The Lawrence band, assisted by the Green Ridge wheelmen's quartette, gave a pleasing open air concert from the veranda of the club house last evening. The quartette, which consisted of Peter Zurich, Larry Rowson, Thomas Knight and Harry Van Horn, assisted in the musical treat.

The ladies of the Memorial Literary circle of Green Ridge held their last meeting for the summer yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. McWay. Addison, of Roanoke, Va., traveling car agent for the Norfolk and Western railroads, is spending a few days in the city. A well attended meeting of the Ladies auxiliary was held at the association rooms yesterday afternoon, when a considerable amount of routine business was transacted. Rumors are current among Delaware, Lackawanna and Western employes that the mines will work but three days a week during the month of June, so that another month of decreased coal traffic may be anticipated. An interesting meeting will be held at the association rooms tomorrow afternoon, when the delegates to the Springfield convention, G. W. Hallstead, A. H. Masters and F. W. Pearson, will present their reports. W. C. Feeble will assist in the musical services.

TRI-COUNTY CONVENTION.

The interest in missionary work is on the increase; 47 societies in the union contributed $2,458.18, of which $1,770.78 was strictly for missionary purposes; $707.40 was for church debts and incidental enterprises. The average contribution from each society was $42. Need of Good Citizenship. The report of the treasurer, J. V. Parkhurst, of Wilkes-Barre, followed, and was similar to the one outlined above. After the report of the treasurer had been read, these committees were appointed: On nominations—Miss M. Louisa Williams, Scranton; F. E. Parkhurst, Wilkes-Barre; Rev. C. H. Newing, Dalton. On resolutions—Rev. H. A. I. Benner, Freehold; Rev. C. W. Harvey, Plymouth; Rev. E. Plack, White Haven; Margaret Morgan, Wilkes-Barre; C. H. Chandler, Scranton.

Dr. McLeod's Sermon. The sermon of Rev. Dr. James McLeod, of Scranton, was upon a subject that embraced a wide field of thought. It was a calm reasoning of the relation between church and state. His text was taken from Matthew, v, 13-14, and he touched briefly upon the fact of our being a non-religious form of government. Dr. McLeod fiercely assailed the position taken by the government of the public schools, which, while it gave ample scope to Seneca, and pagans of all beliefs, did not permit one word as to Christ. The crying need of America at present, is more Christian mothers and fathers, and it behooves us to arouse ourselves to this necessity. Christian Endeavor is a family religion above all things, and a means to train a family in the way it should live. This talk ended the morning session. The afternoon session was opened at 2 o'clock, and after brief addresses by N. F. Stahl, of Scranton, and Miss M. Fannie Evans, of Philadelphia, the following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That we extend to Wilkes-Barre union, state and members of Memorial church and to the members of Wilkes-Barre our cordial thanks for generous hospitality, to all speakers, singers and others who have helped to make this convention a success. Resolved, That the executive committee be invited to consider the advisability of holding simply one annual session of the union and district conventions, instead of the semi-annual meetings as heretofore. Resolved, That we hereby extend to the mayor of this fair city, who has been so generously entertained, our most hearty approval for the stand he has taken in the enforcement of laws against open and secret vice; and that we pledge to every public officer of the most cordial and earnest support of the societies of Christian Endeavor composing this union, in every effort to promote good citizenship, to preserve law and order, and to faithfully fulfill their other solemn oaths of office. Resolved, That this union endorse and cordially support the effort to secure the state convention of 1896 for the city of Scranton. Respectfully submitted, H. A. I. Benner, Chairman of Committee. A Promise Meeting. Then came a promise meeting conducted by S. S. Hoover, of Upper Lehigh. This meeting was followed by singing, and the next subject to be discussed was "The Pastor and the Society." Rev. Thomas Bell, of Scranton, spoke on the relation of the society to the pastor, and Mr. C. W. Chandler, of Scranton, discussed the relation of the pastor to the society. Both these addresses were excellent and were well received, as was also the address by Rev. N. F. Stahl, of Scranton, on "Practical Methods of Church Work." This was followed by a 10-minute discussion, in which a number of speakers took part. The next address was "The Ideal Society," by Rev. B. F. G. McGehe, of this city, which was well delivered and equally as well received. A brief discussion followed this address, which was in turn followed by an address on "Christian Endeavor and Missions," by Miss Evans.

The question box was opened by Rev. Dr. Mills, of this city, and a large number of questions discussed and answered. A fine address, one of the best of the day, on "Responsibility," by Rev. S. Ross Mc Clements, of Pittston, preceded the consecration service by Rev. Charles Lee, of Carbonale, which closed the session. The Evening Session. The main evening session was a song service conducted by Professor and Mrs. J. J. Love, of Philadelphia, and an address on "Good Citizenship," by Rev. J. T. McCrary, of Pittsburg. This address was one of the best given during the day, and showed that the basis of true citizenship is religion, and that without it no man can come to his best. An overflow meeting was held at 7:30 in the chapel at 7:30 o'clock, and Dr. C. J. Laffin, an African missionary, addressed it with great power, holding his audience spellbound during the entire time he was speaking. He is a splendid speaker, and his address on his work in the dark continent was greatly appreciated.

END OF THE RICE CASE

He Was Trying to Recover Damages From an Insurance Company. LANDLORD'S WARRANT BASIS. It Brings H. J. Beagle, J. E. Roessler and Patrick Byron Into Court—Case Is Now in Hands of Jury—The Other Cases Heard.

A compulsory nonsuit was granted yesterday morning by Judge Gunster in the trespass case of C. L. Rice against the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance company, of New York city. The plaintiff, represented by Attorney W. W. Lathrop and City Solicitor Torrey, was suing to recover large damages alleged to have been caused by his dismissal from the service of the company. Attorneys E. N. Willard and Major Everett Warren appeared for the insurance company. Judge McPherson, of Harrisburg, will hold court next week in No. 2. The case of Albert Henne against the People's Street Railway company, of Luzerne county, which was on the list this week, will be tried next week.

An Action in Assumpsit. The assumpsit suit of C. C. Steers against D. K. Oakley was resumed yesterday morning before Judge Archibald. The evidence offered was documentary, and the jury went out at 2 o'clock to deliberate upon a verdict, which had not been rendered at adjournment. Then the appeal suit of H. J. Beagle against J. E. Roessler and Patrick Byron was brought for trial. Attorney C. H. Soper represented the plaintiff and Attorney W. S. Diehl the defendant. The cause of the legal difficulty arose from the obtaining of a landlord's warrant by Byron against Beagle for arrears of rent. His effects were taken out of the house and sold, he claims, without giving sufficient notice, and this Beagle alleges to have been deprived of his right, for instance if he wanted to avail himself of the exemption law. The value of the household goods was about $200. The action is for damages, and the case went to the jury at adjournment.

Mayfield Ejectment Suit. The ejectment suit of Bridget E. Gilganon against Joseph Pedrow and the other poor directors of Mayfield to recover possession of a lot went to the jury before Judge Schuyler late in the afternoon. In No. 3 court room a short case in Kats Bros. against John Stout, an appeal suit for $169, was tried. The defendant offered no evidence and the jury went out to see if they believed the testimony of the plaintiff. In the suit of E. L. Smith against Owen McAloon a verdict was taken for the defendant.

NOVEL ATTRACTION.

It Is Displayed by William Blume & Sons. One of the greatest attractions in the city on Decoration Day was the new model display team which was being exhibited at the carriage repository of William Blume & Sons, at 522 and 524 Spruce street. The team is a handsome pair of chestnuts and is gayly harnessed with silver mountings and attached to the elegant "Hermin" trap. They make the finest display to be seen in the city. It is the aim of this firm to furnish the citizens of Scranton and vicinity with vehicles of the best grades and very latest styles, and equal to any found in the larger cities. With the rapid advancement of our growing city it is only proper that Scrantonians should be able to procure fashionable carriages right here at home, and thereby avoid the unnecessary expense of purchasing at New York and other cities. Their repository is complete with a full line of cabriolets, phaetons, traps, buggies, surreys, buckboards, Expressors and carriage furnishings, and at the lowest possible prices for high-class work.

WHY Walk to Philadelphia. Henry Elliot, a colored man, from Topeka, Kan., brought before Alderman Miller yesterday upon a charge of stealing a ride on a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train. In reply to the alderman the prisoner said that he had "boarded his way" from Topeka on freight trains, and was on his way to Philadelphia, where he had friends. Upon promising earnestly to walk to Philadelphia the alderman discharged him. A Good Record. Derangements of the kidneys and liver lead to impoverishment of the blood, from which spring many troublesome maladies that "never get well of themselves." If you have any such affections you cannot too speedily seek the aid of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Its efficacy has been demonstrated by thousands of cures performed in the practice of its discoverer long before it was put forth as a proprietary medicine. No more deservedly popular medicine was ever offered to the public and none has achieved, by its merit, greater popularity.

Iron for the Bridge on Route. Iron for the Linton street bridge is en route. The foreman of construction for the Edge Moor company is in the city arranging for the work of erection, which will begin early next week. An effort is being made to have the painting let to Scranton parties. A number of sub-contractors of the bridge company are in the city. Rheumatism Cured in Day. "MYSTIC CURES" for RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by Carl Lorenz, Druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton. Remember your telephone number is 232 if you want plumbing work. W. G. Doud & Co., 509 Lacka. ave.

FACTS A few years ago if you wished to buy a nice Lamp, handsome Dinner or Toilet Set, fine Bric-a-Brac of any kind, you were compelled to go to New York or some of the larger cities to get them, as they were not kept on sale here. NOT SO NOW We carry as large and as fine a line as carried in larger cities and for less money. Some may doubt it, but we are prepared to prove this assertion. We buy all our goods direct from manufacturers in this country and abroad. Our expenses, rent, etc., is only a fraction of that paid by dealers in large cities. We can sell for 25 per cent. less and still make as much money as they do. Seeing is believing. We have the goods; come and see them and we will give you the prices.
