EASTERN LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results Providence.....10 Scrantep. Springfield...... 9 Wilkes-harre..... Syracuse...... 5 Buffalo......

One peculiar feature of yesterday Eastern league game's is that the co tests were between those clubs occ pying first and second, and third ar fourth positions, and so on dov through the list. Another peculiart is that in each case the winning cl was the club that held a slight percer age over the losing team, except in t game that was won from the Can lians by Rochester, the tatlenders. Th Ponles put up a better game than t Alligators, and deserved their victor The same is true of Scranton's defe by the champions. Buffalo's poor fiel ing lost them the game to Syracuse.

HIS GREAT FEAT.

Harper, for Rochester, Strikes Out Fourteen Canadians.

Rochester, N. Y., June 4.-Harper pitched dazzling ball this afternoon and Toronto could do nothing with him. He struck out fourteen men, the highest number for the season, and allowed but six hits. Crane also pitched a good game, but the home ream hit him at critical times. Up to the eighth inning the Rochesters had not made a break. Two errors then cropped up and led to three runs being bagged by the visitors, who could not save themselves, however, from slumping toward eighth position. Both teams played an excellent fielding game. Cold weather kept the attend-

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Yesterday was another good day for all the five tailenders of the National league, except the Colonels. The results show the usual incination of the leaders to keep together and make the daily swap of positions. Pittsburg lost to the Beaneaters, but the Pirates can lose several straight games and head the list. This game brought Boston up from sixth to fourth in place of the Chicago Colts, who go to second postion by winning from Baltimore. The Orioles drop from second to third. Cincinnati goes from third to fifth by osing to the Giants, and "Buck" Ewing's Reds drop from fifth to sixth by losing to the Senators. The positions of the other clubs are not changed by the Browns winning from the Quakers, nor by the game lost by the Colonels to
