How a Boy Worked Upon the Sympathic

of a Charitable Citizen.

It was during the rain of Monday and pedestrians were hurrying to their homes or hotels with all speed possible. The wind was whistling up and down the streets like a "silvertipped" bootblack and as one man came around the corner of Superior and Bank, a small thinly-clad boy of tender years, kuddled in a heap in a sheltering doorway, attracted his attention The man paused and looked down at the quiet child and as he did so wandering ray of light fell upon the thin cheeks, showing plainly where recent tears had washed away the grime in his childish arms, and the man's heart beat faster as he looked. "Poor lietle chap," said he to himself, fishing about in his pocket for a dime, what a pathetic story of unfruitful energy that tells! Poor little chap! And dropping the coin safely into the limbe outstretched hand the man tiptoed around the corner and took anoth crease His Weight. One of the queer instances of violent temper in a fat man was displayed the past week. He is well known in business circles and weighs 206 pounds. He bought a wheel to rid himself of his surplus avoirdupois. For several weeks he puffed along the ups and downs of life. Some friends thought he was growing thinner, some considered him tationary, but all agreed that he was looking quite husky. When sufficient time had elapsed he was placed on the scales. Horrors to life, he had gained just eight pounds. With blood in his eye, and against the protestations of his friends, his pocketknife was produced. Blash, slash, and the rubber tire of his wheel was no more. With a quick movement of his foot the unhappy com-Atra. Clarence M. Florey, of North Main peared and $125 had collapsed.

Fat Man Takes Sharp Measures to

Will Speak Tomorrow Night. Theodore Vlademiroff will speak in the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church

tomorrow morning. He is a son of Vlademir, and was born 1872, in Merichery, Bulgaria. His father was a prominent business man, but having been converted to Christianity he began to preach everywhere as a local preacher without pay. He established five churches, one being in his own town, where he himself preached gratuitously every Sunday for eight years. He was elected mayor of the town the same year he become a Protestant (1869) and held the office until 1877, when the town was burned by the Turkish army, his property was destroyed and he had to flee for his life. The Russian-Turkiting her aunt, Miss Maria K. Watson, of ish war ended in 1879, after which Mr. Vlademir returned to the spot where his home had been and began life anew. In 1886 he was able to send his son, Theodore, to the Missionary school at Attorney Peter Sharp, of Ada, Minn., is Samokov, where he graduated in 1891, the guest of Attorney Charles Olver, of Deterined to have the advantage of a higher education, young Theodore borrowed some money and started for New York, arriving there with ten dollars in his pocket. He went to Kingston, Pa., worked on a farm until school opened, then entered the Wyoming seminary and supported homself there for the year. In the summer of 1893 he was called by the Bulgarian commissione to assist him at the World's Fair. September, 1893, he entered the University of Michigan, where he is now doing good work as a student and supporting himself by his lectures, etc. Pastors, in whose churches he has spoken, speak highly of him. Mr. William Thornton, of 127 W. Market Street, Explains How and Why He Did It.

From the Elmira Gazette. Old age has many infirmities, none of which are more prevalent than kidney diswhich are more prevalent than kidney dis-orders. Have you ever noticed how the old people complain of backache, lame back, and general listlessness? And there are many other symptoms of which they do not speak, such as bloating of the limbs, painful and infrequent urination or excess-iveness of the urinary discharge. Most people think they are too old to find relief and cure, but this is not so. No better ev-idence than the following, which comes from an Elmira citizen, who has been idence than the following, which comes from an Elmira citizen, who has been cured of a very severe case at 77 years of age. Mr. William Thornton, of 127 West Market street, speaks of his case in this way: "I am 77 years old. I have been afflicted with that dreadful complaint (kidney disease) for over ten years, mak-ing my old age a burden. I was so bad as to be forced to carry a belt at all times, and, when my suffering became beyond endurance, I would put on the belt, drawendurance, I would put on the belt, drawing it tightly around me and buckle it, thus bringing an extreme pressure over the kidneys; this, undoubtedly, forced the urine out, a function which the kidneys themselves had become too diseased to perform. My condition I put down to a strain I received. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. I was much surprised, as the aliment was so severe and so long Kidney Pills. I was much surprised, as the ailment was so severe and so long standing, while I had tried many remedies without any relief whatever. The pain I have experienced at times from straining in my efforts to discharge the urine was simply awful. I have done away with the use of my leather belt, and the pain has all gone, and I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all afflicted with kidney and urinary disorders."

ON BYRON'S LATEST.

No doubt the public sympathy is due the author of a recent "open letter" penned at midnight, as well as the read ers of the paper that is so pushed for legitimate news that it is compelled to fill its columns with the slush furnished by that wandering freak who subscribes himself as Lord Byron Green. A man in the situation of the Republi can's spayined representative is certainly entitled to consideration in the hour of remorse. In a spirit of woe Lord Byron wants to know if his sufferings of mind and body are caused by his own "sinfulness." A limited acquaintance with this nomadic spirit would probably not justify one in venturing an answer, but if Lord Byron's veracity may be judged by his statements in reference to The Tribune and Tribune representatives in his "open letter," it is evident that the Republican seed distributor has a good deal to answer for in this world or the next. In fact, it is a wonder that "L. Byron whose troubles have been legion, has escaped the fate of Ananias so long.

In localities where Lord Byron's pe culiarities are well known, it will probably be unnecessary to make a denial of the statements put forth at midnight with the evident intent of placing The Tribune and its agents in an unfavorable light, as the people know Byron But for readers who are unacquainted with the situation it may be well to remark that the assertions made concern ing The Tribune's methods of increasing its rapidly growing subscription list, have no foundation save in the cranium of the seed organ's solicitor, where the wheels buzz as the midnight oil sput-

The Tribune does not need to resort to falsehood or seed distribution in its steady and sure journey to the front rank. The people of Northeastern Pennsylvania are too intelligent to be longer satisfied with an inferior article in the way of a newspaper. They want the best, and the best is The Tribune. To the remorseful representative of journalistic decay, our sympathy is extended. Repent, Byron, before it is too late!. Adopt the habit of speaking the truth, and you may be happy yet.

Will Have a Boomerang Effect. Tunkhannock' Republican: "The abuse of Governor Hastings by the Quay following is simply disgusting, and will not have a tendency to draw quiet, thinking people to their side of the question."
