Year by year the American people

WIFE AGAINST HUSBAND.

She Alleges an Effort Is Being Made to Defraud Her.

In an equity suit begun in court yesterday by a wife against her husband and son is presented. Mrs. Louisa Lyman is plaintiff and the defendants are her husband, Henry Lyman, and her son, Henry Lyman, Jr. She is represented by Attorneys Charles E. Oliver and A. A. Vosburg.

The suit is brought to compel Lyman, Jr., to execute to his father a good and sufficient warranty deed of a certain lot of land situated on Eynon street in a portion of the Fifteenth ward known as Park Hill.

She complains that for the purpose of defrauding her of her dower interest in the lot, her husband and son conspired with one Christopher Strothoff to have it sold at sheriff's sale. And that a judgment not representing any existing indebtedness was given by them to Strothoff and allowed to remain unsatisfied on the record, so that on March 8, 1895, Sheriff Frank H. Clemens sold the lot to Edward D. Fellows as attorney for Strothoff.
On March 28 Attorney Fellows conveyed the lot to Strothoff, and two days later Strothoff conveyed it to Henry Lyman, Jr.

All this, she alleges, a trick to defraud her of her interest in the lot, and she prays the honorable court to circumvent the sharp practice of the defendants, and restore to her a deed of the lot. The defendants are required to plead to the charges within fifteen days. The plaintiff is the second wife of Lyman, who is a feeble old man.
Strothoff is uncle of the children by his first wife.

YOUNG PEOPLE CONFIRMED.

Impressive Ceremonies Held in the Linden Street Synagogue.

Seven young people were confirmed in the Linden Street synagogue yesterday morning. The services were of a most interesting character. A pleasing and beautiful service was furnished by Professor Durman, William Jones, Miss Margaret Jones and Mrs. B. F. Jayne. Miss Florence Richmond, of the First Presbyterian church, presided at the organ.

The services began at 9:30 o'clock and continued until the afternoon, the opening prayer being made by Emanuel Goodman and Samuel Bernstein. Those who were received and confirmed were:
Carrie Ross, Leon Lev, Albert M.
Gallen, Samuel Bernstein, Albert M.
Moses, Emanuel M. Goodman and Philip Bernstein. Each one undertook as a part in the service, after which they were addressed by Rabbi Feuerlicht, who urged them to remain steadfast to the faith in which they had been confirmed.

After the diplomas were handed to the new members, the candidates were returned to their parents, who were their children by imprinting a kiss upon their lips.

LORRAINE.

situation and surroundings, and see what a beautiful as well as convenient place it is to live in. Two special excursion trains will be provided, at 10:30 a. m. and 1:45 p. m. Judging from the enthusiasm manifested to hear about Lorraine, there will be quite a crowd of buyers on both trains.

hours at Lohmann's, Spruce street. Regular dinner 40 cents. Imported and domestic

FOR A DISTRICT COUNCIL

Meeting of Representatives of Local Institutes to Consider Matter.

DELEGATES THAT ATTENDED

It Was Decided to Petition the Grand President of the Atlantic Jurisdiction to Construct Councils of this County Into a District Council.

John Boyle O'Reilly council, Young Men's Institute hall on Lackawanna avenue was the assembling place last night of delegates from the local councils of the county. The object of the convention is to petition the grand president of the Atlantic jurisdiction into a district, which will be guided by a board of government elected from the members here with power to legislate for local matters.

As it is now a matter requiring adjudication must be passed upon by the grand council in Cincinnati. The distance makes it inconvenient, and, too, the institute is growing so rapidly in this county that it would be very handy and would facilitate matters if a district council were organized. Their work, of course, would be subject to review by the grand officers.

Last night a temporary organization was effected with T. J. Murphy as chairman and J. J. Brogan, secretary.
A committee to construct this district president for the creating of a district council was appointed as follows: J.
F. McDonnell, J. J. Scott, Richard Shannon, H. McConough, P. J. Pinney, P. F. Calpin and M. J. Grady.
The next convention will meet at the same place at the end of the year, when they will inform them when the committee hears from the grand president.
