HARD FOUGHT GAME.

There Was No Disgrace in Scranton's Defeat by Providence-Errors Figured Equally in the Run-Getting-Hodson's Splendid Pitching.

We lost to Providence yesterday in s contest of which we need not be ashamed. The score was 3-1, which shows that some good playing was done, considering that of the visitors done, considering that of the visitors Lytie, it............. 4 nine hits three were triples and two McMahon, as....... 3 doubles. It would not take a right smart calculator long to figure that there must have been sharp fielding where hits for a total of 17 bases netted only three runs.

Whatever harsh comments the club's field work many have incited during the last ten days, each spectator at yesterday's game must admit he had a run for his money. There were errors four by Scranton and three by Providence, but the bad plays permitted only one run to each club. In only the last two innings was Scranton retired onethree, and only in the seventh and eighth was the same treatmet accorded the Champions. There were just enough hits, or errors or bases on balls to keep a runner on the circuit through out the game except in the three innings mentioned, yet only a total of four runs were made.

Hodson Was in the Game.

The devil must be given his due, and this applies to Georgie Hodson, the pigeon-toed, Providence twirier, who last year was Scranton's star boxman until the club went into the Eastern league and Hodson was sold to Boston. Hodson was in the game yesterday; in fact, he was entirely too much in evidence for Scranton's well-being. He was wild from the beginning but posmen out when such action was necessary and kept Scranton down to four measely, scattered hits, except in the inming where Scranton scored, and even then the two singles would not have produced a run but for Harry Lyons' error in permitting Stearns' grounder to go by him.

the quiptette of triples and doubles placed variety. The opposite is true of long hits by Scranton, which were gobbled by Lyons or struck the infield a manner which permitted ready fielding by Bassett or Cooney.

The playing of Ward, particularly, and possibly Radford and Huston offered a decided squeich to the calamity howlers. The trio participated in diffioult plays that stopped one runner at the plate, one at third and two at sec ond, each of whom might have scored

How the Runs Were Secred. . In the first inning one from Lyons' bat struck in front of the plate and bounded high in the air. Johnson received it, but threw low to Stearns, and later, in trying to catch Lyons napping, Johnson contributed to Stearns' error her loose throw on which Lyons reached second and scored on Knight's double. Meanwhile Bassett fanned out. Knight was caught off cond and Dixon flew out to Bannon. For Scranton, with two out, Huston walked to first, stole second and reached third on Bassett's error. Rogers was thrown out by Smith. The Grays' two final runs were made in the third. With one out Lyons made a three-bagger to right center, but was ers on Bassett's force hit. Knight went to first on balls and scored with Bassett on Dixon's triple. Cooney flew out to field, the leaders of the Eastern league

won a game from Wilkes-Barre today, which was a pure gift owing to Bonner's egregious errors in the sixth when a double play should have been made. This changes Bett's heretofore good record of victories against the Ponies before whom he has always been invincible. Springfield played an errorles game full of snap and vim but the chance offered were usually easy ones. Gruber pitched a good game for the leaders; had command of the ball and although he was hit at critical points his speed was remarkable. Four of the Wilkes Barre runs were carned off him, and daring base running by Lytle, which was uncalled for, robbed Wilkes-Barre of a run in the first.

The Ponies secured their lead in the sixth when Gilbert opened with a single, McDonald drew a base on balls. Lawler flew out to Griffin when or Gunson's force hit Bonner dropped an easy thrown ball on which a sure double play could have been made. This gave McDonald second; wild throws then followed by Earl and McMahon letting in three runs. McDonald's second base work was fine. cloudy. Attendance, 1,300.

CONSTABLE JONES' HORSE DIED

Breathed Its Last While Its Owner Was Looking for a Horse Thief-Party in Honor of Ira Davis-John O. Evans Injured.

An emusing sequel to the horse stealing case which was reported in Tuesday's issue has just transpired. Thomas Reese, it will be remembered, stole a horse and wagon from John Rowlands, of North Main avenue, and escaped with the turnout to the country. This happened on Monday, and on the followng day Constable John Davis and the owner of the stolen property set out in aste after the criminal. The reason of this spurt is due partly to the fact that a $20 bill awaits the capturer of a horse thief in the county commissioners

The duo rode by street car as far as Forest City, inquiring as they journeyed, and after a few hour's seach in the vicinity of the town they returned home without the thief. On last Friday, at noon, Constable Tim Jones started out to capture the thief, accom panied by Constable Davis. The pair rode through Olyphant, Peckville, Mayield, Carbondale and contingent towns, but Reese was still an unknown quar

But the two officers met the greatest misfortune of all the journey on Sunday. After having been on the road for over forty-eight hours, the horse which pulled them all through the vain search, with the least possible ceremony, died, leaving the two officials in a strange town. Funds were low, owing to the expenses of the campaign, but enough was scraped together to carry them home. But Reese is still the companion of his stolen property, and as far as Messrs. Davis and Jones are concerned, he will stay that way for some time to come.

Gentlemen:—Replying to yours of the 1st, would say that I have used tobacco for 60 years, and of late have consumed a 10-cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacce when I was il years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took NARCOTI-CURE, although I have tried other so-called remedies without effect. After using your remody four days all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad affects, whatever. I am gaining in flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the obacco habit I would say, use NARCOTI-CURE.
