THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE---SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 13, 1895.

NATURE OF A RELIGIOUS Unique Meetings That Are Being Conducted at Nay Aug Park.

THEY WILL BURN A MORTGAGE

Congregation of Holy Trinity Lutherar Church Are Soon to Have That Pleasure-Great Work Accomplished by Calvary Reformed Church.

Probably one of the most unique, as well as one of the most practical kinds of religious work inaugurated in Scranton in recent years, is the Sunday open air meetings, conducted by the Young Men's Christian association in one of nature's cool and restful natural ampitheaters in Nay Aug park. Secretary Mahy and other promoters of the "enterprise" are so encouraged by the attendance of 1,500 persons at the first meeting last Sunday, that special efforts will be made in future to make the meetings additionally attractive. Tomorrow, for instance, some person, possibly Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, prominently identified with Young Men' Christian association work, will be the principal speaker, and delightful music will be sung by the association Glee club, under the direction of Tallie Morgan. The managers of the open air idea are confident of increase in the gatherings, and have built a speakers and singers' platform in the hollow of the ampitheater, which is on the east side of Roaring Brook, near the Elmhurst boulevard. Eventually, wooden seats will be built among the nooks in the rocks. Workers for the meeting will gather for prayer in the association building at 3 o'clock and start for the park in a body at 3.15.

Mortgage Cremating Ceremony.

The mortgage cremating ceremony marking the clearing from debt of th Holy Trinity Lutheran church, corne of Adams avenue and Mulberry street. will take place as soon as several busin ss formalties are attended to. The d bt has existed since the organization of the congregation. The church will be consecrated in the fall.

'Young Men." the monthly publica tion of the Scranton Young Men's Ciristian association contains the folwing announcements of vocations and anges: "Secretary Pearsall, of the Failroad department, and Superintendcat Sanborn, of the Rescue mission ale spending two weeks in the Maine woods. Assistant Secretary Wiley goes to the Young Men's Chrdistian association encampment at Northfield on the wheel. He will be gone from July 15 to 20. Physical Director Weston goes to Lockport, N. Y., for the month of August. General Secretary Mahy will spend the summer (nights) on his 'farm' at 1632 Sanderson avenue. L. J. Surdam, who for the past year has served as assistant physical director in a very efficient manner, leaves us to take charge of the work at Taunton Mass., as physical director. He will also study in Boston under Director Weston's old teacher, Professor Rob-F. R. Wellard takes Mr. erts. Surdam's place, beginning work Aug. 1. Mr. Wellard is a genuine athlete with a good record in base ball, foot ball, and field contests."

A trestle to haul pea coal from the breaker to the boiler house s being erected. Ground was broken on Wednesday by the Reading Coal and Iron company for what will be one of the largest coal operations in the country. The work is the sinking of a new shaft at Wadesville colliery and the reopening of these mines after an idleness of about fifteen years. It is stated that $500,000 has been appro-priated for this work and the plans are on an extensive scale. The new slope of the Lehigh Valley Coal company at No. 2 Yorktown is now almost down to the basin. The slope is now over 1,100 feet deep and two shifts of men have been put to work to hasten its completion. The vein to be tapped is the Buck Moun-tain. When the basin is reached contracts will be given out at once for the driving of tunnels east and west. This is one of the most substantial collieries the region. Superintendent Hayes says it will last fifty years. The breaker has a capacity of 1,000 tons daily.
