Arrangements Made for the Approaching Convention at Boston.

IT WILL BE A MONSTER AFPAIR

B. Fny Mills Has Decided to Return to the Evangelistic Field-Figures on Presbyterian Membership-About the Various Denominations.

The great numbers of young people who attend the national conventions of Christian Endeavor is astounding. But the great size and wonderful nature of the convention to be held in Boston July 10 will be better understood from th fact that there will be no less than 250 meetings, and more than 1,000 addresses will be delivered. Only a small portion of these will be in Mechanics' hall and in the mammoth tents on Boston common. The committee conferences, sunrise prayer meetings, state and denominational rallies will bring up the numbers.

Few meetings that have been held contained more missionary significance than will the Monday morning sessions Boston convention. "The World for Christ" is the general theme, and in Tent Williston "The Scholarship of World for Christ" will be considered. Here most of the speakers will be college presidents. Student leaders will be the principal speakers in Tent Endeavor, and this meeting will close with a missionary resolution service "What More Will You Do? What More Will You Give?"

Points for Delegates.

The question of homes and food for 50,000 people has been satisfactorily solved by the entertainment committee, which has already provided accommo dations for whatever number of dele-gates may come. Rooms and board are to be secured separately. The former will cost from 75 cents to $1.50 per day in hotels, and 50 to 75 cents per day in private homes. Meals may be obtained for whatever one cares to pay, Arrangements for entertainment are to be made only by writing to the state transportation manager. No accommoda tions will be assigned until Boston is reached.

'True-hearted, whole-hearted, faith ful and loyal," sing the Christian En-denvorers, and then they prove the sincerity of their words by holding denominational rallies that are among the most enthusiastic sessions of the convention, At Boston, Thursday afternoon will be given over wholly to these meetings of the denominational clans.

Returns to Evangelistic Field.

The friends of B. Fay Mills who were disappointed when he gave up evangelistic work over a year ago to accept a regular ministerial charge will rejoice to know that he is again in the field Mr. Mills retires from the pastorate of one year of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Albany, that church having enjoyed a year of remarkable prosperity under his ministrations. O motherland, mother of woe, By death, grimly oppressed, Sorely bereft—warm is the three That streaks thy heaving breast. Hushed are the lips that sweetly praise Thy golden, teeming vales; And silent, now, the voice that raised On thy behalf-my Wales.

Ye tuneful warblers, in yon wood, Come weep, come weep with me Beside this grave, in solitude, For oft he wept for thee;
