BIDS FOR THE SUPPLIES.

They Were Opened at Meeting of Board of Control Committee

There was to have been a meeting of the supply committee of the board of control last night to consider proposals for the furnishing of supplies for the coming school year, but as only two members, C. H. VonStorch and James O'Boyle, put in an appea ance no action was taken.

However, the curlossty of these two led them to peep into the sealed bids, of which there were four, H. Howard Beidleman, J. A. Scranton & Son, W. H. Withers and Reynolds Bros. Inasmuch as these latter two firms had a warm strugle last year in the furnish ing of pads, the principal item in the supply list, their figures this year were watched for with much interest.

It will be remembered that the committee undertook to select from samples furnished by the bidders the varlous articles upon which bids were asked, and as a result an allegation came forward from Mr. Withers to the effect that Reynolds Bros., who were awarded the pencil pad contract, had not furnished the paper called for in the specifications. There was much wrangling and newspaper talk at the time, but nothing came out of it. year the committee specified a particuar kind of article desired in each case and as a consequence no difficulties of last year's description are likely to re

It is evident that Withers is determined to secure the contract this time as his bid is nearly 10 per cent. less than Reynolds Bros.' figures which are the next lowest.

In the other items the other bidders each had lowest bids, and it is likely that the contract will be divided among

SHOULD BE FOR WILLARD

Ex-Lieutenant Governor L. A. Waters Expresses His Opinion.

WHAT CANDIDATE SHOULD HAVE

Delegation Ought to Go from This County That Will Use Every Honorable Means to Secure Mr. Willard's Nomination for Superior Court Judge.

All newspaper men know how difficult it is to get ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres to talk for publication.

Yesterday a Tribune reporter, know ing Colonel Watres' warm and sterling friendship for Senator Quay, succeed ed in getting Mr. Watres to speak concerning the pending political contest He said:

"I have not changed my opinion since I expressed it two weeks ago, to wit that Judge Willard should be given a delegation from Lackawanna county of should receive the full amount expendhis own choosing.

"Mr. Willard has placed the Republican party in this county-individually and collectively-underdeep obligations by his splendid and efficient services He has contributed more time and money and has asked for less than any other man in the county.

"I am convinced that the county wants him to have a delegation that will use every honorable means to bring about his nomination for Superior court judge in the coming state convention.

"This being true, the only fair way in which it can be done is to select delegates who will subordinate every other political interest which may present itself in the convention to that of Judge Willard, or in other words, who will at Harrisburg, do as Mr. Willard requests, regardless of any personal opinions or preferences of their own.

"Personally Judge Willard is thoroughly familiar with my views concerning the state contest and is aware of my friendship for Senator Quay.

"But whether he complies with my wishes or not, I shall vote for the delegates selected by him. He is entitled to this at my hands, and, as I believe, at the hands of every Republican of Lackawanna county."

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL.

So the Coroner's Jury in the Case of Fritz Bauer Decided.

A verdict that Fritz Bauers' death was caused by an accident in falling prised ad somewhat wroth. down a stairway in the rear of 425 or 427 Penn avenue, was last night returned by the coroner's jury, after hearing evidence upon the case in the court house.

Bauers was found lying in the rear of the above number on Monday morning and taken to the police station. He apparently had no physical powers and was supposed to be suffering from the effects of a debauch. Early Wednesday morning he was removed to the Lackawanna hospital, where he died in less than fifteen minutes after being received.

What Mrs. Graves Said. An autopsy performed by Corone Kelley and Hospital Surgeon Heald showed that Bauers' neck had been broken. Meanwhile Mrs. Graves, who lives upstairs at No. 425, had told the coroner and a Tribune reporter that she saw Harry and Sam Goldschlager, two peddlers, knock and kick Bauers down the rear stairway at the foot of which the unfortunate man was found in a helpness condition Monday morn-

Mrs. Graves' own testimony last night and the testimony of others shows her to be a consumate fabricator. She did not testify to half that she told the coroner and The Tribune reporter, and she wavered and split hairs on the little that she did not swear to. The collective evidence tended to show that Mrs. Graves was not to be believed: that she was not home until at least an hour after Bauers made his fatal fall, and that the two peddlers were not in Bauers' company after 7.30 o'clock.

Some Convincing Testimony. The most convincing testimony of accidental death was offered by Mrs. Tessler, wife of one of the bakery firm at No. 427. At 9.30 o'clock she saw Bauers fall down the steps and fall to rise again. The next morning he was found on the spot indicated by Mrs. Tessler.

Not more than a few moments were spent in deliberation by the jury before it returned the verdict of acci-

CHARGE AGAINST LAINE. It Was Withdrawn in Time to Keep Him

Out of Jall. An unexpected turn of affairs took place in the J. H. Laine accessory gambling case before Alderman Millar yesterday. The alderman was on the point of making out the commitment papers on Thursday to send Laine to the county jail in default of ball, but the defendant was given more time to go out and hunt a bondsman. Laine was still unable to get ball even yesterday, and was about to surrender nimself for incarceration, when the county detective came forward and withdrew the case against him. From one of Laine's most intimate friends it was learned last evening that he will not remain long in the Electric City. It was also stated that the Scranton Traction company has agreed to settle all bills.

THEY HAD A CONFERENCE. Members of the Lackswanns Institute and the County Commissioners. A. W. Dickson, J. H. Fisher, F. E.

Platt and Dr. Throop, of the Lacka-wanna Institute of History and Science, had a conference at the court house yesterday with Commissioners Glies Roberts, S. W. Roberts and John Demuth. The institute is willing to obtain quarters elsewhere but thinks that it should be recompensed for the full amount of money expended in fitting up the room it occupied. By reference to the minutes of the neeting of the commissioners in 1886, when permission was given the institute to occupy a room in the court house, it was found that the agreement was that if the institute vacated voluntarily or by request of the commissloners within five years of the date of its occupance it should receive the full amount expended on the room.

If the room was used for more than five years and less than ten, then onehalf the money would be refunded. If occupied more than ten years nothing been in possession about nine years and in accordance with the agreement the county commissioners are willing to pay one-half the money expended on the room. The members of the institute did not know that there was such an agreement and thought they

A definite decision as to what will be done was not arrived at at yesterday's conference. The room as fitted at present will be of little or no use to the commissioners as it will have to be entirely remodelled to make it of any service for court purposes.

ALL THE SAME IN POLISH.

Similarity Between Keystone and Kingston, as Pronounced by a Polander, Results in a Ludicrous Mistake and a Law Suit.

You say Keenston?" "No, I say Keeston."

The trouble was that neither party was sufficiently familiar with the English language to make the other understand properly what was meant. The similarity in sound between Keystone and Kingston, as pronounced by a Polander, resulted in a lawsuit before Alderman Wright, a small riot at Old Forge, the loss of a position by one of the parties and many inconveniences by his family.

Joseph Judakabowitch and John Sharak live at Old Forge. Joseph hired John to move his furniture to Keystone, as the settlement around Keystone colliery in Avoca is called. John misunderstood his directions and carted all of Joseph's household goods to Kingston, thirteen miles away.

The Judakabowitch family, who had gone to Keystone and stopped with their friends there while waiting the arrival of their furniture, were much surprised in the delay of the delivery of their goods and went back to Old Forge to look after them. Sharak, in the meantime, had driven to Kingston J. B. Davis, Owen Reese, 48; Third with the furniture, and not finding the district, G. Schemmerhorn, 17; J. Judakabowitches waiting him there as Judakabowitches walting him there, as was agreed, returned home much sur-

He locked the furniture up in a vacant house which belonged to him and when the owners of the goods came looking for them he demanded $25 for his trouble, alleging that it was not his fault that he went to Kingston. Judakabowitch thereupon began legal proceedings to regain his furniture and when Constable Legrand Wright went down to get possession of them he found himself in the midst of two factions, one urging him to break into the house and the other daring him to do it. The constable returned, secured reinforcements and, going back to Old Forge, gained possession of the keys of the house and the furniture without any difficulty.

Sharak was later on arrested for larceny and held to answer at court. By toling deprived of his mining tools, which were locked up with the furniture, Judakabowitch lost his posi-

GREAT VICTORY

Majority of Delegates of Pourth District Elected in His Interests.

SOME VERY EXCITING BATTLES

Clean Sweep of the Willard Delegates at Dunmore-Hard Fighting in the City of Carbondale-Names of Delegates Chosen to Today's Convention.

One of the liveliest Republican primary elections in the history of Lackawanna county was conducted yesterday in the Fourth Legislative district between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock.

It resulted in a victory for the men who fought in the interests of Judge Willard and at midnight there seemed no reasonable doubt that today's convention at Dunmore will elect Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas, of Carbondale, and James Young, of Dunmore, who will go to the Republican state convention at Harrisburg pledged solely to Judge Willard's interests.

The friends of United States Senator M. S. Quay made desperat fights for was to be repaid. The institute has delegates in almost every voting division in the district and in some instances were successful.

> Representative Charles P. O'Malley, who returned at midnight from a tour through the district, said when seen by a Tribune reporter: "We have heard from voting divisions that elected sixty-five of the seventytwo delegates in the district and of these forty-seven were chosen in Judge Willard'sinterests. There is no doubt in my mind but that John H. Thomas and James Young will be elected state delegates at tomorrow's convention." Clean Sweep at Dunmore.

In Dunmore the delegates who were in the field in Judge Willard's interests had a walk over, and the same was true of Dickson City, Winton and two districts of Blakely. By desperate fighting the Quay men captured one district of Blakely, and one district of Olyphant. The others went unreservedly for Willard, as did Mayfield and one ward of Jermyn.

Nowhere was the fighting more exciting than in Carbondale, where Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas won a signal victory in the face of tremendous opposition. The vote in the various districts of that city was as follows:

First ward, First district, C. E. Spencer, W. R. Baker, E. E. Hendrick, F. W. Mills, 126; H. Williams, Harry Wolcott, Henry Pierce, 109; Third dis-trict, Cormine Perri, 25; J. B. Faulkner,
