$5 REWARD! So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES. The Delaware and Hudson company paid Legett Creek and Marvins mines employees yesterday.

Under the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company Bellevue, Dodge and Oxford mines were paid yesterday.

Robert Good, of the North End, was severely burned by an explosion of gas in Johnson's mine yesterday morning.

Person who send news items to The Tribune in sealed envelopes should address them, "The Tribune, City Department," to ensure their appearance.

The Central Woman's Christian Temperance union, together with the Green Ridge union, will hold a union meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in their own, Jewell building.

Anthony Zedetta's laborer in the Pine Brook shaft, was burned about the back, arms and face yesterday by gas. He was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment.

The mortality report of the board of health for last week shows one new case of typhoid fever, one of scarlet fever and three of diphtheria; one death from consumption and twenty-three deaths from all causes.

Samuel Hood, caught stealing a life yesterday on one of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad trains, was arrested by Special Officer Durkin and in default of a fine the prisoner was sent to the county jail for ten days by Alderman Millar.

Crystal Hose company will celebrate its twenty-second anniversary in Excelsior hall, on Wyoming avenue, next Monday night. The committee in charge of the affair is composed of H. R. Long, C. H. Hines, H. F. Wilcox, P. F. Schoen and John Lillie.

The Olympian Gazette was nine years old on Saturday and it celebrated the event by issuing a 2-page paper filled with carefully prepared local news and interesting special stories. The Gazette is one of the most progressive papers in the Lackawanna valley.

The Edgar Moore Bridge company is building a temporary office and tool house on the Linden street bridge site. The false work and "traveler" or derrick, will be placed in position on the bridge, the timber, which is being shipped from several points, arrives.

Secretary D. B. Atherton, of the board of health, advised that the water clerk has a fair day in store for Scranton's busy people today. But the indications point to that man as wise in his day and generation who makes his bed where he lies.

Word was received here yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. Mary Yearning, of Paterson, N. J., formerly of this place. Mrs. Yearning was the wife of Charles Yearning, formerly a blacksmith in the steel mill here, and was very well known.

A meeting of the City Fathers' union was held at Young Men's Christian association hall yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Brooks, of Wilkes-Barre, read a paper on "The Foundation of Religion" and then Rev. James McLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who was absent from the city, Rev. A. Dony was not present, and the meeting closed by singing.

Harvey's lake is a beautiful spot. No more delightful place is known to the people of this city than the one which is being developed on the shore of the lake. The Home for the Friendless will run the first excursion of the season to this resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Van Wert and Son held in Bath.

Near the Providence depot of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company, Samuel Van Wert and family live in a double house owned by the Ontario and Western Railway company; the other half of the building is occupied by the family of James Owensworth, and the building in the rear is the home of John F. Parks.

About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the double house was discovered to be on fire, but with the quick aid of the neighbors the blaze was extinguished before any damage was done. In two places the building had been saturated with coal oil, and near the corner at the front there was a barrel placed against the siding and it was filled with carpet rags which had been soaked with oil. The fire was plainly an attempt to perpetrate arson.

They Found John Van Wert. The police were notified and about 2 o'clock Lieutenant Spelman and Patrolman Perry found John Van Wert, a one-legged individual, sitting on the bridge on Depot street. They questioned him and he said he could tell who set fire to the building if he chose to do so. He was locked up and given a hearing yesterday morning by Alderman Millar, but refused to speak and the hearing was adjourned until 5 o'clock in the evening. Van Wert was brought out again and said that he knew nothing about the fire and explained that if he told the officers anything different that he did so because he was excited.

He is the son of Stephen Van Wert and lives at home. The reason he was out when found by the police was, he said, that he went over to the place where the fire had been. Alderman Millar held him under $300 to appear at court.

George Deacle, a boy 16 years old, was sworn, and he testified that he heard Mrs. Samuel Van Wert on March 15 last say she would burn the house. It is alleged that Samuel Van Wert and his family have not been very desirable tenants and that he had tried to get rid of them, and that John Van Wert, the prisoner, was prevailed upon to set fire to the building out of revenge.

They Denied the Charge. Samuel Van Wert and his wife were sworn and they denied point blank that they knew anything about it. Young Deacle was again sworn and he repeated what he had already said about hearing Mrs. Van Wert threaten to apply the torch. The day she said it was one on which she was reading the young man's name, Mrs. Thomas Deacle. Mrs. Van Wert qualified the threat with an oath.

Mrs. Thomas Deacle and Mrs. John Owensworth and Mrs. James Owensworth, the latter's daughter-in-law, were sworn and gave damaging evidence against Samuel Van Wert and his wife.

The alderman held Mr. and Mrs. Van Wert under $500 bail each to appear at court. Mrs. Van Wert had her infant with her and weeping. The alderman allowed her to go on her own recognizance, but her husband was locked up.

IMPOSTERS WERE FOILED. Claimed to Be Sanctioned by the Commercial Travelers' Home.

THEY OPERATED IN SCRANTON. Received Warning to Leave the City Before the Police Could Halt Them—Letter from Binghamton's Mayor Asking for Their Arrest.

Two educated and gentlemanly appearing individuals who canvassed this city with a scheme which they claimed Traveler's Home association, have left the city suddenly. On the heels of their departure word comes from Mayor Green, of Binghamton, and other responsible business men of that city, that the two men are impostors and should be arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Following is a copy of a letter received by Mayor Council from Binghamton's mayor:

Hon. W. L. Council, Scranton, Pa. My Dear Mayor:—At a meeting of the sub-executive committee of the Commercial Travelers' Home Association, of America, held this day, I was favored by the presence of many members of your city, and the following conduct and assisted during the evening: Miss Archibald, the Misses Coorsen, Miss Winton, Mrs. Frank Platt, Mrs. Josephine Koss, the Misses Richmond, and Miss Whitlock.

Did It for the Benefit of the Missionary. A tea was given at the residence of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James McLeod last night by the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church. Light refreshments were served and a social time provided for a large number of visitors. The proceeds will be devoted toward the Italian missionary, who works in this city under the maintenance of the band.

A DIRTY BUTCHER SHOP. Food Inspector Thomas Swore Out a Warrent for Butcher Jacob Suravitz.

Butcher Jacob Suravitz, of Penn avenue, was visited yesterday by Food Inspector Richard Thomas on his official rounds. The laws of cleanliness did not appear, according to Mr. Thomas, to be lived up to with due regard by Butcher Suravitz, for he went straight from the shop to the office of Alderman Millar and swore out a warrant on the charge of keeping an insanitary establishment.

A SPECIAL OFFER. Diamonds at a Sacrifice for the Next Six Days.

Mr. Turnquist, the Washington avenue jeweler, will sell diamonds at a sacrifice for the next six days. To every one who makes a purchase at his store he will sell a fine diamond ring for $3.75. This is an extraordinary inducement, and every one who is desirous of securing a sparkling gem should avail himself of this opportunity.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS. Annual Games of Children of the Turn Verein at Central Park Garden—The Prize Winners—Two Horses Stolen.

Central Park garden was a place yesterday that furnished to a large assemblage of Germans a day of rare pleasure. It was the occasion of the annual games of the children of the Turn Verein. The competition for prizes took place in the afternoon and was taken part in by nearly 300 children under the direction of Professor Carl Stahler, instructor of the Turn Verein. The attendance at the picnic was very large throughout the afternoon and evening.

The prizes were offered for skill in high jumping, three-legged racing and sack racing. The first event was in fact of high jumping among the first class of little girls. There were eight prizes and were won by the following in the order named: Henrietta Ross, Lizzie Schuch, Amelia Kirt, Katie Mirtz, Amelia Foltman, Amelia Weisger, Julia Zerk, and Anna Heald.

In the high jumping from a spring board the boys of the first class who won prizes were: Will Scheuer, Carl Schuch, Carl Lewert, Henry Mirtz, John Greiner and Philip Graf. The prize-winners of the moment were: Carl Horne, John Zeh, Albert Heckel, Gustavus Jenny, Charles Tropp, Joseph Madenspacher.

The three-legged race was among the boys, every two of them being hitched together, strapped tightly. The first prize was won by Henry Schuch, and Willie Moser in a team; the second was won by Leo Schwartzkopf and John Hooser, the third by Gus Schultz and Edlie Noll, and the fourth by Edlie Madenspacher and Monroe Schwartzkopf.

The last was a sack race in which the prizes were taken by the following: Peter Carlsel, Otto Starke, Carl Stahler, John Borkel, Philip Schneider and Otto Madenspacher.

Two Valuable Horses Stolen. Since last Friday evening the horses owned by Rev. John Loughran, of Minooka, and one owned by Patrick Healey, of the same place, have not been seen, and it is the impression of the owners that a horse-thief has come and gone. 10th animals were let out to graze early Friday evening. Father Loughran's horse is a well-bred animal and is color is bay. There is a white stripe on its forehead. Mr. Healey's animal is a draught horse, weighing 1,200 pounds, and is dark brown in color.

Shorter Paragraphs. St. John's congregation will have an excursion to Lake Ariel on Monday, July 23.

The funeral of Charles Young, of Stone avenue, will be held this afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be made in No. 5 cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary McLean, of Maple street, was held yesterday morning. A high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. John's church, and interment was made in Hyde Park cemetery.

The funeral of Edie, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Epp, of Alder street, was held yesterday afternoon. Interment in Pittston avenue cemetery.

John Lohmann's New Hotel. John Lohmann will have a formal opening of the Conway House on Tuesday, June 4.

PLEASANT TRIP TO NIAGARA. Lehigh Valley Journalists Tended a Complimentary Excursion.

IS AN ENJOYABLE PILGRIMAGE. The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company Pays the Host in a Manner Which Elicits Very Earnest Encomiums. Brief Story of a Two-days' Trip.

What is expected to mark the beginning of a highly successful excursion season was inaugurated on Saturday by the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, when it tendered to the Lehigh Valley Writers' club and several guests a complimentary pilgrimage to Niagara Falls. The start was made from Easton early Saturday morning, in a special train comprising two Pullman cars and the justly famed Lehigh Valley lunch car, in charge of J. H. Seal, superintendent of the Lehigh Valley's dining car service. The excursion was under the personal direction of General Passenger Agent Charles S. Lee, who with Colonel Rollin H. Wilbur, the general superintendent; A. W. Nonnemacher, assistant general passenger agent; H. Gunzinger, general baggage agent; and the following conductors of the Wyoming division; O. O. Easer, superintendent of the Sayre division; W. H. Beach, superintendent of the Buffalo division; Charles S. Higginson, superintendent of motive power; and E. B. Byington, eastern passenger agent, greeted the guests and saw that no detail was lacking to their thorough enjoyment of the journey.

The last stop for guests was made at Wilkes-Barre. From that place the special departed by way of the Harvey's Lake branch. Two stops were made on this division, one at the handsome lake which gives its name to the branch of railroad, and the other at Lake Cananda. The first passenger agent, greeted the guests and saw that no detail was lacking to their thorough enjoyment of the journey.

MINNEAPOLIS. Alexander Alkman, of East Market street, inside foreman of the Dickson shaft, was slightly burned last Saturday morning by escaping gas. He was directing some men who were engaged pulling down a large slab of loose top coal, when the gas which had collected in the cavity caught fire and burned him, although not enough to keep him from performing his work.

Told in a Few Lines. D. D. Jones and son have taken possession of the Green Ridge livery, which they purchased a few weeks ago. Great preparations are being made by the pupils of the different schools here for the exercises which will be held on the last day of school.

Great arrangements have been made by the Cumberland Hose company for the picnic which they will hold in Frear's grove today and tomorrow.

The Crystal Livery club have sent invitations to their friends to attend the complimentary social, which they will give in Company H armory tomorrow evening.

The work of macadamizing Main avenue, which has been stopped for some time, is again in progress. When this is completed one side of Main avenue from the square to Jones street will be in good condition.
