In the House at 1235 Penn Avenue, Which They Occupied, Were Found Goods Worth from $1,500 to $2,000. Their Plan of Operation.

By far the most successful rounding up of a gang of shoplifters ever made in this city was that done yesterday by Chief William T. Simpson, Captain R. W. Edwards and a detail of officers. Three Italians and their wives were placed behind the bars, and the house where they lived, at 1235 Penn avenue, in Green Ridge, yielded up when searched from cellar to attic a nondescript collection of everything from a suit of clothes to a cotton handkerchief. pected that the management of the Scran-ton Traction company would test it. Council.

the borough of Olyphant to compel the council of that borough to adopt certain rules approved by the board of health was filed yesterday by Attorneys John J. Manning and Willard, Warren and Knapp, who represent the borough dopt the rules referred to because they were not the rules of the properly organized board of health of the borough of Olyphant. The council say that on Feb. 28, 1895, the president of the council appointed as members of the board of health, Peter Nealon, F. M. Williams, Thomas F., Hoban, Dr. Cross and James Nealon.

The council claims that the men who bring the suit were never appointed, nominated or confirmed members of the poard of health by a majority of the council. They were never organized according to law in that they excluded one of their number from attending the neeting of the organization.

Council say that upon the presentation to them of reasonable rules and regulations of a duly constituted board of health of the borough, the same will receive proper and suitable consideration at their hands.
