Pinckney, Mich., July 18 .- When the lelegates to the Christian Endeavor started east C. G. Cady was one of the most prominent, and another was a young woman named Jackson, the daughter of Cady's partner. Now it appears that Cady left town just in time to escape investigation on the charge of burning his store on the night of June 29, and he also left his wife behind. Saturday the officers wired to New York to arrest and hold Cady, but they learned that he had taken passage to Scotland with Miss Jackson
