PERSONAL MENTION:

The Cambria Daily Leader of June 22 "It was an excellent idea of the proprietor of the Aquila to run such a pleasant trip as was arranged on Friday afternoon, and it was exceedingly gratifying to see so large a number availing themsedves of the opportunity of getting a good view of the Scarwcather Lightship. The company included William Griffith, a Scranton journalist, who formerly resided in Newport, Monmouthshire. He ex-pressed himself as being highly pleased with the manner in which the Aquila conducted herself, and predicted for it a pros-perous season. Several bundles of papers were handed to the crew of the lightship, including some current numbers of the Scranton Tribune, and the men warmly returned their thanks."

Mr. William Thornton, of 127 W. Market Street, Explains How and Why He Did It.

From the Elmira Gazette. Old age has many infirmities, none of which are more prevalent than kidney disrders. Have you ever noticed how the old people complain of backache, lame back, and general listlessness? And there are many other symptoms of which they do not speak, such as bloating of the limbs, painful and infrequent urination or excess-iveness of the urinary discharge. Most people think they are too old to find relief people think they are too old to find relief and cure, but this is not so. No better ev-idence than the following, which comes from an Elmira citisen, who has been cured of L very severe case at 77 years of age. Mr. William Thornton, of 127 West Market street, speaks of his case in this way: "I am 77 years old. I have been afflicted with that dreadful complaint (Midney disease) for over ten years mak-(kidney disease) for over ten years, making my old age a burden. I was so bad as to be forced to carry a belt at all times, and, when my suffering became beyond endurance, I would put on the belt, drawand incidentally has called upon relatives in Scranton.

A Chapter Upon Music and Musicians Generally.

MISS SADIE KAISER'S SUCCESS

Musicians - Pleasing Recitals of the Week-Mr. Wooler's New Soug-Sharps and Flats.

The many Tribune readers who have come to know and admire Miss Sadie Kaiser through her charming letters from London that have appeared from time to time in our columns, will be pleased to learn that she has already achieved success as a vocalist in England's great musical center. The principal of the Royal Academy of Music, where Miss Sadle Kaiser is studying, paid that lady a very high compliment when he selected her out of a class of 200 to sing the soprano solo at the student's chamber concert on June 18. None but the cleverest and most distinguished pupils are allowed to appear at these concerts, to which all musical London is only too glad to attend, paying highly for the privilege. As it is rarely that any but the old students are selected for these affairs, the fact that Miss Kaiser was chosen although she has scarcely finished her first year is proof that she is held in high esteem by the faculty. The audience was extremely critical, as it always is at an Royal Academy of Music concert, but Miss Katser's number was received with great favor, many of the audience personally complimenting her. The next evening Miss Kaiser sang at a reception given by the lord mayor of London in the Mansion House. All fashionable London was there, and Miss Kaiser was very kindly received. She sang three numbers, Von Stutz-man's "Vainka's Song," Bernberg's "Nymphs and Fauns" and "In Merry Maytime," its German. Each number was heartily applauded. Lady Renals personally complimented her work and showed her over the mansion, a privilege accorded to only a favored few. Miss Kaiser has also been chosen to sing at the fortnightly concerts of the Royal Academy, where only those especially qualified are permitted to participate. All this seems to indicate that this clever little lady is forging well to the front in London, and that her exceptional talents are being recognized in treatise on "Nerve." the higher musical circles of that city. One of the most delightful social events was the plano recital given by the younger members of Miss Marie deLong's music class, to about forty of their friends Wednesday evening at Miss deLong's residence on South Main avenue. The participants were: Misses Bessie Speicher, Edna Sax, Gertie Loomis, Nettle Davies, Masters Everett Pa., August, 28, 1895. deLong, Allen Bauer, Arthur Summerhill and Archie Sax, assisted by little Miss Anna Speicher, who deighted her audience by three numbers in vocal music-"Kissing Papa Through the Telephone," "Now I Lay Me" "Humphty Dumpty." The pupils played well and show careful training and much ability on the part of their teacher. After the exercises refreshmen were served. The Lawrence band and orchestra is among the musical organizations in the front rank in northeastern Pennsylva Miss Judd, of New York city, is visiting nia. The Lawrence band include thirty-five pieces, and the excellent work of the organization has been commente upon everywhere. Members of the or chestra have accompanied the vocalists at the operatic productions at Laure Hill park the past two weeks, and the organization on the Fourth supplied music at Laurel Hill, Lake Ariel and Mount Pocono, Professor Lawrence has the contract for furnishing the music at the Frothingham, and the orchestra, greatly improved, will be hear at that beautiful theater next season.

> The recital given by Miss Annie Willfams and here planoforte pupils at he home on Tenth street last Tuesday evening, was one of the enjoyable events of the week. The solos by Mrs. Metzgar, contralto, were greatly admired, as were the efforts of Miss Willlams and pupils.

> Alfred Wooler, solo tenor of Elm Park church quartette choir, has composed a new song entitled "Sweet Little Mary," which is said to contain elements that are almost certain to make it popular. The song will be copyrighted in this country and in England before being placed on the market.

The celebrated Ladies' Welsh choir that won celebrity at the World's fair will make another tour of America thi summer. The choir under the manage ment of Benjamin Pritchard has bee booked for the Frothingham on Oct. 1 known accompanist and organist at the First Presbyterian church, is spending a month's vacation at the Thousand Islands. Miss Belle Morrow, of Capouse ave nue, will give a plano forte recital a Mr. Southwouth's studio on Monda evening next.

Aubrey Bouckault will appear in a ne comic opera next season. Biegfried Wagner recently conducted as other Wagner concert in London.

Richard Genee, the composer and li brettist, is dead. His best known oper-was "Nanon." Adolph Brodsky has become conducte of the orchestra of the Royal Manchest college of music. Arthur Nikisch, of Budapest, has bee engaged to conduct the philharmonic co-certs in Berlin next season.

The first opera was composed by Pe and Caccini in 1597. It was calle "Daphne." The music has been lost. Tom Karl is teaching this summer Vineyard Haven, Mass. Carl Zerrahn in Berlin. Theodore Thomas is in E just reached New York. It was written by Felix McGlennon, the author of "Com-rades," and is duplicating the hit that song made across the waters.

Edwin Stevens, Laura Joyce Bell and Marie Millard will sing in the new Egyp-tian comic opera, "The Sphinx," soon to be produced at the Casino, New York. Thomas Q. Scabrooke has decided to give comic opera. He will act next season in a new comedy written by Leander Richardson and Paul M. Potter. His wife Della Crox, will not travel with him. John Sebastian Bach's bones have been discovered and measured at Leipzig. He was buried in the Thomas Kirchoff 145 years ago, but within this century a street was built through the graveyard and many of the graves, including his, were obliterated.

Mme. Patti is remarkable not only as th greatest living vocalist, but as the best paid woman worker in the world. She has frequently received $5,000 a night for a performance. Mme. Melba's fee, whether for concert or opera, is $1,000. Mme. Eames and Mme. Nordica received each $700 for their operatic performances during the season just past. The latter's invariable fee for singing in concert or oratorio is

Two leading German planists of the day have been indulging in a lively squabble lately. Through rival influences both have been appointed operatic conductors at Welmar. D'Albert claims to be first conductor, and Stavenhagen is willing to concede that point, but he claims that "artis tically" he ranks as high as D'Albert, which the latter denies.

STOLE HIS THUNDER.

The other day Chauncey M. Depew wa riding along in a sleeper, when the train came to a stop at Cornell university. There was a blg crowd outside and the college boys, "Speech! speech! speech!

Chauncey smiled. He was used to great ovations, but this was more than he ex-pected. He waited modestly for a few minutes for the cries to subside. The yells grew louder. Chauncey got up, put on his best smile and buttoned up his coat. He did not know that one of the faculty of Cornell was going off on the train and was being given a rousing send-off by the college.

Depow appeared upon the platform bowing and smiling in every direction. "Young men of Cornell," he began, in his best voice, "you do me the distinguished honor —." A great cheer want up. Some of men of Cornell," he began, in his best Chicago Gas. 65% voice, "you do me the distinguished honor —" A great cheer went up. Some of the boys recognized him. They yelled louder.

Depew continued his speech and gained Chic., R. I. & P. 71%

the attention of the crowd. He thanked them profusely for their reception, gave ome advice and retired. Just at this juncture the train drew out. The departing college professor walked inside and glared at Depew. He is now writing a Manhattan Ele......113

34. In the inactive list Colorado Fuel Edward Smith, who has been outside uperintendent for the Lehigh Valley Coal company at the Exeter colliery, has been transferred to the Maltby colliery, where he was formerly in charge. Mr. Smith has been succeeded by John B. Keeler, of Maltby, who entered on the duties of his new position Monday.

Information from reliable source says that an excellent vein of coal has been dis-covered on the Jeddo tract of G. B. Markle & Co., near Jeddo. According to the re-port three veins have been pierced by the diamond drills, one of them being forty feet in thickness. The development of these veins means much for that region.
