Except When the Bases Were Empty-Lovett Posed and Pitched Good Ball for Over Two Hours.

Many of the 1,200 persons were present at Saturday's base ball game because of the announcement that Frank Knauss, the farmed out New Yorker, would be in the box for Scranton, and that Lovett, the ex-Bridegroom, would toes the ball for the champions. Knauss could throw faster than the eye could follow, but there was no whether the leather was aimed for over the grandstand or onto the ground a mile or more before the plate. Knauss was not a successful drawing card and game. Harper and Rudderham pitched been returned to New York with fairly well, but were poorly supported.

Started to Tramp to Wilkes-Barre-Found by a Police Officer-Death of John H. Lewis-Married at Bingham. ton-Personal Mention.

Andrew McHugh has been found, or more correctly speaking, captured. The little fellow has added another interesting quota to his young life by the latest escapade. Wednesday morning he began a tramp for Wilkes-Barre, reaching Campbell's Ledge a few hour later, hungry, footsore, but determined, for some reason, to get farther away from home. At Pittston he boarded a Lehigh Valley train and went up as far as Great Bend. After visiting Sayre. Waverly and other contingent places, Andrew was placed upon a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western freight train bound for Scranton by a train attache. SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Gabriel Murphy Injured at the South Side Steel Mills Saturday Morning-Hener Property Purchased by Dr. Manley. News Notes.

Luck was very much in Gabriel Murphy's favor early Saturday morning at the South Steel mill, when his brains were not dashed out by a bar of pig iron which fell from the top floor of the mill to the ground and struck him. He is employed as a laborer in the stockyards and his work is to load buggies with pig Iron and haul them to the elevator to be hoisted to the charging floor, thirty feet above.

After sending one up on the elevator. tenant Williams was notified that a he stood near the bottom of the shaft helpless drunk was laying on the comand before he was aware of it a bar that rolled off the buggy when it was being run onto the charging floor fell down the shaft and struck him on the side of the head. Fortunately, the bar respectfully referred to the Scranton Base Ball association: Colonel John I. Rogers, and discovered Andrew McHugh. Last therefore, its force was not fatal; but as it was Murphy was knocked unconscious and for a time it looked as if the injury was fatal.

He was removed to the Moses Taylor hospital, and the surgeon's examinawound was caused, and Murphy will be around in two weeks.
