For a moment we could not realize it. Such incredible baseness was outside of all our experience. Then as we stood how foolish we had been to trust for an instant a man with such a history, a flush of rage came over us, rage against his villainy and against ur own stupidty. We rushed at the door together, beating it with our fists and kicking it with our heavy boots. The sound of our blows and our execrations must have resounded through the castle. We called to this villian, hurling at him every name which might ree even into his hardened soul. But the door was enormous—such a door as one finds in medieval castles-made of huge beams clamped together with from. It was as easy to break as a square of the old guard. AUTION

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many pat-rons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before griding.
