WILKES-BARRE.

THE DETECTIVE MUDDLE.
The Barring-McSweeney Agency Present a Stack of Affidavits.

In reply to the affidavits of Edward Fulwider, setting forth that he had been induced by Barring and McSweeney to see Frank Shaffer, the negro under arrest for blowing up the Hungarian shanty, and that he had induced Shaffer to deny his confession to Detective O'Brien, the Barring Agency yesterday submitted a bundle of affidavits to the contrary.

The first is that of "Billy" Raur, a detective on the Barring-McSweeney force. He says that McSweeney instructed him to go to Baring and interview Ed. Fulwider to ascertain for an interview. He found Fulwider, who accompanied him to Scranton as per request of Mr. McSweeney. Mr. Raur swore that while in Fulwider's company he (Raur) did not make any propositions to contradict any statements made by him with regard to the crime known as the mountain cut-off, and did not request Fulwider to go and interview Frank Shaffer, to induce them to contradict previous statements made by them concerning this case; that the statement as made by Fulwider and charging deponent with having done this, are false in every particular.

The second affidavit is that of George M. Shoemaker, who swore that he was present at the interview between Daniel McSweeney and Ed. Fulwider, and took down in shorthand the statement made by Fulwider to McSweeney. The statement made at that time (January, 1895) by Fulwider was to the effect that the cut-off murder was committed by colored men named Scott Jones, George Johnson and George Smith. That Jones had told him (Fulwider) that he had broken into Sayer & McDonald's tool chest and took some dynamite and battery wires and used them to blow up the Hungarian shanty. After doing so he threw the battery into the creek. Fulwider said that Jones and Smith were at Hoozee Falls and that he went in search of Scott Jones and found him in Scranton, Pa., and brought him to Barring & McSweeney's office. Jones denied all knowledge of the crime, whereupon Fulwider acknowledged that he had been lying.

The last affidavit, a very lengthy one, is that of Daniel McSweeney, of the firm of Barring & McSweeney. He sets forth the interview with Fulwider, as given in Mr. Shoemaker's affidavit, and further swears that the man Fulwider is a notorious liar, and always had that reputation among his own people, and, after Jones denied the murder, Fulwider admitted to the deponent that he was lying when he accused William Jones of the crime. Mr. McSweeney saw Fulwider again on June 12, 1895, and inquired if he had seen Frank Shaffer. Fulwider said Shaffer came to him and said that he had had trouble with Nelse Miller and was going to tell something about him. Shaffer also said that he and James and Nelse Miller and George Jordan blew up the Hungarian shanty. McSweeney conducted the balance of Fulwider's examination as follows:

Q. How did you know it was at that time?
A. Because he told me at that time about it.

Q. Where has Shaffer been all this time?
A. He has lived near me at a Mrs. Coble. He is a black negro.

Q. Who did you inform about it?
A. I told no one, but I advised Frank Shaffer to give himself up, and tell the officers about it and would go light with him.

Q. So you have told no one about this matter until now?
A. No sir.

Q. Did you tell your wife?
A. No sir.

Q. So you did not know how it was learned that Frank Shaffer would make a statement?
A. No, sir. I did not. All I know about it is that the officers called at my house last Monday to search of him.

Q. You made a statement to me last January that you believed John Bird knew nothing about it?
A. I believe that John Bird does not know anything about it.

Q. Do you remember what you said to me when I interviewed you before?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. You lied to me at that time, and you admitted that you told me lies, did you not?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you tell me that William Scott had told you that he had helped to blow up the shanty?
A. No, sir.

Q. And you knew it was a lie, and you cried about it?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And when you were brought face to face with Scott you admitted that it was a lie?
A. Yes, sir.

The five policemen, Ruddy, Gaynor, Jones, Drake, Farrow and Blaine, whom Burgess Fenner, of Ashley, arrested for stealing the prisoner, Sam Lehman, Wednesday, and before leaving the burgess yesterday afternoon. On one charge he fined them $5, from which they appealed; on the other two he fined them $2 and $25 respectively. Their attorney wanted to get their security for future payment, but Burgess Fenner made them pay the $25. Burgess Fenner has created a new precedent in making information against these men himself, and then trying his own case. He was prosecutor, judge and jury all in one.

The Williams case. It is probable that the Williams case will go to the jury today, as nearly all the testimony is now in. The defense has made out a strong case. Only one of their witnesses yesterday was important, that one being Samuel Lamer-

aux. He said he met Captain Williams on his farm at 1 o'clock on the day of the murder. Mr. Lameraux said: "When he came to me I saw that the captain was cut and bleeding. His hand was badly cut and there was blood on his head and neck. He told me of Chapman assaulting him and he said he was going to have him arrested. I went with the captain to the 'squire and came back with the constable. We found Chapman setting beside the fence. His elbows were on his knees and he was leaning against the fence. He was dead."

END OF THE YEAR.
The Commencement at the Female Seminary Yesterday Morning.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the Sunday school room of the First Presbyterian church was filled to its utmost capacity with friends and relatives of the graduating classes of the Wilkes-Barre Female Seminary. The five graduates all wore white dresses and carried bouquets of roses. The following programme was rendered:

Piano solo, "By the Mountain Spring," Grace M. Fogel, Bohn Prayer, "The Mountain Spring," Dr. Chorus, (a) "Youth," (b) "The Ferry," School Essay, "The Minor Poems of Milton," Helen H. Lodge Chorus, "Wanderer's Night Song," Glee Club Recitation "Cinna" Act V, Scene I, Corneille Stella M. Shoemaker, Marianna F. Ross, Grace Lea Shoemaker, Gertrude E. Jones, Chorus, "Boatman's Song," School Piano Solo, "La Scintilla," Ghertrude E. Jones, Grace Lea Shoemaker, Essay, "Chaucer's Knights Tale," Sara H. Sties Recitation, "Torquato Tasso," Act I, Scene III, Goethe Anna C. Lewis, Edna M. McCollin, J. Edith Lance, Katharine May Brooks, Chorus, "The Little Wake From Dewy Sleep," "Festivals of Diplomats," Address, Rev. James McLeod, D. D. Awards. Benediction.

The graduates are Helen Hodge, Stella Shoemaker, Sarah Sties, Anna Lewis and Marianna Ross. The exercises by Miss Hodge was especially good, as was also the singing of the school and the playing of Miss Fogel. The following awards were made:

For Attendance—First honor to the following pupils, who have not been absent during the year: Misses Sara Sties, Edith Lance, Gertrude Jones, Anna Morgan, Edna McCollin, Fanny Osborne, Edith Ryan, Ruth Lewis, Edna Hyman, Rosemary Ryan, Martha Hutchins, Frances Chapman, Roxey Ashley, Lizzie Robinson, May Townsend. In the primary department to Madge Carpenter.

For Attendance—Second honor to Misses Helen C. Lewis, Mary Cox, Claire Tubbs, Ruth Morgan, Alice Leavenworth, Ellen Blyth.

For Punctuality—To Misses May Brooks, Fanny Osborne, Claire Tubbs, Ruth Struher, Margaret Scott, Leigh Ricketts, Agnes Parker, Agnes Pauls, Lizzie Robinson.

For Mental Arithmetic—To Lizzie Robinson.

For Geography—To Martha Hutchins, with honorable mention of Helen Leavenworth.

For greatest amount of original work in geometry—To Miss Sara Sties.

For highest place in list of honor, including class work, examination, attendance and deportment, in the three highest classes of the school—To Miss Sara Sties, with honorable mention of Miss Fanny Osborne.

For highest place in the next two classes—To Lucy St. John, with honorable mention of Helen Leavenworth.

For highest place in the two lowest classes—To Lizzie Robinson, with honorable mention of Helen Leavenworth.

MRS. HANSON'S SCHOOL.
The Kindergarten Closes with a Fine Programme.

The closing exercises of Mrs. E. S. Hanson's primary school and German kindergarten were held yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Germania hall, and the large number of friends and relatives of the little ones who attended were very pleasantly entertained and amused.

The programme was opened with a short musical programme given by the pupils with the exception of one song by Mrs. R. B. Brundage. The songs, with the exception of Mrs. Brundage's, were all German and the language was spoken with a very correct accent. The play, "Aschenbroedel" (Cinderella), as given in German, was very good and was very amusing. Following is the cast:

The Bad Stepmother.....Anna Taylor
Trine, Trade, her daughter,
Ruth Roeder, Helen Reys
Aschenbroedel, her stepdaughter,
Majorie Harvey
The King.....Tom Wright
The Queen.....Mrs. Brundage
The Prince.....Marjorie Hanson
A Servant of the Palace.....John Coons
The Pigeons,
Chorus.....O'Malley, Edith Welhe
Balladmen.....Lillian Sturges
Baltherren,
Stanley Wood, David Stoddart, Albert Jennings.

First scene, in the House of the Stepmother; second scene, in the Garden; third scene, the Ball in the Palace of the King; fourth scene, in the House of the Stepmother.

All the cast acquitted themselves very creditably, especially Marjorie Harvey, as Cinderella (Aschenbroedel) and Marjorie Hanson, as the prince. The entire programme passed off smoothly, and closed a very successful school year.

Kept Annie's Money.
Yesterday morning Annie Leshar, a Hungarian girl aged about 20 years, swore out a warrant against Matthew Ryan, of Rolling Mill hill, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses.

PICKPOCKETS AGAIN.
A well-known business man of this city, who has not had his name mentioned in the public, had his pocketbook stolen from him on the street yesterday afternoon. It contained quite a sum of money, but he says that he has no hope of ever getting any of it back.

An Ashley lady had her pocket picked while coming from Mountain park yesterday, and she managed to get it taken. She made her loss known to the brakeman, and a suspicious looking young man from Scranton was seized and handed over to a policeman when the city was reached. At the hearing this morning the prisoner gave his name as Isaac Posner, and said he is the son of a clothing merchant of that name doing business in Scranton. There was no positive evidence against the young man and he was discharged.

Stole the Lumber.
Contractor Phillips yesterday had a man named Williams arrested for stealing lumber from the new South Grant street schoolhouse, which Mr. Phillips is building. The Williams family had $25 worth of lumber in their cellar, more in fact, so Mr. Phillips said, than they had left the contractor to build the schoolhouse with. Mr. Phillips has been constantly annoyed in his work on the schoolhouse, and will push these cases.

Married in the Court House.
Yesterday afternoon Miss Mary Miller and William Cray were united in marriage in the court house by Squire Brislin, the deputy register of wills, who performed the ceremony immediately after he issued the marriage license to them. This marriage knot is the fourth that Squire Brislin has been called upon to tie this week.

Injured at Nanticoke.
On Thursday afternoon David Morgan, son of Mrs. L. D. Morgan, of Nanticoke, received a very dangerous, if not fatal wound in No. 1 shaft of the Susquehanna Coal company, at Nanticoke.

Examinations Finished.
The board of examiners, who have been at work all week examining the applicants for the position of mine inspectors, finished their work yesterday. They will meet again next Wednesday, after the papers have been examined, and announce the names of the successful candidates.

Dr. Miner Registers.
Charles Howard Miner, the youngest son of Dr. Charles A. Miner, of this city, registered yesterday as a practicing physician here. Dr. Miner is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and has degrees as doctor of medicine and doctor of surgery from that institution.

BRIEF NOTES.
Toronto and Wilkes-Barre will battle at Athletic park again today.

Lewis LeGrand, of this city, has secured a patent on a mining machine, which he will soon begin to manufacture.

Captain Detrick, of the West End Wheelmen, has just received word that the fast Falcon team will enter for the races.

Rev. Dr. Joseph, of the local Jewish church, has had a call from an Alabama congregation, but prefers to remain in this city.

T. P. Ryder, of the Record, made the address at the regular monthly meeting of the Stafford Literary institute last Thursday evening.

THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE.
The Crystal Spring Water company will have their big filter in operation by July 4 and will furnish filtered water to their patrons after that date.

Volney B. Cushing, of Bangor, Me., will make an address on the liquor traffic this evening at the new square, under the auspices of the Temperance union.

The subscriptions for the new Young Men's Christian association field are greatly needed and money must be raised at once to pay for the fence and the rent.

The remains of a Hungarian, drowned in the river about forty feet from the shore, were buried yesterday by the poor board. The drowned Hun's brother refused to bury the remains.

The theater at Hanover park will be finished today and will be opened next Monday with a concert. The management will give free entertainments in it, both afternoon and evening.

Martin Murray, the well-known Hazle street shoe merchant, and Miss Lizzie Fletcher, were married last Thursday evening in St. Nicholas' German Catholic church, on South Washington street.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.
Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching; allowed to continue, form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swany's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 40 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

MINOOKA.
The employees of the Greenwood No. 1 and 2 collieries will receive their monthly stipend today.

The following is the personnel of a newly organized base ball team in this place: Luddon, catcher; Forrester, pitcher; Mangum, first base; F. Blain, second base; McDonough, shortstop; T. Shea, third base; Davin, left field; Joyce, center field; P. Laffy, right field; M. O'Neill, second catcher. The club is anxious to arrange a game with the Old Forge Daughters, July 4, on the home grounds.

The article stating that the Greenwood miners would work six days this week was erroneous. The mines are idle today.

An unknown individual with a claw-hammer coat and checker-board pants was doing the town and a number of the people last night.

PITTSION.
The Pittston office of the Scranton Tribune has been visited by H. W. Cruser, agent at No. 5 Williams street, where contribution of news, comments of non-objection, and other articles of all descriptions, should be addressed and regular subscriptions received. Advertisements and subscription rates cheerfully submitted.

Attorney W. H. Gillespie, counsel for Jack Robinson, one of the alleged murderers of Barney Reick, is making an effort to have the case taken to the Lackawanna court, claiming that his client, Reick, is a young man of fair and impartial trial, owing to the excitement and prejudice existing against him in this county.

The deadlock in the Hughtestown borough school board was broken at the meeting held Wednesday evening. Miss Ella Gillespie, Josephine Gillespie and Grace Morrow were re-elected to their old positions as teachers. The board failed to agree on the election of a principal and primary teacher. John Foy, of Hughtestown, and J. P. Lord, principal last year, are applicants for the former position, and will meet Monday evening next.

Rev. Wilson Tremble, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Wyoming, will address the men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian association on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject: "Youth's Moral Opportunity." Music by the choir of the Wyoming Methodist Episcopal church.

Bible class meeting at Young Men's Christian association parlors this evening and Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

The fair and festival held at the First Protestant church, under the auspices of the industrial school, was a success. The fair was continued last evening and a large number were present.

For second-hand household goods, call on Wright & Co., 97 South Main street. Goods exchanged, bought or sold.

On Thursday afternoon, as Miss McDermott, of Avoca, was passing along Main street, this city, she was severely injured by lead from a plumber's smelting and repair pot. The molten lead splashed upon her face, burning one side badly. It is thought that she will lose her eyesight.

Dismore, Cameron Cool's high-bred trotter, was second best at the Bethlehem races this week. Dismore has a record of 2:22, but in Thursday's races he showed a pace of better than 2:20.

M. Perrin held the reins over Proctor's C. J. Leavelle's new mare, Rosa Woodnut, yesterday. She made a mile in 2:57, but Mr. Perrin thinks she will get a mark much lower than that.

C. H. Phillips was a visitor at Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

E. R. Faulkner and F. W. Guard, of the West Pittston team, yesterday visitors in town.

Frank P. Hopper, of Wilkes-Barre, was in this city yesterday on business. E. J. Walsh, of Scranton, registered at the Sinclair house yesterday.

A. W. Howard, of Scranton, registered at the Eagle hotel yesterday.

TUNKHANNOCK.
W. N. Reynolds, Jr., is home from Lafayette college.

The rolling stock recently added to the Montrose road is off duty for a time to allow new trucks to be placed under the cars.

Bass fishing at Lake Carey is reported fine and a number of devotees of the sport from Wilkes-Barre and Philadelphia have been putting in time there during the week. The cottages are rapidly filling up.

Mrs. F. J. Allen, of Meshoppen, has been visiting friends here for two or three days.

R. R. Garey, a resident of Wyoming, was stricken with apoplexy Thursday night and immediately became unconscious, remaining so nearly all day yesterday. His condition was still very precarious last evening.

The judicial contest has raised the question as to whether whiskey is a valuable consideration. The august court has decided that it is, if a man is willing to exchange his note for it.

Children's Day will be observed by the Evangelical church people tomorrow evening. Appropriate exercises have been arranged for the occasion. On Wednesday evening following Presiding Elder Reick, of Wyoming, reported, that the quarterly conference will be held the same evening also.

Mrs. Theodore Streeter and son Stevie started last evening for Washington, D. C., where they will remain about ten days. The latter will then go to Chattanooga, Tenn., to spend the summer, and Mrs. Streeter will remain here.

Hundreds of disappointed witnesses have turned away from the commissioners' office this week after learning that they could not get their pay immediately for time spent in attending the judicial contest. It seems not to have crept through their wool that they would not be paid until the matter is all summed up and it is definitely settled upon whom the costs shall fall. Many of them got a certified statement of their dues and had some friend discount it for cash or traded it to their landlord for board bill.

W. H. Quick, of Lemon, ran a narrow escape from death a few days since. While watering his team at a wayside trough one of his colts became frightened and kicked him suddenly in the breast. He was injured internally, and is still spitting blood, but fatal results are no longer feared, and he is now recovering.

It is reported that Attorney C. O. Dersheimer, who was recently married and went to Denver, Col., for a wedding trip, will locate there permanently for the practice of his profession.

A warrant is out for one Stevens, a well-known Philadelphia wilyly who was placed in jail on charge of highway robbery, circus day. The information against Stevens was made by Sheriff Knapp, and the complaint was aiding and abetting a prisoner to escape. The bird has flown, however, and is not likely to be caught.

Mrs. H. W. Chase and Mrs. T. B. Greenville are visiting Canada relatives.

Inasmuch as the Lehigh Valley will have to issue mileage books of 250, 500 and 1,000 miles for the northern end of the route, in order to comply with the New York state law recently passed, it is probable that they will soon be put on sale at all stations along the line. This will be a convenience to those who travel but little. The Lehigh Valley proffed materially since the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and other
