THE BALTIC CANAL OPENING

Burgomaster Lehman Keeps Emperor and Princes Standing Through a Long-Winded Speech-Incident at Rome-Other Foreign Topics.

Hamburg, June 19.-At about 6.30 a banquet commenced in the banquet hall, which is a fine, ornate assembly room, newly built, bathhouse, which was temporarily decorated today.

The banquet, after the toasts, the burgomaster, Dr. Lehmann, attired in a black gown with white ruffles, and a white cravat, addressed the emperor and the other sovereigns.

The emperor returned thanks in an unassuming guarded manner. His reply was such a short assembly of comparative shortness.

MAXIMA MORA'S CLAIM

Secretary Olney Gives Serious Consideration to Measures of an Aggressive Character.

Washington, June 19.-The unsatisfactory manner in which the Spanish government has acted in connection with the Maxima Mora claim, which the state department was directed to press for settlement, has caused Secretary Olney to give serious consideration to measures of an aggressive character toward settling the rights of Mora, which Spain has conceded the point of giving a positive promise to pay.
