sugar accumulates in the blood, and is excreted through the urine. The daily quantity of urine is greatly increased. This disease may be divided into acute and chronic forms, but except in their duration there is no essential difference. Frequent urination and an intense thirst are the first symptoms that mark the onset of this disease, together with a voracious growth, the patient then begins to grow thin and shallow, losing flesh rapidly until he becomes a mere skeleton. The thirst is almost unendurable, it generally being greatest about an hour or two after meals. The tongue is dry, red and glazed, and the saliva very scanty; the gums become swollen, and constipation generally attacks the patient with these symptoms. Notwithstanding the enormous food consumed, the patient gradually wastes away. The skin becomes dry and harsh, and perspiration rarely occurs. Boils, carbuncles and other diseases of the skin often occur, especially eczema and pruritus. The patient is attacked with headache, and a faint intoxicating feeling comes over him and they generally fall into a deep, dull sleep. Diabetes, as a rule, is pronounced incurable by ordinary physicians, who know but little of anything of animal magnetism. It can be and is being permanently cured by Dr. F. B. Smith, at his parlors, 312 Wyoming avenue, from 1 to 2 p. m. daily. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily, except Sundays. Consultation free.

Diabetes is a disease of the nutritive system in which sugar accumulates in the blood, and is excreted through the urine. The daily quantity of urine is greatly increased. This disease may be divided into acute and chronic forms, but except in their duration there is no essential difference. Frequent urination and an intense thirst are the first symptoms that mark the onset of this disease, together with a voracious growth, the patient then begins to grow thin and shallow, losing flesh rapidly until he becomes a mere skeleton.
