

EIGHT PAGES---64 COLUMNS.

Hune Tipunt

SCRANTON, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 5, 1895.

WE'VE NEVER PUSHED

TE BY

Boys' shirt waists to the front. Why, we can hardly tell, unless it is due to the fact that we were too busy with goods that figured into more money.

Freely-in fact, our stock runs up into thousands of dozens, and there is not a good make or a prominent Mrs. O. C. Emerson, H. Roberts and that we do not carry.

LITTLE

LORD FAUNTLEROY

Leads all others as a common sense. dressy-looking waist. We have it in Whites, Printed materials, etc. You can get the same style else where, but you cannot get such a

KILLED BY FATHER-IN-LAW. Extraordinary Scenes at the Little Red School House Parade. PARADER'S ATTACKED BY A MOB Brave Battle of a Member of the Horse Guards and Four Other Men by George W. Smith, his father-in-law Against Fearful Odds - Death as the result of a bitter family feud. Perrill, it is stated, had frequently of a Bystander. threatened Smith's life, but the latter

RIOTING AT EAST BOSTON

Scranton

got the drop on him as he was riding Boston, July 4.-The most extraorthrough a lonely bit of country in a dinary scenes were enacted in East Boston today. It began with the exbuggy He fired a rifle ball through Perrill's change of insults between the paraders breast, the bullet passing entirely and the thousands of sightseers who through his body. Perrill sprang and lined the sidewalks; it ended with a started for Smth, but dropped dead murder. All the trouble was in conafter going a few feet. Smith then nection with the afternoon parade, which had come to be called "the little emptied a shotgun into the prostrate

Brown were arrested on suspicion, while many persons were held as witform of his victim and gave himself up red school house parade," the paraders to the authorities. representing American Protective association lodges, Patriotic Sons of Ameri-FATAL TROLLEY ACCIDENT. ca, Orange lodges, Order of United Workmen and other kindred organiza-Williamsport Street Cars Continue the tions. This parade was booked to start Work of Butchery-The Victim of Careat 1.30, and the head of the column lessness started from White street pretty nearly Williamsport, Pa., July 1.-This city at that time. It presented a novel appearance. It was completely encircled was the scene of another frightful trol- was hurt. by police, who not only led the column, ley accident tonight, in which one life but flanked both sides of it for a hundred yards. There were fully 300 policeers are in the hospital, one of whom men under the command of Deputy will die. The accident occurred on Park avenue, near Elmira street, Pierce and Captain Irish. There were about 1,200 men in the shortly before 11 o'clock. Car No. 3, in parade. It was headed by "the little charge of Motorman Davis and Conod school house." which has been the ductor Wolf, was going west, and had subject of the regulation New England school house, seen in all of its states, In front were a number of men with sashes made of the Stars and Stripes. Standing in the open doorway was a tall figure clothed in military costume, representing Uncle Sam. On each side of the miniature building were three windows, and in each window was a man reading a book. At the very end of the procession came a barouche drawn by four grey horses, which was without police protection. In the carriage were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Campbell. The carriage was style of boys' waist on the market profusely decorated with American flags, and Mrs. Campbell wore an orange dress. When the Fight Began.

been placed.

over the edge.

When the rour of the procession was between Brooks and Putnam streets, on Saratoga street, the crowd closed in. A drunken woman, decked in tawdry finery marched up to the rear of the carriage, shouting loud insults. The ladies shrank back in fright. One of the men pushed the drunken woman buck. Some men in the crowd fell upon the man with loud shouts. A milk can sailed through the air, falling into the carriage. Albert E. Andrews, of Everett, a pri-of a rock, where he was found unconthe Roxbury Horse guards, vate in scious by rescuers. Both homes were was standing on the sidewalk near by, killed and the wagon broken to kin-He was in full uniform, his sabre at dling wood. his side. Andrews had been in the escort of the mayor all the morning.

A Light Engine Crashes Into a Rear Lewis Perrill Shot Dead as the Result of a Sleeper. Family Fend. Pekin, Ill., July 4 .- A tragedy which TRAINMEN PATALLY INJURED rivals the shooting of the Bowlby fam-ily by Al Wallace last spring occurred near Pekin last evening. Lewis Perrill, The Sleeping Conch is Jammed Into a well-known young man, was killed Chair Car-Miraculous Escape of the Passengers from Serious Injury in the Wreek.

ACCIDENT ON THE WABASH

Decatur, Ill., July 4 .-- Wabash train No. 41, which left here at 9 o'clock last night, one hour late, met with an acci dent at Niantic, twenty miles west of here, by which two trainmen were fatally injured and a number of passen gers had a narrow escape from death. A light engine following, crashed into the rear sleeper, jamming it into the chair car. The injured are: M. L. Higgins, engineer, Springfield, crushed under tender, fatally injured; fireman, jumped, fatally in Smith. jured. Not one of the passengers were seriously hurt. There were four or five passengers in the sleeper, but they were for the most part near the forward end of the car and not one of them was instantly crushed out and two oth-CHARLES J. KINSLER SHOT.

> Philadelphia Councilman liit by a Stray Bullet.

Philadelphia, July 4.-Charles J. Kinsler, a member of city council, was Stiles is a veteran with but one arm, shot shortly after midnight last night he frustrated his assailants until peojust crossed Elmira street, when a last night and died a few hours later. ple came to his ald. Then the rascals buggy containing a man and two wo- The shooting is believed to have been fied. Their intended victim was not men struck a stone heap and toppled the opening of Independenc Day at Atthe over on the rails. Instantly there was a collision and the occupants went under the car. the events was the raising of a flag over what was called a "Copperhead" disthe club house. As the flag was raised trict. It became known as the Fishing Alice Glace, aged about 40, was instantly killed, her head being crushed on the pole there was a fusilade of reby the wheels. Phoebe Koch was fatal- volvers and myriads of fireworks were ly injured and Edward Schneider was sent off. Mr. Kinsler was in the crowd seriously injured. The accident was in front of the club house and while owing entirely to the pile of building the shooting was in progress he fell to stone, on which no warning light had the sidewalk with a bullet wound in often threatened by the southern symthe head. He was hastily removed to the Pennsylvania hospital, where he shot, but a man named James Leonard was arrested on suspicion and was this Williamsport, Pa., July 4 .-- William morning committed to await the action Mays, a teamster in the Pene creek of the coroner. Kinsler was a saloonlumber region, had a thrilling escape keeper and was very popular in the lo from awful death. He was driving a cality, he having been elected to comload of bark with two horses attached, mon council last April on the Republialong the edge of a chasm 300 feet deep can ticket, though the ward is Demowhen the roudbed gave way. Mays, cratic. the team and wagon were precipitated

INTO A 300-FOOT CHASM. died early this morning. It is not known who fired the fatal A Bark-Hauler and His Team Have an Awful Plange.

PEOPLES' PARTY IN LINE. Mays lodged in the top of a hemlock

tree. A moment later a rolling boulder State Ticket Bobs Up Screnely at struck him and knocked him senseless Williamsport. nto the abyss. Fortunately, he again

Williamsport, Pa., July 4 .- The Peo lodged, this time in the deep crevice ple's party state convention was held here today and nominated the follow-Ing ticket:

State treasurer, George N. Dawson of Beaver; judges of the Superior court. V. C. Rheem, of Franklin; John W

Methodist church on Main street. In thirty minutes the fire had attacked sixteen buildings and the fire progressed, practically unchecked. Already $150,000 worth of property Sixty Mcn, Women and Children has been destroyed and the fire Tumbled in a Heap. making rapid headway. BRIDGE FALLS DOWN. LIST OF THE BADLY INJURED Thirty-Eight Persons Are Injured in th

Collapse Fort Wayne, July 4.-At Bristol, Elk ounty, Indiana, today, several hundred persons were standing on a wagor bridge over the St. Jospeh river, watching a boat race, when suddenly the bridge without warning gave way, pre-

Methodist church on Main street. In cipitating nearly all the crowd into the iver. Thirty-eight persons are known to have been hurt, and of these many will die. So far as known no one was killed outright.

THE WAR NOT OVER.

Members of Fishing Creek Confederacy Attempt to Tar and Feather a Veteran.

Bloomsburg, Pa., July 4 .- It was supsed until today that the famous Fishing Creek Confederacy had been dead more than thirty years. Last night Richard Stiles, of Philadelphia, was shamefully assaulted in revenge for his service in the war and against the Confederate uprising in Columbia county. Stiles formerly resided at Benton, this county, and is now visiting his son there. Last night he was attacked by two men who attempted to tar and feather him. Although Mr women who were but slightly injured At the outbreak of the war Stiles re

List of the Injured.

Creek Confederacy and was so serious that several companies of soldiers were John C. Hill, colored, four ribs broke and internally injured; will die. sent from the field to crush it. During this time of excitement, Stiles was a strong Union man, and his life was pathizers. One night a coffin was left at his door, labelled "The Fishing Creek and head and face cut.

ton on their return march. Stiles went to Philadelphia to liv hen the war was over. As he has not been here for years, it is regarded as certain that the attack upon him last hight was the work of former members

WOULDN'T WED A THIN GIRL

Lost Her Plumntness

Elwood, Ind., July 4 .- The strange as tions of a natural gas well, owned 1 housky, a young cooper of Williamsburg, is too particular, according to the the DePauw Gas company, at Alexan view of Victoria Labawosky. When dria, have caused anxiety among the Chopsky left Poland six months ago citizens of that place as well as among

A GRAND STAND in a hospital. Murtaugh's wife had asked for the investigation, but her dead husband's family opposed it. Twenty or more persons assembled in the cemetery and a quarrel arose, during which Mrs. Murtaugh was struck by one of the brothers of the dead man and fainted. Her father was knocked over a tomb stone. Stones were procured, and it was only by threatening to cause the arrest of the entire party that the Wenk Stairway Gives Way-Women coroner prevented a serious fight. BLEW UP THE WOMEN.

Tribune.

A Reputed Lover Uses Dynamite on the House of His Sweetheart. Buffalo, N. Y., July 4 .- While 10,000 Lamont, Ill., July 4 .- In the village of people satin the new grand stand at the Rome yesterday, a house containing Buffalo Driving park at 5.30 o'clock five women was blown to atoms by this afternoon a section of the stand dynamite placed beneath it by the refell. The cause was a weak stairway, jected lover of one of the women. which held forty or fifty people at the All the inmates were injured, three time. Underneath the stairway was a perhaps fatally. Luke Hoyle and Tim wine room which had been crowded Hoise both aspired to the hand of Molwith people only a moment before. He Blers, and when Hoise was chosen, They were climbing back to their seats Hoyle stole enough dynamite from the in the stand to witness the start of a drainage canal works to revenge him-

HELPED TO HANG HER LOVER.

Texas Farmer and His Daughter Murder the Latter's Sultor-Curious Tale of Texas Perfidy and Crime.

San Antonio, Tex., July 4 .- The body of Albert Blackman, a well-to-do young domestic makes sold as man, was found near Logarto, Live Scotch and French goods. Oak county, a week ago. Aroung ins neck was a rope, and it was evident that he had been hanged to the limb of a tree, under which the body lay. Silk Ginghams, specially suitable for waists and pany of Bessie Harris, the daughter of children's wear and absoa farmer of that locality. At the coroner's inquest Bessie testified that Blackman committed suicide by hanging, and that she witnessed the deed and after he was dead she cut his body down. Suspicion was aroused and warrants Silks, all light ground and girl and her father and mother. The 27 inches wide; 12 yards preliminary examination of the prison- to a pattern; have been ers has just been held, and through the 55c. Price to close, 39c. ness stand the full details of the crime per yard or $4.68 a Dress ame out. She said that Blackman had been courting her for some time against the wishes of her parents, and that the latter, through their talk, aused her to become insanely jealous f the young man. Her father finally trranged with her to put Blackman out the way.

On the night of the killing she met Blackman, and they went for a walk. She detained her lover in a lonely place until her father arrived with a rope. and they then told Blackman that they were going to hang him. The girl states that Blackman did not offer any esistance while the rope was being laced about his neck, and that she ed the knot with her own hands. Then, at the command of her father, Blackman climbed a tree and swung timself off. "He died very easily,

Special Sale of SCOTCH GINGHAMS Our reputation on

TWO CENTS A COPY.

Scotch Ginghams is questioned and it is a well known fact that for quality and assortment our stock cannot be matched this side of New York. As we never care to carry over goods from one season to another, we will offer the balance of our stock, about 150 pieces, att 19c. per vard.

This is an opportunity to buy the genuine article at a price generally asked for lutely fast colors.

About 35 Dress Patterns. extra choice, lace stripe and printed brocade Trilby Pattern.

A very attractive line of fine Irish Dimitles, French Corded Piques and Organdies, White Persian Lawns and White and Colored Dotted Swisses.

French Linen Batiste in natural color with embroideries to match.

510 AND 512 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

inself off. "He died the was quiet He oncluded the girl. "After he was quiet He A. KINGSBURY, race, when the accident occurred. In self in this manner, He was caught caving in so suddenly the stairway at noon. took with it a section of the grand stand and piled about sixty people, men, women and children in & mass. Then the immense crowd stood up in their seats and rushed toward the stairway and then back from it again.

In the stampede women fainted and were trampled upon, jumped from th stand to the ground and in other ways contributed to the excitement. After the stand had been cleared the people were held back with difficulty, while those who had fallen were extricated. Carriages were soon at hand and took to their homes about forty men and or who suffered from shock. Ambulances took the most severely injured the rooms of a social cuib and one of sided at Benton, which was the seat of to the hospitals.

The hospitals give out this list of the njured tonight:

OF

Are Trampled Upon in the Panic.

Several of the Injured Are in the Hospital.

G. B. Rich, president of the Com nternal injuries; will die.

Confederacy," and was carried before the deserters who were afterward captured by troops at their homes at Ben of the notorious Fishing Creek Confederacy, who had walted a third of century to get revenge.

Pretty Victoria Lost a Lover When She Brooklyn, N. Y., July 4.-Ladislaus

Manufacturers Foar It May Drain th Alexandrin Field.

mercial bank, leg badly fractured. Frank Veater, back broken and fatal Mrs. James K. Cuddy, scalp wounds Mrs. Wood, broken thigh.

T. Kittehell, leg fractured. Mary Montgemery, internal injuries ollar hone broken Mrs. Howard Herr, both legs broker Mrs. F. A. Crandall, wife of F. A Crandall, the librarian of the burea of rublic printing. Washington, was se riously bruised. The grand stand was a new one and was built about three years ago.

GAS WELL BREAKS LOOSE.

