President Harvey interrupted the clerk for a moment and announced in his dulcet tones that the plans of the new lockup were ready for nspection. With a unanimity seen in council only when the mayor vetoes an from the Fifth. The dignified city fa-thers fairly fell over themselves, so eager were they to examine the plans for the lovely new lockup. In the confusion, some one made a motion to adjourn, which Mr. Harvey promptly put. It was carried and interest in the lockup plans vanished as quickly as the people's money when the commissioners get hold of it.

But the astute city fathers left just one little event out of their calculations. They had turned the mayor's hot shot away from themselves at the meeting. Dealer had secured copies of that let-ter, and yesterday they edified the peo-by Ada Holmes; inventory taken by but The Tribune, Record and Newsple at large.
