BRIDGE ON MATTES STREET

Progress That Is Being Made in Its Construction-Meeting of Dunmore School Board-Election of Officers of the Junior Endeavor Society.

SOUTH SIDE.

It is interesting to watch the progress of the erection of the new railroad bridge on Mattes street, being constructed by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Wstern Railroad company. The work is going on without interfering with running the trains, nor will the least delay, unless something unforseen happens, be caused henceforth until the new bridge shall be securely put in place. Many are not aware of the way the work is being done. The improvement will make the street wider and the bridge will be higher above the roadway, but that does not signify merely that the grade of the railroad racks will be raised.

The street has already been widened everal feet and the bridge that will replace the old structure is ready to be swung in place at any time. The new bridge will have its stringers above the tracks instead of underneath as it now is. The bridge can be transferred to its position in an hour. By the end of the month the work will all be completed, making Mattes street a thoroughfare of some consequence.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Uncle Sam has 2,000 railway companies.

Moses Taylor lodge, No. 420, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, will run an excursion go Eldridge park, Elmira, N. Y., on Saturday, July 20. The East Tennessee railroad, from Bristol to Chattanooga, 242 miles, has the remarkable record of only two passengers killed in twenty-five years. This road averages a dozen passenger trains each twenty-four hours.

It is estimated that the quantity of coal now loaded upon boats at Pittsburg, and waiting for a rise in the Ohio river, is 600,000 tons, equal to 20,000 car loads of thirty tons each. The boatmen fear that they may not have a coal boat rise before autumn. As a result of the big strike last summer, 122 claims, aggregating $1,175,756, have been filed against the city of Chicago. They are made by railroads and other corporations, who assert that their property was destroyed by rioters during the strike. The Pan-Handle line wants $449,691; the Pennsylvania company, $150,899; the Fort Wayne company, $21,347, and the Illinois Central, $42,700. The smallest claim filed, $26, is in behalf of the Pullman Palace

Car company.

The electrical wave that has been sweeping over the Eastern roads has struck Chicago. The Chicago and Northern Pacific has decided to change the motive power of its three suburban lines-Thatcher's park, Harlem and Chicago Central—from steam to elec-tricity. The overhead trolley will be used and about thirty-five miles of track will be affected. If the experiment proves a success, the new motive power will undoubtedly be adopted by the St. Paul on its Evanston branch and the Illinois Central on its entire suburban system. It is said that most of the brakeme and switch tenders on the Maine railroads wear congress shoes. The fact s brought out in connection with the death of a brakeman in North Ber wick a few days ago whose foot got caught in a frog, and he, being unabl to extricate it, was run down by a train and mortally wounded. It was found that he wore a lace shoe. His fellow-workmen testified that had he worn a congress shoe, according to the isual custom, he would doubtless have been able to promptly take his foot out of it when caught in the frog, and night have escaped unhurt. "There is an old veteran," said Hon. T. V. Powderly, yesterday, pointing to the bob-tail switch engine "City Bank," which was standing near the Hyde Park crossing. "Twenty-five years ago I made the first repairs on that engine that were ever made on her. She was built in Paterson, and in being brought to this city broke down just as she was entering the yard. She was brought to the shops and I had charge of repairing her." In further conversation along the same line Mr. Powderly said a machinist of those days would not know how to approach a modern ocomotive with the purpose of overhauling it. "They are not the same machine at all," said Mr. Powderly. While traveling in Minnesota during his incumbency in the office of general master workman of the Kaights of Labor, Mr. Powderly was aboard : train which became stalled on account of a broken-down engine, and to the surprise of those on board he donned an overalls and jacket, and with the assistance of the engineer and fireman succeeded in repairing the break, which it was thought would totally disable the engine and cause the train to lay over in the woods until a new engine could be secured from the nearest station, Mr. Powderly is fond of referring to the days when he handled a hammer and wrench in the shops in this city and many an amusing reminiscence he has to tell of those times
