He knew what he was doing at the time, and pulled the battery deliberately. He said he knew the testimony could be used against him, but would take the chances.

Mr. McGovern here asked that the defendants be discharged for lack of corroborative testimony. Judge Lynch would not listen to his proposition, and held all five for court without ball.

PRICE IS GUILTY.

The Jury Remains Out Forty-Two Hours

and First Reports a Disarreement. When court opened yesterday morning, the jury in the Price case, which had been out over Sunday, came in and reported that they were unable to agree and asked to be discharged from further service. Judge Lynch informed them that court would remain in session all of this week and part of next week, and that, therefore, there was no hurry and they would have ample time to agree on a verdict. The jury was considerably surprised at this, but went to the jury room again, and in a short time returned with a verdict of guilty. The court thanked the members and remarked that the verdict was perfectly just and proper and in accordance with the evidence,

The jury, which had been out since Saturday afternoon, stood eleven to one in favor of acquittal, one man having stood out against a fair verdict for nearly two days. After the jury had been discharged one of the jurymen hour of need. The liver filters out the hour of need. The liver filters out the poisonous germs which enter the system. Just so surely as the liver regulates the system, so do Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the liver. Keep this in mind, and you solve the problem of good health and good living. The "Pleasant Pellets" have a tonic, strengthening effect upon the lin-ing membranes of the stomach and bowels, which effectually cures Billiousness, Sick Headache, Costiveness, or Constipation, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Bad Taste in Mouth, Sour Risings from Stomach, and will often cure Dyspepsia. The "Pel-lets" are ting, because the vegetable ex-tracts are refined and concentrated. Hasy in action, no griping as with old-fashioned pills.
