Rev. J. G. Eckman will present a paper of much interest to all Methodist ministers in this vicinity.Editor of The Tribune: Dear Sir: Will you kindly inform a constant reader when Pittston became a city? Pittston became a city at the reorganization of councils in February elections. The matter was voted upon, however, at the November election and a ballot was given in favor of Pitts-ton's becoming a city of the third class by a majority of 40.BEAT HIS BROTHER.
William Jones, of Bromley Avenue, Sent to Jail for Thirty Days.Saturday evening Patrolman Peters was called to a house at the corner of Bromley Avenue and Swetland street, where a muscular young man, William Jones, was having violent hands on his younger brother, a very inoffensive fellow.Jones was looked up and he was given a hearing yesterday morning and committed to jail for thirty days to learn how to denounce himself in a more respectable manner.Walker Got the Dead.

His Brother Odd Fellows Tendered Him a Reception.In honor of his being elected to the office of grand warden of the Odd Fellow order in this state, W. Gaylord Thomas, of this city, was given a complimentary reception Saturday evening by the members of Lackawanna lodge, in their rooms on Wyoming avenue.
Representatives from nearly every lodge in the two districts of Lackawanna county were in attendance. George D.
Taylor presided, and in giving an introductions, stated that the object of the meeting was to honor the complement Mr. Thomas and to further the good of the order. Brief talks were also given by John T. Howe, of the Lackawanna lodge; S. G. Kerr, of Robert Burns; Edward Hall, of Olive; Attorney A. Voshurg, of Lincoln; S. Wells Corwin, of Centennial; J. A. Kelley, of Sullivan, and A. J. Ackley, of Electric.
In responding, Mr. Thomas said that he knew that the reception was not given to him personally, but to a grand warden of the order. The reason he was elected to the office is because his friends in this section worked in unity in his behalf.Captain James Moir was afterwards called upon and gave a talk upon "Pe-lationship." Between the talks the Green Ridge quartette sang, and Mr. Watkins and Mr. Swartz also rendered vocal numbers.EXCITEMENT AT OLYMPIANT.
Report That There is Smallpox in That Borough Denied.Great excitement was caused at Olypiant Saturday when it was reported that there was a case of smallpox in that portion of the town known as the "Flats." On Friday Secretary Delphin, of the board of health, received a letter from the secretary of the state board of health stating that several Hungarian immigrants had come over on a smallpox-infected vessel and had Olypiant as their place of destination.The borough council was notified and held a special session on Saturday night. A motion was made that a committee be appointed to investigate the case, and was carried. They have given the following for publication:We, the committee appointed at a special meeting of the Olypiant borough council, held this evening to investigate the alleged rumor that smallpox was prevalent in the Hungarian flats, do hereby certify that we have made a thorough investigation of the condition of affairs there and find them false in every particular.Wm. H. Davis, President of Council.
Olypiant, Pa., June 22, 1895.RUN DOWN BY HORSES.
Michael Stablock Severely Injured on Lackawanna Avenue.Michael Stablock, of Jernyn, was knocked down by a team of horses afternoon on Lackawanna avenue.
Stablock was standing midway between the curb and the street car track, when a team, driven by a young man, came rapidly down the avenue, and knocked him down.The tongue of the carriage struck the man on the head, throwing him to the curb. He, unconscious, was carried to McGarrah & Thomas' drug store, where he was partially restored. Afterward he was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where it was found he was suffering from a fracture of the skull, and in a few hours he left the hospital and will probably not suffer much from the experience.WAS WELL SUPPLIED.
Had a Revolver and a Pint Bottle Filled with Tanglefoot.Martin McHale, of the North End, was meandering along North Main avenue at an unseasonable hour Saturday morning, carrying a large-sized bag, L. L. Spelman met him and asked him to account for his being out so late.
He could not do that and was put under lock and key.In his hip pocket a large bag dog revolver, containing three cartridges, was found, and five bullets were found in another pocket. He had also a pint bottle filled to the neck with bug juice.
A fine of $10 was imposed, and he will go to jail for thirty days unless he pays it.NO FEAR OF THE OUTCOME.
Say That Their Actions Have Been Entirely Proper.Attorney George M. Watson returned Saturday from Susquehanna county, where he had been engaged in the case.
As soon as he heard that the traction companies were about to take steps against himself and law partner, Mr.
Zimmerman, on the ground of conspiracy, he returned to this city.A warrant has not as yet been served on either of these gentlemen, and so far as they know there is none in existence. They say that their actions throughout this matter have been entirely fair and honorable. They are in accord with the ethics of his profession. They have no fear of the outcome.SHE WAS CELEBRATING.
Mrs. Edward Roche Sent Her Printer Husband to Jail and Then Got Drunk.In company with a strawberry blonde gent named Mike Duggan, from the South Side, Mrs. Edward Roche was found intoxicated Saturday afternoon by Patrolman Mills and he locked them up.Mrs. Roche's husband was sent to jail for beating her with his cane last Friday as they were walking up Wyoming avenue. He paid a fine of $5.00; and what would Duggan do, but for her? She lent him $4 with which to liquidate his fine.Change in the Time Table.

to graduates in piano forte music. They were as follows: Miss Mary Stata Peck, Miss Jennie Cure and Miss Mary Reynolds.Some of the students will immediately enter colleges to continue their studies. Several are preparing for the ministry in the Baptist denomination.
The verdict on Friday was that Keystone academy is still at the front as a preparatory school for young people, and that the trustees made no mistake when they selected F. M. Loomis, A. M., as principal.The address at 3 p. m. in the main hall by S. T. Ford, of Syracuse, N. Y., on "Dominating Thought," was remarkably fine and fully sustained the previous reputation of the eloquent speaker.A SOLDIER LAID AT REST.
Another of the Nation's Defenders Joins the Vast Army of the Dead.The remains of the late John O'Neill, of Capouse avenue, were laid at rest yesterday afternoon in Dunmore Catholic cemetery with the honors due a soldier of the United States army.Grand Army of the Republic, had charge of the funeral and attended in a body, accompanied by the Thirtieth Regiment Drum corps.At Dunmore Catholic church services for the remains were conducted by Rev. Father McMurray, and at the grave the services were according to the Grand Army ritual. The pall-bearers were Captain McAndrew, Levi Getz, Henry George and R. O'Brien.RAILROAD NOTES.

are $2.The first appointment of a surgeon for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, as officer of the road, was made on Feb. 15, 1895, and the Chicago and Northwestern and the Lehigh Valley were the first corporations to make such appointments.The Scranton Railroad Young Men's Christian association and the Halstead Railroad Young Men's Christian association played an interesting game of ball on the James Boys' grounds on Saturday. The score was 14 and 8, in favor of the Scranton team.The Elliott Car works of Gadsden, Ala., have received an additional order for 200 gondolas cars for the Southern railway, making a total of 700 cars ordered by the Elliott works.The Elliott works have also received an order for 2,000 car wheels for the Mexican Central.H. A. Mace, of Dunmore, has been appointed trainmaster of the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad, at Scranton.The Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad has a tender of the road since 1885, and prior to that time had charge of trains on the Delaware and Hudson line between Olyphant and Wilkes-Barre.The Pullman Car company has received orders from the Southern railway for twenty first-class passenger coaches and four mail cars, all of which will be equipped with the Pintsch light and the Safety company's system of braking.The express cars have also been ordered by the same company from the Burney & Smith Car company, the Pintsch light and Safety steam heat being specified.The Brotherhood of Railway Train-men, at a meeting in Galesburg, Ill., elected officers as follows:
Grand master, P. H. Morrissey, Galesburg, Ill. (in place of C. S. Wilkinson, resigned); vice grand master, W. G. Lee, Kansas City, Mo.; secretary, vice grand master, J. H. Dodge, Chicago, Ill.; third vice grand master, F. Fitzpatrick, Columbus, O.; grand secretary and treasurer, W. A. Chapin, Galesburg; grand trustees, S. C. Young, Fort William, Ont.; W. Kitching, Toronto, Ont.; J. O. Rolfe, Beardstown, Ill. The convention adopted the Cedar Rapids plan for federation of the brotherhoods of engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen, and telegraph operators.The fastest long-distance run ever made in Canada is credited to the Intercolonial railway, over which a special train of three Pullmans and a combination car carrying Sousa's military band was speeded on June 3 from Lewis, opposite Quebec, to John, N. B., a distance of 573 miles, in 14 1/2 hours, the actual running time being 12 hours and 10 minutes. The 488 miles between Lewis and Moncton were covered in 12 hours and 45 minutes, including numerous stops for crossings, for water and to change engines; and the 95 miles from Moncton to St. John were gone over in 1 hour and 20 minutes, which averages over 52 miles an hour. The actual running time for the entire 573 miles, deducting for fourteen stops, shows the high average of nearly 45 miles an hour.NORTH END.

the County Jail.Criminals found guilty and those who pleaded guilty were sentenced Saturday morning in court.Michael Padden, who entered a plea of guilty, and Martin McNally, found guilty of robbing Albert Wetherill, a deaf mute, of an overcoat, his silver watch valued at $9.50 and his purse containing $15, were each sentenced to four years at hard labor in the Eastern penitentiary.John T. Martin, attorney for McNally, addressed the court eloquently for mercy, but Judge Gunster said that the young men were guilty and should suffer for their crime. During his plea McNally's aged mother swooned.Elmer E. Cooper, the typewriter thief, who absconded from jail while serving a six-months' sentence, pleaded guilty and begged for clemency. The court could have given him two years, but made it one year and six months.Frank Seavey was sentenced by Judge Albright to four years in the penitentiary. It is held who was found guilty of shooting Miss Harriet Williams at Old Forge one Sunday a few years ago.
She, with a group of other young girls, was on her way home from Sunday partner, Steadman Bruce, were sentenced to one year in the county jail.

They were caught after breaking open two slot machines in the Jersey Central station and at first admitted their guilt, but reconsidered the matter and, upon the advice of their attorney, A. W.
Berthoff, withdrew the plea of guilty and stood trial.Edward Heaney stole a ham and some cabbage from Price's cash store, on Washington avenue, and was declared guilty. He was ordered to restore the value of the stolen goods and spend two months in the shade.John Rabino, for false pretenses, was sentenced to ten days in jail, and Henry Burgess was ordered to pay $25 to the poor district, $50 to Mary Knapp and $1.50 a week for seven years toward the support of her child, of which he is the father.Last Week of Session.
After this week, which is the last of the June term of criminal court, there will be but one week of argument court and one midsummer day for motions and opinions until September.Judge H. M. Edwards will preside in the main court room during the week and Judge Benjamin M. Peck, of Towanda, will hold court in No. 2.
The first case on the list is the charge of attempt to commit arson against John S. Luce and W. G. Hateman, Chief of Police Simpson, they prosecute. They are accused of having something to do with setting fire to the Howley building on Penn avenue last fall.The first case marked for trial to-morrow is a criminal libel suit against General Manager J. W. Alden, of the Carbondale Traction company. The prosecutor, Emory Ralls, is a railroad engineer, and alleges that Alden libeled him by causing to be published a story to the effect that Ralls tried to run into a street car at a crossing during the recent street car strike in Carbondale.The second case is the criminal action of the borough of Taylor against the Jewitts. The libel suit of Joseph J.
Hewitt against Editor W. J. Shubert, of the Olyphant Gazette, and also the suit of M. F. Padden, of Priceburg, against the same defendant, are down

Let your Wagons, Carts or Farming Implements look shabby or fall to pieces for the want of a coat of BRIGHT WAGON PAINT
You or your boy can apply it some rainy day and make them look like new.
It is a practical paint, made especially for this purpose.
