They Declare Him Not Guilty but He Will Have to Pay the Costs-Bad Work of Mischievous Minooka Boys. Other Cases Heard.

Another chapter in the Hensley-Robinson-Regall bigamy case was spun out yesterday in the main court room before Judge Conster. Several years ago Philip Hensley paid a visit to Binghamton with Miss Alice Robinson and there they were married. The bride was the daughter of well-to-do tradespeople in England and had been in this country only a few years. She lived with Hensley only a short time and since then has been leading a lively existence in this from Wilkes-Barre; G. Dimmick, James city and Wilkes-Barre. She now makes Connell, C.
