PERSONAL.

Internal Revenue Collector Grant Herring and Deputy Collector Craig have returned from a fishing excursion to Potter county.

Revenue Agent Brown is in the city to confer with Collector Herring with regard to the adjusting of salaries of revenue employes.

Lewys Watcyn, conductor of the "Druid Glee Club," has passed the second examination for Bachelor of Music at Trinity university, Toronto, Canada, receiving second honors. The examination consisted of exercises in harmony, with advanced work in simple and invertible counterpoint, canon and fugue in five parts. Mr. Watcyn is a pupil of T. J. Davies, of this city, a gentleman whose abilities as a scholarly musician is known throughout the state.

Miss Minnie Cooper entertained a few of her friends last evening at her home, at Franklin avenue and Mulberry street. Those present were: Misses May Keifer, Belle Warren, Lou Deppon, Ethel Porter, Margaret Gould, Irene Cowles, Ada Moser, Edith Murphy, Flora Long, Walter Jones, David Owens, E. D. Owens, Walter Kiple, George Orr, Will Langstaff, Horace Smith, Charles Doersam, Patrick Kilcullen, Joseph Wagner, George Walden, Will Reynolds and Robert Cooper. Mr. Kiple played the violin and Mr. Doersam presided at the piano, the latter furnishing music for the "light fantastic" amusement. A quartette consisting of David Owens, E. D. Owens, Will Reynolds and Walter Jones sang several tunes.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Samuel Miller, of Kingston, spent yesterday with his parents on Fig street.

Peter Hitz, of Pittston avenue, whose leg was broken a few months ago, is seen on the streets again and will soon be around actively.

The funeral of Mrs. John Scheuer will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

The funeral of the 3-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Herz, of Stone avenue, will leave their residence at 2 p. m. Interment in Twentieth Ward German Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Honora Connery, one of the oldest residents on this side, died last evening at 9.45 o'clock. She was the mother of Mrs. John Fox, ex-Councilman John Connery and Patrick Connery, of this city. Funeral notice will be given later.

Mrs. Harriet Borches, aged 66 years, died at 5.30 a. m. yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis G. Schantz, 1430 Cedar avenue. Funeral Sunday, June 2, at home at 1.30 p. m. Services at German Lutheran church on Millin avenue at 2 p. m. and interment in German Lutheran cemetery on North Washington avenue.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

As to Municipal Reform.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: We were pleased to notice the prominence given to the meeting of the National Municipal league being held in Cleveland, O., at this time. Your editorial was very timely on this important subject, and it gives encouragement to those who are endeavoring to organize a Citizens' league in our own city. It is expected that Clinton Rogers Woodruff, who is secretary of the National league, and who gave such an interesting report at the Cleveland meeting, will give a public address in Scranton about the middle of June.

Sincerely,
Charles H. Chandler.
Corresponding Secretary.

FIFTH ANNUAL CROWNING

Memorial Day Exercises on Rectory Lawn of Holy Rosary Church.

STATUE OF VIRGIN CROWNED

Witnessed by Over Five Thousand People on William Street—Address by Rev. N. J. McManus—Over Seven Hundred Children Take Part.

Five years ago a statue of the Blessed Virgin was erected in the area between Holy Rosary church, of the North End, and the parochial residence of Rev. N. J. McManus, the pastor. Each year since it has been the custom of the sisters of the convent school to engage the parochial children in exercises of literary and musical nature, which culminate in the coronation of the brow of the statue with a wreath of beautiful, fragrant flowers.

No fairer scene could be beheld than the picturesque grounds lit up by bright arc lights whose glare was softened by the beautiful moonlight rays. Along the edges of the paved walks, and among the shrubbery were countless variegated little lights half hidden in the grass. In the fountain basin confronting the statue incandescent electric lamps in the form of a star sent a reflection against the Virgin's shrine which gave the marble a lifelike appearance.

Against the church was erected a platform, draped with bunting. From a tall staff above the platform an American flag fluttered in the breeze. Pendant at the wide entrance gate hung a brilliant light that shot its glints over the heads of the hundreds of little children.

An Immense Crowd Present.

The street in front of the church and grounds was so filled with people that the number could safely be estimated at 5,000. Prominent persons from the central city who were present as the guests of Father McManus were: Dr. and Mrs. John Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fahey, Attorney and Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, Attorney and Mrs. John P. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McAndrew and James McAndrew.

At 7 o'clock the children marched from the school, where they formed in line, to the grounds. The little boys came first, 200 of them, then the girls of the school, sodalities, and senior choir. In the procession upward of 700 were numbered. From this magnificent chorus the strains of the Litany came forth in grand volume. Miss Libbie Neary was the accompanist at the organ. The junior class of girls sang "Springtime Flowers," and again the assembled chorus was heard in the rendition of the hymn "Evviva Marie." The boys alone sang "Our Lady's Rosary," followed by a musical hymn by the chorus.

An Historical Sketch.

The number that showed care and preparation was next given by the senior girls of the school, those who will graduate in June. They enacted a historical sketch, giving the story in dialogue of the origin of May devotions. The syllabus of it was to the effect that the devotions shown by Catholics to Mary are due to her position as the mother of Jesus. Therefore that she is worthy of the deepest love; also that through this means sinners are enabled through her to receive graces from the Heavenly Throne by her interession

A May hymn by the chorus preceded the coronation of the Virgin's head by an interesting and sprightly young tot, little Alice Mulchrone. The act of consecration was recited by Miss Katie Jordan. The Te Deum chorus was the final number and was preceded by this address by Rev. N. J. McManus:

Dear children, I congratulate you on the great success of your commemorative coronation exercises and on the very able manner in which you have performed the parts assigned to you of speech, song and prayerful supplication. The expression with which you rendered them attest your fidelity and stamp you as sincere, faithful, loving children of Mary. It is indeed a high honor, an exalted dignity conferred by the King of Kings, to be called and to be children of Mary, and brings with it corresponding obligations—the showing forth in our lives the family traits of our queen mother.

One Way We Have Been Honored.

To be made children of Mary, to have the mother of God declared our mother, is one of the many ways in which God has honored our weak nature, yet only one.

For four thousand years before the birth of Christ, God would have humanity honored in the promise of the woman who would crush the surpent's head and whose seed would crush the seed of the serpent. And when the expected time was come and the incarnation an accomplished fact. The second person of the Blessed Trinity, clad in Mary's pure Virginal flesh, on Calvary's heights, and from the cross proclaimed that the honor paid to the human face for four thousand years in the expectancy of her, who would crush the serpent's head, would be continued until the end of time, and that Mary would be associated with the omnipotence of God, not only in the redemption, but in the aplication of the same to the end of time.

From the cross, as from the Cathedra or Throne, Jesus in His agony proclaimed Mary, His mother, to be the mother of the human family, and the present and future generations her children. In the person of St. John we were all represented—"Looking from the cross at His afflicted mother and St. John, His afflicted mother and St. John, standing at its foot, He said to His mother: 'Woman, behold thy son,' and after that He said to His disciple, 'behold thy mother'"—solemn and decisive words, the third clause in the dying testament of the Savior of the world, the God-man.

Does His Work Effectively.

Now whatever God does, He does it effectively. In making His mother our mother also, the relation is perfect. In this new relation she has all the qualities, all the affections, all the care, all the interest in our welfare that the best of mothers can have in their offspring, and being the mother of God, she has all the influence which the best mother can have with the best of sons. What wonder, then, that we, her children, given to Mary at the foot of the cross by Divine appointment, (therefore effectively her children in every relation, because by Divine appointment) would approach this heavenly queen, our mother, with all the confidence which a child can repose in a mother, and ask her supplication with whom it means so much, for with God she has the influence of a mother. What wonder that the most hardened sinner, as well as the most dutiful child, should find in Mary a loving mother; a refuge in his wanderings; a tower of strength in his weakness; a guiding star in his doubts and perplexities. In life a mother, and in death the gate of heaven.

For what mother does not watch and pray for the reformation of her erring child, and what child can long remain a wanderer for whom Mary prays.

THE DAY AT LAUREL HILL.

Hundreds of Persons Visited It Afternoon and Evening.

Laurel Hill park was crowded during the afternoon and evening yesterday by hundreds of persons who sought diversion and cool breezes. They found both in plenty at the park.

At 5.30 occcurred the balloon ascension, Mlle. Nolan ascending to a height of several thousand feet and then allowing herself to drop to earth by means of a parachute. She accomplished the feat without injury. The graceful dancing of Cyrene quite captivated the audience at night.

There will be another balloon ascension on Saturday afternoon.

ON THEIR WHEELS.

Well-Known Wheelmen Make the Run of the Scranton Bicycle Club from Stroudsburg to Port Jervis—Details of the Trip.

One of the most successful runs in the history of the Scranton Bicycle club was made from Stroudsburg to Port Jervis yesterday by thirty-four wheelmen. No serious accidents marred the enjoyment of the trip.

The party was divided into two divisions, one of which, numbering twenty-one of the slower riders, left Scranton on the 5 a. m. Lackawanna train; the others left on the 8 o'clock train and overtook the advance party at Dingman's Ferry, where they all stopped for dinner. The advance riders breakfasted at Marshall Falls. After supper at the Fowler house in Port Jervis, a parade spin was made about the town.

At Dingman's Ferry W. R. Pierce and C. M. Price left the party and started on a wheeling tour into New Jersey. They will return to Scranton Monday. A feature of the trip was a century run by Bert Henderson, who wheeled the whole distance from Scranton to Port Jervis. The only accident was a broken pedal to the machine of H. C. Lucas, who was obliged to return to Stroudsburg. The Erie and Wyoming train which brought the party home arrived in the city at 11.30 o'clock, an hour ana a half late.

The riders were: Ex-Judge H. A. Knapp, Attorney S. B. Price, H. G. Newman, D. B. Atherton, L. L. Van Wormer, W. B. Kennedy, F. C. Wettling, H. C. Lucas, M. D. Carter, George Mulley, Charles Crothamel, Louis Watrer, C. M. Price, J. P. Connolly, D. P. Connolly, V. E. Arnold, W. F. Boyle, W. M. Ruth, E. E. Healey, F. C. Hand, A. E. Rogers, H. C. Wallace, George O. Sharpes, J. F. Roe, John H. Ladwig, C. A. Kiesel, C. A. Bone, Frank Leonard, J. D. Williams, W. R. Pierce, W. A. Kemmerer, E. A. Gardner, F. A. Hintermister, Bert Henderson.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED.

Enjoyable Time at the Lodge Rooms of the Elks.

At a regular meeting of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks held at their rooms on Franklin avenue last evening a large number of visitors were royally entertained and expressed themselves highly delighted with the hospitality of their Scranton brethren.

Among the visitors were Louis Hausser, district deputy of New Jersey; Oscar F. Giffend, P. E. L. G. K.; Thomas M. Wells, jr., W. R. Tunison, J. Wesley Jackson, George Meeker, M. W. Fisher, Charles H. Schank, Watson Ryno, R. Wallett, P. E. R.; A. H. Holmes, A. Sauer, George Gardener, Charles Denneraun, F. G. Coellen, all of Newark, N. J. The following representation from Hoboken were also present: W. N. Parstow, Henry Stevens, Thomas T. Hatfield, T. H. Baker, R. C. Chapin, C. J. Delenhaney, J. F. Cullen, C. E. Wesson, P. H. Duffy, James A. Speer, J. M. Fanning, Augustus Kendig. From Orange, N. J., there were also present Robert Wright, ex-ruler; Henry Crees, J. Schoenglal, M. Walter, Isaac Shounthal, P. E. R., and Horace J. Horn.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

An opportunity was given the local railroaders yesterday to observe Decoration Day in their own manner, and a large number availed themselves of the opportunity to visit their relatives out of town. But three coal trains ran on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road from Scranton.

Owing to the forethought of the ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance union, 200 button-hole bouquets were presented to railroaders yesterday morning.

The newly organized Railroad Base Ball club have purchased their equipments and practiced yesterday in the rear of the association rooms. Many of the boys showed themselves experts in the game.

Engineer John R. Troch and Secretary Pearsall will leave this morning for a two days' fishing trip at Pocono.

Conductors and brakemen related many instances of reckless boys who boarded freight trains on the northern division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yesterday. On one train over a hundred boys perched on the cars; some chased each other as the train sped on its way, and others shied missiles and stones at any objects within their reach. Two or three special officers would have reaped a golden harvest on the northern division yesterday.

Washington Camp No. 430, P. O. S. of A.—Resolutions of Condolence on the Death of Brother George Wagner.

Whereas, The omnipotent Ruler of the universe, in His unfathomable wisdom, hath seen fit to cause the cold hand of death to fall upon the brow of our beloved brother, George Wagner, and hath seen fit to take unto himself the bright and promising life of our beloved brother, leaving with those who loved him only the cold, inanimate body. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the Divine will of the only ruler ("Americans recognize the almighty invisible God") and that while we realize that our beloved brother has been released from all pain and worldly sufferings, and has merely gone to that glorious camp-fire on high, we mourn his loss none the less; and be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother George Wagner, not only the camp and order sustain an unsparable loss, but our beloved country as well; and be it

Resolved, That this camp tender its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of our departed brother; and be it

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, a copy of these resolutions furnished the family of our deceased brother, and spread on our minutes and published in the Sunday Republican and Scranton Tribune.

DECIDED AGAINST BEZEK

Supreme Court Affirms Decision of Lackawanna County Tribunal.

WAS MADE KNOWN YESTERDAY

News Has Not Been Told to the Condemned Man Yet—Board of Pardons or Commutation His Only Hope Now.

Memorial Day did not bring glad tidings to Murderer Frank Bezek. A dispatch from Philadelphia last evening conveyed the announcement that the supreme court had refused to reverse the decision of the Lackawanna county court; therefore the prisoner must pay the penalty of his crime with his life on the gallows. The dispatch, as it comes from the records of the supreme court, is as follows: "Commonwealth vs. Berchine, otherwise known as Bezek, oyer and terminer, Lackawanna county, judgment affirmed and it is ordered that the record be remitted for the purpose of carrying the sentence into execution."

His last hope now is the board of pardons or commutation of sentence by the governor. Neither of these sources are considered to be the least inclined to step forward and prevent the law from taking its course. Bezek will have the unenviable distinction, without doubt, of being the first one to hang in Lackawanna county. He has not been told by the jail authorities yet that the higher court has dismissed his appeal for a new trial. Warden Jay says that he is not worrying apparently, but is less cheerful than he was a few months ago. A Tribune reporter a week ago visited the county jail and saw the condemned man. He was sprightly and cheerful and was putting in the afternoon intently studying a prayer book.

He Murdered His Sweetheart.

The crime for which Bezek is convicted was committed on Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 8 o'clock in the morning at Olyphant. He walked into the house of Mrs. Josephine Kramer, on Race street, and her sister, Mary Kerzic, who had come to the country with him only three days before, was scrubbing the floor. He asked her if she would marry him, and upon her refusal he drew a revolver from his pocket and shot five times at her. Three of the bullets entered her body; the one that pierced her brain was the second fired and she fell dead on the floor without a struggle. He ran for his life, but was captured and lodged in jail. It is claimed that Bezek came of noble birth and that he fell in love with Mary, who was a peasant's daughter, but that his father objected to the suit. Frank was born in Liebach, Austria, and was 27 years old when he came to this country. Mary lived close to his father's lands, and at the age of 22 he learned to love her. He joined the Austrian army shortly afterward, serving only a short time. On his return home he became more deeply enamored of her and finally they concluded to fly to this country out of reach of his stern and proud father and get married.

Mary procured the money from her sister, Mrs. Josephine Kramer, of Olyphant, which brought both of them over together, and they arrived at Mrs. Kramer's house in Olyphant on Sunday afternoon at 4.30, Oct. 7.

Anton Bourschnack Came Between Them.

When they arrived in New York Anton Bourschnack, who boarded with Mrs. Kramer, met them at Castle Garden and escorted them to Olyphant. At this point the trouble began to brew. Bezek, it was understood, would marry Mary, but her sister, Mrs. Kramer, demurred and advised her to marry Bourschnack. Bezek is a tall, lithe, handsome fellow, and has bright blue eyes; on the other hand Bourschnack is a course, swarthy, stupid-looking fellow.

Mary agreed to jilt her handsome lover and accept the hand of Bourschnack. This was the cause of the murder. He arrived in Mayfield with her on Sunday afternoon at 4.30, and after a short stay at Mrs. Kramer's house went on the stret car to Mayfield to the house of his uncle, Joseph Petrotschi. At the latter place he remained three hours and returned to Olyphant to his sweetheart to find that in his absence Mrs. Kramer had succeeded in transferring Mary's affections to Bourschnack. The news made him disconsolate, and he refused to eat. He begged Mary several times to recant, and when he was refused he purchased on Monday night, at Lally Brothers' hardware store, in Olyphant, a five-shooter. He went to her as a last entreaty on the following morning with the result stated. He asked her to marry him and when she refused he killed her.

First Found Guilty of Murder.

He was put on trial for his life on Monday, Dec. 3, last year, before Judge H. M. Edwards. The commonwealth was represented by District Attorney Kelly and court assigned Attorneys A. J. Colborn and George M. Watson to defend him, as he had no money to obtain counsel.

It was one of the most brilliantly contested cases tried in Lackawanna county's court, and reflected with credit on the able manner in which District Attorney Kelly conducted the prosecution, and the defense that the opposite side prepared, handicapped as they were. Judge Edwards' rulings were particularly clear and able.

The jury, after being out forty-two hours, on Monday, Dec. 10, at 2 p. m., brought in a verdict in the first degree, the first one rendered in this county. The lower court in January, a full bench sitting, refused to grant the prisoner a new trial. The defense was that Bezek had traits of hereditary insanity in him. Upon a refusal to grant a new trial, the supreme court was appealed to and the case was argued last February.

Governor Hastings, under the law, must appoint the date of execution, and do so within sixty days.

UNJUSTLY IMPRISONED.

Two Americans Who Were Locked Up at Santiago Tell Their Experience.

Key West, Fla., May 30.—Gustav Richelieu, who was confined in the prison at Santiago de Cuba with August Bolton, on the charge of being insurrectionists, has arrived here from Nassau. He states that he was landed at Nassau by the captain of the Ward line steamship Niagara, who refused to carry him further because he could not pay his passage.

Richelieu and Bolton were imprisoned at Santiago de Cuba from Feb. 23 until April 25. They were found in a small boat near the coast of Cuba. When their imprisonment became known, the United States consul at Santiago, Mr. Pulaski F. Hyatt, made a formal demand that they be tried before a civil court, it being the intention of the authorities to try them by court martial. Mr. Hyatt's position was indorsed by the authorities at Washington.

The Spanish authorities listened to the representations of the United States, and Bolton and Richelieu were eventually released, pending trial on the charge of having assisted in the landing of a party of insurgents on the coast of Cuba. Later the two men were set free unconditionally, there being no evidence against them. Bolton sailed for Philadelphia as mate of the Pemberton.

WHEAT CROP FALLS OFF.

Illinois Farmers Now Complain of Rust and Hessian Flies.

Anna, Ill., May 30.—From the best information obtainable in Union and adjoining counties, the wheat crop this year will be about two-thirds of that of last year, when there was an average yield. On good clover land wheat promises well, but on old wheat land the crop looks bad. This is due largely to lack of rain since planting.

Farmers in the hills complain that wheat is being seriously injured by rust and the Hessian fly. In the Mississippi bottoms there is not much complaint of this sort. The cold weather of the past few weeks has been favorable to the wheat.

Nine Months in Bed. Cured in 24 Hours.

T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blackmore, Pittsburg, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of 'MYSTIC CURE.' It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the 'MYSTIC CURE' is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the 'MYSTIC CURE' to be what it is represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers. Sold by Carl Lorenz, Druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.

Was Bathing in the Reservoir at That Place.

Henry Miller, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, who reside near the Sibley mine, was drowned yesterday afternoon in the reservoir which supplies that colliery with water.

Miller went in bathing in the reservoir and was seized with cramps, which caused him to sink to the bottom before assistance could reach him.

FACTS

A few years ago if you wished to buy a nice Lamp, handsome Dinner or Toilet Set, fine Bric-a-Brac of any kind, you were compelled to go to New York or some of the larger cities to get them, as they were not kept on sale here.

NOT SO NOW

We carry as large and as fine a line as carried in larger cities and for less money.

Some may doubt it, but we are prepared to prove this assertion. We buy all our goods direct from manufacturers in this country and abroad. Our expenses, rent, etc., is only a fraction of that paid by dealers in large cities. We can sell for 25 per cent. less and still make as much money as they do. Seeing is believing. We have the goods; come and see them and we will give you the prices.

ROOF TINNING AND SOLDERING
All done away with by the use of HARTMAN'S PATENT PAINT, which consists of ingredients well-known to all. It can be applied to tin, galvanized tin, sheet iron roofs, also to brick dwellings, which will prevent absolutely any crumbling, cracking or breaking of the brick. It will outlast tinning of any kind by many years, and it's cost does not exceed one-fifth that of the cost of tinning. Is sold by the job or pound. Contracts taken by
