Catholic Cemeteries-Farewell to

Mrs. P. J. Leonard-Personal.

Today will be celebrated quietly on this side. Many of our residents will cross the channel to the central city, for the purpose of seeing the parade. A monster street demonstration will also be held at Taylor, to which the people of the lower section will attend. At the Washburn street cemetery the graves have all been decorated with choice flowers. During the greater part of this week this city of the dead has been the scene of thousands beautify-ing the graves of loved ones, and by the careful attention of Sexton Evans the walks and side paths have been cleared of all refuse matter.

Among the young men, many will play base ball. Clarke Brothers' male em-ployes will handle the sphere in a game to be played at the Round Woods grounds in the morning. Robert Morris lodge base ball club and the Young Men's Institute team will do battle on Gammons' Hill at 9.30 o'clock. The Taylor Sunsets and the Ellis boys will play at the above mentioned place. Many other games are scheduled. Crowds of pleasure seekers will visit Lake Winela, Bald Mount and Moun-tain Lake, the last two named being seemingly the most popular. In the evening the Jackson Street Baptist church will hold a patriotic entertain-ment, and the Washburn Street Presfor Stroudsburg, where they will byterian church ladies will serve tea. breakfast and wheel to Dingman's ferry.
