The Democracy of Kentucky, in conven tion assembled, congratulates the country upon the repeal of the McKinley tariff law, and upon the evidence we have on every hand of returning prosperity, under the operation of reduced and equalized tariff taxation; and we denounce as fraught with danger and disaster the threat of a protective tariff and to reinaugurate a policy of equal taxation which, in connection with general misgovernment by the Republican party, cuiminated in the busiless panie of 1893.

The Democratic party, which has always stood for the separation of church and state for the sake alike of civil and religious freedom, does not hesitate to condemn all efforts to create a distinction among citizens because of differences in faith as repugnant to an enlightened age | will destroy it for this season's use. and abhorrent to the instincts of Ameri-

Young Man's Terrible Experience in an Abandoned Mine. New Castle, Pa., June 26 .- News has just reached this city of the terrible experience of a young man named George Robinson, who was for fourteen hours in an abandoned portion of the mines of the Penn Coal company, about six miles north of this city. Sunday young Robinson, who has never worked about a mine, visited his brother, who has charge of the engines at the shaft. About noon his brothe sent him into the mine to look after one of the pumps. George was provided with an ordinary miner's lamp, and had no fear of entering the mine alone. Jury in the Kittenringe Case Convicts All the Defendants.

Fort Smith, Ark., June 26.-The jury in the Kittenringe can in the United States court found a verdict of guilty against all three defendants, Mrs. Mary Kittenringe, George Washington Frazier and Richard Calhoun. This ends the most important and mysterious murder case ever heard in Arkansas. The victim was Mrs. Kittenringe's husband, who was beaten to death by the side of the road near his home at Muldrow, I. T., for, it is claimed, $20,000 insurance on his life.

The prosecution's testimony revealed a conspiracy of long standing that Kittenringe had been taken into, and also that after a scheme to defraud insur-ance companies similar to other schemes practiced had been arranged, and he had written letters showing that he feared violence from different parties and was being followed by different men, his co-conspirators executed a plot to kill him.
