CITY NOTES.

The officers of the Thirteenth regiment met last night to discuss encampment details.
Henry Sule, the New street man who was arrested for making a murderous attack on his daughter Sunday night, was discharged with a fine of $2 yesterday by Alderman Millar, as no one appeared against him.
At a meeting of the creditors of Laurel Hill park held last night it was suggested that all holding claims against the park should send them to A. J. Atkinson, secretary of the meeting, 188 Meridian street, by Wednesday.
The ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, Green Ridge, will hold a social this evening in the Evangelical church on Capouse at nine. Admission is free. The regular weekly meeting of the union will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church.

Tonight the young ladies of the city are invited to "an evening of poetry" at the Young Women's Christian association rooms, 205 Washington avenue. It is hoped that many young women will improve their poetry by accepting the invitation. Tuesday, July 16, at 7:30 p. m.
Joseph Cerekalski was hurt in the Dodge shaft yesterday by a fall of roof. His hip was broken and he is also suffering from severe scalp wounds. The mine ambulance removed him to the Moses Taylor hospital. The injured man is married, 30 years old, and lives on Cherry street, South Side. His injuries are not fatal.

FOUND DEAD UNDER A CAR.
William Ribenburg killed in the Delaware and Hudson freight train.
William Ribenburg, of Laurel street, Carbondale, was found dead under a freight train in the Delaware and Hudson yard at that place yesterday afternoon, shortly after 3 o'clock.
His body was badly crushed, and although it is not known for certain how he came to his death, it is believed that he attempted to crawl underneath the car to get past the train and was caught by the sudden starting of the cars. He was employed in the freight house of the company.

This is the second time his wife has been widowed by a railroad accident. Her first husband, Lucius Marshall, was killed some years ago while erecting a gate on the Delaware and Hudson road.
HARD ON CONSTABLE JONES.
Lost His Own Horse While Hunting for a Horse Thief.
Constable J. Jones, of the Fifth ward, who started out last week in his carriage to trail the horse which was stolen from John Rowlinson Wednesday night, returned yesterday without either horse.

He drove up through Susquehanna county and found no trace of the stolen animal returned to Carbondale with the intention of taking other means of continuing the chase.
Sunday night his own horse died in the Harrison house stables from some equine complaint.
NEW FIRE EXTINGUISHER.
Plain, Ordinary, Every-Day Dirt Does the Work Most Successfully.
While attempting to remedy a leak in a gas pipe, Jesto Rodriguez, of 427 Keokuk street, brought a light too close to the escaping fluid and accidentally ignited it.
The blaze set fire to the flooring of the basement and soon a good-sized conflagration resulted. However, before the fire companies could reach the scene Mr. Rodriguez succeeded in smothering the flames, which were confined to one corner, by shoveling dirt upon them.

NEW GAS RESERVOIR.
Will Supply the Gas Consumers of the North End.
The Scranton Gas and Water company's employees are excavating for a gas reservoir on Marion street, Green Ridge, which is designed to supply the consumers of the North End with a steady and better supply of gas.
The new tank will be of the size of those in use at the gas house.
Special attention and private dining rooms for dinner parties at Lohmann's, Spruce street. Service and cuisine unequalled in this city.

FRANK BEZEK RESPITED

Governor Hastings Extends His Early Pardon to Till No. 6.
APPEAL TO BOARD OF PARDONS

Will Be Made at Its Meeting Wednesday,
Oct. 16—Attorney Colborn and Edmund A. Bartl Presented Petition for a Respite to Governor.

Governor Hastings yesterday granted a respite in the Bezek case and continued the date of the murderer's execution from Thursday, Aug. 1, to Wednesday, Nov. 6, on which date he will die on the gallows for the crime of killing Mary Kerzic, unless the board of pardons shall grant him a new lease of life. His attorneys are quite confident that the appeal for Bezek will not be in vain.

They are not proceeding with the expectation of asking for clemency, in extenuation of the deed, but they propose to insist that they allege to be competent proof in the shape of depositions that Bezek did not murder his sweetheart, her death ensuing from the fatal attempt on her part to prevent him from self-destruction, which he was about to accomplish, impelled to it by her refusal to marry him.

He Will Be Told Today.
Sheriff Clemens was officially notified yesterday that the respite had been granted, and will act accordingly. Bezek was not made acquainted yesterday of the extension of time granted to him, but the jail authorities will convey the news today. He has spent the most of his waking hours in prayer, and is resigned to his fate. He is not anxious to have much publicity in the interest of the board of pardons.

Attorney A. J. Colborn and Edmund A. Bartl went to Harrisburg yesterday and presented a petition to the governor for a respite for the condemned man. They were successful, as the result shows. The next meeting of the board of pardons will occur on Wednesday, Oct. 16, when his case will be argued before the board. The reasons which will be presented were published a few days ago in The Tribune. Besides, the depositions of several persons will be offered to prove that the death of Mary Kerzic was accidental.

No Time Has Been Lost.
It is now nine months since the fatal shot to both of them, and it is seldom that a murder case only this much time has elapsed when the murderer has been tried, found guilty, his application for a new trial refused by the lower court, and the case brought and argued before the supreme court, where also a new trial was refused.

TO BRING VISNIKIE HERE.
It Will Require Several Days to Arrange the Legal Details.
Chief of Police Simpson was engaged continuously yesterday in preparing the legal details necessary for securing extradition papers to bring Joseph Visnikie, the young Polish murderer, from Buffalo. It will be several days before Visnikie can be brought here.
No information regarding the details of the capture have been received by the police.

Visnikie was arrested on Saturday by Captain Koehler, Special Lacrosse and Patrolman Bingham, of No. 8 precinct, Buffalo. Special Lacrosse learned that the murderer was in the city two months ago visiting relatives who live there. He had the last located and kept watch on the premises, having received a tip that Visnikie would probably turn up in that vicinity again.

Saturday the special's vigilance was rewarded. In company with Captain Koehler and Patrolman Bingham he found and arrested Visnikie at the house where he was visiting. He had come there Friday and had only been in town a few hours. His version of the murder is that he shot the man in self-defense.

"They were going at me with knives," said he. "What could I do? Stand there and be killed? If I had not shot them they would have knifed me, sure." Visnikie had been working on a farm near Hamburg. He came to Buffalo to spend Sunday with his friends and intended to return Monday.

WARD PHILLO'S TWO WIVES.
The Second One Did Not Know Mrs. Phillo, No. 1, Was Living.

Mrs. Electra N. Phillo, through her next friend, Charles Gardner, yesterday filed a petition asking that her union with Ward Phillo be declared null and void from the beginning. She was married to him on Aug. 25, 1885, at Overfield township, Wyoming county, by Rev. Thomas Harroun, then pastor of the Factoryville Methodist Episcopal church.

Ten months afterward she learned that Phillo had been wedded on June 1, 1873, at Maywood, Benton county, Iowa, to one Martha E. Clark, by Justice of the Peace Denmore Campbell; that the first wife is still living and has not been divorced.
Mrs. Phillo, 2, avers that she immediately left Phillo when she heard of his first marriage, and has never lived with him since. Now she wants the court to set aside her marriage with the respondent just the same as if it never happened. She is a resident of this county and he of Tunkhannock.

DEATH TO THE PUMP.
Watered Milk a Thing of the Past If Mayor Connell Yesterday Signed the Resolution Adopted at the last meeting of the board of health for the prevention of the sale of impure milk, it is now a law.
By this law measure the food and milk inspector is directed to examine from time to time the milk brought into the city, and if it is found to be watered or in any other way impure, he is instructed to warn the offender against a repetition. On a second repetition of the offense the inspector is empowered to confiscate the milk and to notify all milk dealers in the city that the person in question supplies impure milk.
If this measure is carried out the dealers will be responsible for any impure milk that may be sold to customers.

RELIC OF FOOT BALL DAYS.
Alderman W. S. Millar Decides Against Player Fred Gilbert.
Action was yesterday brought by Fred Gilbert, of South Washington avenue, against the Scranton Base Ball association to recover $20 salary, alleged to have been due him for playing foot ball last season under the management of the late Thomas Cahill. There was a hearing last evening before Alderman W. S. Millar.

THAT BOSTON CONVENTION

C. E. Daniels Talks About the Big Christian Endeavor Gathering.
WERE HOSPITABLY TREATED

Welsh Rally Held on Sunday Which Was Addressed by Ministers Well-Known Here—It Was the Largest Convention Ever Held in America.

Chairman C. E. Daniels, of the Tri-county Christian Endeavor union, returned last night from the Boston convention, the largest of its kind in the world, which was held at the Hotel Huntington, the Pennsylvania Hotel
and at the Hotel Hamilton in Boston.
The convention was held from August 12
to August 15, and was the largest ever held in America.

Tribune reporter was one of the first to meet him as he alighted from the train. He was highly enthusiastic over the great convention, and spoke in glowing terms of its success.
The Scranton people and all from Northwestern Pennsylvania are distinctly at the head of the parade in this regard, for at private boardings houses on Massachusetts avenue, right in the heart of the city, they are being royally treated by the people of Boston, and will no doubt be both
to leave it.

Pennsylvania in the Lead.
On Sunday afternoon a novelty in Christian Endeavor conventions, a "Welsh Rally," was held in St. Paul's church, on Fremont square. Among those who delivered addresses were
Rev. R. S. Jones, of Providence; Rev.
D. M. George, of New York; and J.
D. Davis, of Akron, Ohio, formerly pastor of Plymouth church. Mrs. G. W.
Powell, of Bellevue, also sang a solo at the meeting.

It has the largest convention ever held in America," said Mr. Daniels.
"I am proud to say that the old Keystone state was foremost in everything. Pennsylvania held the largest and most successful of the state receptions. It was advertised to take place in the People's temple church, but this was found to be too small to contain half of those who came, so the place was changed to the People's temple, which was the headquarters for the Massachusetts people."

About State Convention.
In reference to the fight between Allenton and Scranton for the state convention, Mr. Daniels said that he believed Scranton would be successful.
But Allenton, he said, was making a strong fight for it, and might possibly succeed in capturing the plum.

CROP PROSPECTS BRIGHT.
Reports From Railway Agents in the West, Corn and Other Sections Declare the Yield Will Be Larger Than Expected—Traffic Will Follow.
Chicago, July 15.—Railroad prospects are more promising today than they have been at any time since 1892. That means that the prospects for the whole country are brighter. At any time since then, the railroads might be taken as the industrial and financial barometer for the whole country, for they cannot suffer without the whole country suffering with them. They,
on the other hand, cannot prosper without the whole country prospering.

A period of depression is generally ushered in by a collapse of one or more railroads. Its coming is always followed immediately by the discharge of hundreds of thousands of men employed directly by the railroads in the construction, maintenance and operation of the railroads. The discharge of these is followed by the dismissal of as many more who owe their employment indirectly to the railroads. There are a few manufacturing industries in the country that do not count the railroads as among their largest customers. Hard times with the railroads mean the shutting down of the rolling mills, the stoppage of work at ore and coal mines and the curtailment
of the output of almost every manufacturing establishment in the United States.

Big Crops in Sight.
It can thus be seen how much universal interest is involved in the statement that the railroads are about entering upon a period of general prosperity. The promise of this is based on the prospects for as bounteous a harvest as has perhaps ever been reaped in this whole continent, and the operation of the railroads. Should present hopes be fully realized, six months from now the little embarrassment the roads will know will be how to keep their tracks and yards from being blockaded with the traffic that will pass over them at the rate of a train every few minutes.

Two young farmers engaged in a deperate duel.
Louisville, Ky., July 15.—Meagre details have been received of a desperate duel fought in Shelby county, in which Isaac Huffman, and Marshall Garner, young farmers, killed each other to pieces. Both were 21.
Huffman owns a farm and Garner
lately came to the state from Tennessee, working on an adjoining farm. They had an altercation today and both men drew knives and began slashing at each other. They only ceased cutting when they were so weak from loss of blood that they could no longer stand.

HAD HEARD OF HIM.
Alderman Wright Known for and Near as Artist in Telling Knots.

John Verner, of Fargo, North Dakota, and Miss Ellen Burden, of New York, on their way east, she having been visiting in the city, dropped off long enough here yesterday to get a license and get married.
They had heard of Alderman O. B.
Wright, whose inimitable tact in performing the marriage ceremony has won him a reputation that has extended far and wide. They were joined by him and departed for the west happy.

the Mine.

Thomas Albright, 25 years old, a laborer in one of the mines of the Delaware and Hudson Coal company up the valley, was brought to the Lackawanna hospital yesterday afternoon, suffering from fatal injuries received at work.
He died a few hours after being taken to the hospital and his remains were taken charge of by friends.

obtaining by false pretense several hundred dollars worth of jewelry from M. B.
Lay & Bro. of this city, was arrested yesterday in Eastern by C. E. Sil-verberg, a Scranton detective.
