COULDN'T HIT THE BALL.

Rochester, May 28.—The Rochester team were outplayed by the Springfield team and were never really in the game. McPartlin was erratic and gave the visitors enough hits to enable them to strike their graft. Loose fielding by the home team did the rest. Coughlin was freely hit, but the ball seldom went to unguarded quarters of the field. Shannon played a great game at short. Attendance, 1,000. Score:

First Baseman Clark Arrested
First Baseman Clark, of the Scranton club, was arrested at 11 o'clock last night and locked in the central police station, where charges of intoxication, larceny and resisting arrest were preferred against him. Clark was seen to take a pineapple from a Penn avenue market stand and enter Center street, where Patrolman Day found him standing in a doorway with the pineapple in his possession. He was placed under arrest, but broke away from the officer and ran nearly to Wyoming avenue before being overtaken. Patrolman Neils came to Day's assistance and with an officer on each side of him and a crowd of his heels the base ball player was taken to the police station.
