BAD MAN FROM BANGOR.

Beats His Wife, Tries to Kill His Brother and Then Himself.

The police received word by long distance telephone from Bangor last night, about 11 o'clock, notifying them of the look out for F. F. Brock, a prominent citizen of that town, who has gone wrong.

Brock, so the message states, is the landlord of the American hotel and quite well fixed as far as the goods of this world are concerned. The cause of the police being on his track is his elopement with a woman of the town, the beating of his wife, and the attempt to kill his brother.

The woman in the case goes by the name of Ida Hoffer, and is described as being tall, stout and good looking.
Brock is 35 years of age, of medium height, wears a sandy mustache and talks slowly. After leaving Bangor the runaway couple drove to Stroudsburg and took a train to Scranton.

defendants gave public utterances to the effect that she was a prostitute.

with everything that goes to make a day's outing pleasant. Those who go may be assured of a good time.

CASE OF GEOMETRIC RATIO.

The Ball of Walter Pierce Is Doubled at Each Continuance.

United States Commissioner A. J. Col-born was ready to begin the preliminary hearing of Walter Pierce, of Wyoming avenue, yesterday afternoon, but the defendant preferred to waive a hearing. He was represented by Attorney George S. Horn and Attorney W. N.
Ward, of Paterson, N. J., who is a brother of ex-Judge Ward, Mr. Horn's partner.

Assistant United States District Attorney Samuel B. Griffith, of Pittsburg, was present to prosecute. Chief of Police Simpson had the coins in his possession which were found with Pierce.
M. J. McAndrew was engaged to take stenographic notes at the hearing.

Just as the case was about to proceed, Pierce decided to waive the hearing, but the amount of bail was $2,000.
County Detective T. E. Reynolds went Pierce's bail until tomorrow, when Pierce will find a bondsman to go his bail until the October term of United States district court at Pittsburg.

It is rumored that there is very strong evidence against Pierce, who was in-detained until the trial. There is a multitude of spurious half-dollars floating around town now of the same workmanship found on Pierce.

QUAY-HASTINGS OPINION.

Mr. Voorhees, a Martin Lieutenant, Has Something to Say.

Charles E. Voorhees, until the Quay boom, and a trusted lieutenant of Dave Martin, was in the city yesterday.
While Mr. Voorhees stated he was in the city on personal business, it was quite generally understood that he came to observe the work of Senator Quay during the two preceding days and incidentally execute a commission from the governor.

Mr. Voorhees is secretary of the Republican city committee of Philadelphia, and was chief clerk of the house of representatives until removed last January.

He says Mr. Quay will be defeated by a large majority for state chairman and will have less than seven in thirty of the twenty-five delegates claiming from Philadelphia. He is reported as having ventured the opinion that the majority and possibly all the Lackawanna delegation will be for Hastings.

MORE OF THE QUEER.

An Arabian Peddler Tries to Shove a Very Bad Half-Dollar.

An Arabian peddler was arrested last night for attempting to pass a counterfeit half dollar on a Providence car conductor. When the car reached the central city the conductor pointed out the man to Officer Meiner, who arrested him and found the bad half dollar in his possession. He also discovered that the Arabian had been peddling without a license for over ten months.

At the station house the prisoner claimed that he received the bad coin from a Hungarian in Providence and that he was not aware of its spurious nature. While he was considered by the police to be innocent of any wrongdoing as far as the coin was concerned, they decided to hold him for a hearing so that he might be given a chance to explain where he got it and why he did not get a peddler's license. The counterfeit is a very poor specimen, and could not possibly be passed on a sober or sane man, unless on some such ignorant fellow as the Arabian peddler himself.

"IT" AND "GOSSIP."

Among the Games at the Y. W. C. A. Last Night.

About fifty girls attended the "What Is It?" social at the Young Women's Christian association rooms last evening. The fair was in the charge of the following committee: Misses Kennedy, Dimmick, Marie Nettleton, Hitchcock, Peck. The evening was spent in playing "It," "Gossip" and other games, after which sherbet and cake were served.

It is the aim of these socials to have the members of the association get better acquainted and also to bring in the girls who are not members.

A party of the Young Women's Christian association, under the care of a chaplain, will charter a car and find what enjoyment may be had out of a trolley party.

PARIS GREEN IN HIS TEA.

G. J. Rosenkrans, of Newton Township, Takes a Deadly Drink.

G. J. Rosenkrans, a farmer living at Square Top in Newton township, was poisoned yesterday morning by drinking a cup of tea with which paris green had been mixed. A mustard emetic administered by a neighbor saved his life, but he is still seriously ill.

Rosenkrans' wife threatened the day before, during a quarrel, to take his life, and, as a consequence, suspicion rests upon her.

Early in the morning Rosenkrans rose and prepared for himself a hasty breakfast with the intention of coming to Scranton after drinking water. He became deathly sick, and his son, who was present, called in a neighbor, who gave him the emetic.

The son was also about to drink of the poisoned tea when his father was able to stop him. Dr. H. E. Cooper was summoned, and after examining the tea declared that it contained paris green.

LAW SCHOOL FOR SCRANTON.

Movement to Locate Dickinson's Law Department in This City.

WILL BE CONSIDERED TODAY.

Lackawanna Bar Association Is Interested in the Project—College Wants Its Students to Observe Court Practice in Operation.

There is a possibility of locating in this city the law department of Dickinson college, of Carlisle, Pa., and to this end a general meeting of the Lackawanna County Bar association will be held in the court house today at 4 p. m.

Since Monday, Guy Carleton Lee, D. D., professor of common law in Dickinson college, has been in Scranton in the interest of the project to move the college's law department here.

Encouragement has been offered by several of our Pennsylvania cities, but Scranton is preferred on account of the large volume of legal business transacted in the courts and the consequent opportunities afforded law students for practical observation.
