It was another leaders' day in the Estern league yesterday—not a tailender won. A fortunately placed hit in the tenth inning won for Syracuse the game from Scranton. Lezotte's cannonading helped win the Wilkes-Barre victory. Providence and Buffalo equally divided ten errors, but the Gray's won a chance

MORE HARD LUCK.

Scranton Lost to Syracuse in the Tonth.

It Was an Evenly Balanced Game. Syracuse, N. Y., July 22.-Barnett and Johnson were both effective today but the former was the steadler of the two. It required ten innings for the Stars win the game, which was close and telting througout. A line hit by W. own grounds, Eagan over Stearns' head brought in the winning runs in the tenth inning. Attendance, 1,200. Score: SYRACUSE.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Baltimore and Pittsburg each won and ost a game yesterday, which pulls the former down below the Clevelands, who won from Washington; the difference between the two leaders' percentages is so slight, however, that they are practically tied, with Pittsburg and loston close enough to jump into first place almost in a day. Chicago lost to the Bridegrooms, and drops from sixth to eighth, next to New York. Judging from the splendid showing of the eastern clubs on the present trip a pronounced change may be expected, when New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Boston return for the series on their Pottsville, Pa., July 22.-The announce ment that the Reading base ball club had disbanded has had no damaging effect ipon the prospects of the continuance of case ball here for the balance of the seaon. The management here are confident hat the public will give base ball a good neasure of patronage in the future. Reading, however, has always been a good drawing card here.

AFTER SCRANTON PITCHERS. Rochester Directors Wanted Luby, but

Refused Delaney. nade an attempt on Friday to get Luby of the Scranton crowd. He has been watched with feverish eagerness and at last they thought that he was just about the man they were after. So while the game was in progress they got hold of Manager Barnie, and had a little private conversation with him on the subject. He shook his hed wisely and smiled in an exasperating manner But after a little thought he said he would consider the matter.

This was not definite enough to please the directors and they went away to think the matter over and came to the lecision that if they wanted Luby they must strike while they had the chance Buffalo, July 22.-Providence and or in other words while Scranton was in the city, for then they could bring many arguments to bear which could not be as easily presented in writing. They summoned Barnie and they laid the law down to him and after a little time spent in hurling reasons and wherefores and consequentlies at him intil the poor man was half paralyzed he said it might be arranged, but he would not dare do anything until he neard from the big people in Scranton. Barnle, in the meantime, wrote a telehem have Luby at the end of yesterday's game when the men came off the highly suspicious manner. Delaney had just been knocked out of the box and was helping to hold down the players' bench in silent grandeur. They did not want him. They tried the effect of casulatic and sophistical arguments but it did no good. Barnie was inexorable and the deal fell through,

WHIRLS OF THE WHEEL.

A 100-mile open road race will be held on September 21 under the auspices of the Century Cycle club of Newark. It will be over a 25-mile course through Elizabeth, Plainfield and Rahway.

It is almost an assuered fact that the springfield Bicycle club will have two professional races on each day of its September tournament, in which all the fast riders of that class will doubtless com-pete. For each of these a divided purse of $500 will probably be offered. In 1853 and 1894 the club purchased all of its prizes Rochester, N. Y., July 22.—The di-and 1894 the club purchased all of its prizes rectors of the Rochester base ball team but this year the local merchants and the cycle manufacturers are donating gener-ously. The Warwick Cycle company will give $300, to be applied to the purchase of a diamond to be offered as first prize for the big international race on the last day of the meet. The Overman Wheel panypany has promised $200 and the Union Cycle company $100.

Can a man ride a bleycle when intoxicated has become a court question. Some frisky clubs could testify that it is quite the custom on hilarious occasions. Cornell's unfortunate defeat at Henley has started the question, "Must the quick stroke go?" As Cornell holds the 3-mile world's record for eights it's going to take pretty strong argument to cause them to change their stroke. Several Yale athletic advisers assert that after the erratic performances of the Cornell crew in England no Yale-Cornell race will be arranged this year, as would probably have been the case had the Cor-nell men won a heat at Henley, A rapid flight of Scranton homing birds was made last week. Five birds from the loft of William Smith, of the North End, were released from the tower of the Philadelphia city hall at 2.45 o'clock in the afternoon and reached their loft in Scranton at 6 o'clock, the flight being made field. He said that the reason that he had not let them have him before was because he thought it would be so hard on the team to have an old comrade pitch against them.

The directors were happy and bought the cigars. But Barnie's despatch had caused a mild cyclone in Scranton, and there was hot haste to wire Barnie not to let Luby go but to give them Delianey. This came to Barnie in the filddle of the game yesterday and he showed it to the directors, who turned pale and made their lips move in a

TROUBLES OF A POUND MASTER

His Neighbors and the Small Boys of the Vicinity Make Life for Him Unendurable-Proceedings in Alderman John's Court-

IThe West Side interests of The Tribun have been placed in the hands of Emer-son Owen, to whom all news announce ments and complaints may be addressed.

Pound Master Jacob Mellick is a sufferer and finds little of comfort in this vale of tears. His hair is grey and deep wrinkles furrowing his sunburnt skin, add to the general swarthyness of his seeming. Some time ago Mellick consented to act as public pound keeper on this side. He built a twenty-foot enclosure on his lot on South Main avenue, and received a warrant from Mayor Connell as special policeman. Then the improvised pen became the jall of cows which Mellick had captured on the streets. The cows bellowed in the day and far into the night, making sleep impossible for the peaceful inhabitants of the locality. Hot times ensued. The neighbors were indignant and thus expressed themselves. Petty encounters followed, the mayor was solicited, but Mellick plodded on unscathed. The small boys also made trouble for him. Every cow he captured was released or taken from him. Each time Mellick was seen on the street with a captive bovine the animal was chased away by the urchins, despite the pound master's attempt to retain it. Mellick can't run, being too old, and the boys always conquered. This happened many times and last evening as Mellick was driving home a cow, the boys to the number of twenty attacked him and chased the animal to parts unknown Mellick was mad. He followed the lads for awhile, but gave up. Then he spled two innocent little fellows walking peacefully down the side walk, one of these he nabbed, exclaiming, "I want you!" He escorted the little fellow to the West Side station with his Li-year-old prisoner the sweat stood in drops on his temples. called for Alderman John. The latter came and a hearing was held. Mellick wanted to make an example of his captive, but judgment said nay. He ouldn't prove anything against the lad, and by the efforts of Constable Burchell and others the boy, whose name was Rolly Whiting, was released cows strawed into Roach's yard and ate the vegetables. Roach held the animals for damages. Mrs. Mulherin owns one of the cows, and she, with her boy went to the rescue. Roach threw the boy over the fence, whereupon Mrs. Mulherin heaved a cobble at that gentleman, the missle hitting him in the ribs. Rouch prosecuted for assault and yet retains the cows for damages to garden and fence. Mrs. Mulherin entered ball to appear at court.

Six

Connecticut. ALARMING DEATH RATES.

Fifty Deaths Reported During the Week Ended on Saturday. The highest death wate for any week n many years was that reported by he board of health yesterday for the eek ending Saturday, July 20. There were fifty-two deaths reported and seventy-five per cent. of them were of children below 2 years of age. The recent bot and sultry weather, so fatal to infants, is the cause of the big number of deaths. The fact that the average death rate of this city is twenty-six per week shows to what an alarming extent the deaths increased last week.

BOSTON DELEGATES.

They Reported at Puritan Congregations Church Last Evening.

Last evening the members of the Puritan church on Market street and a number of their friends listened to very interesting reports from several delegates to the National Christian Endeavor convention. At about o'clock John R. Davis was introduc and gave a history of the Christian Endeavor movement, After a song Charles E. Danleis, secretary of Tricounty union, gave an account of the meeetings he attended, particularly the early morning prayer meetings which onvened at 6:30.

Thomas Davis, brother of the firs speaker, gave a detailed account of the experiences of himself and colleague in Scranton, New York and Boston in a very unique manner. Mr. Davis was followed by Percy H. Henry, of Christian church, who spoke on the final consecration meeting, giving a graphic description of that impressiv occasion, which, he said, he would not forget if he lived to be a hundred years

At the close Mr. Daniels read th ong composed by Mr. Wooler, of Elm Park choir, "Scranton '96," after which the meeting dismissed at 9:30 with Christian Endeavor benediction.

Rev. W. H. Stubblebine, pastor of the Calvary Reformed church, on Gibson street, Scranton, occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church Sunday morn ing and gave a very eloquent and interesting address, which was enjoyed by all present.

L. I. Snyder, of Dudley street, is enjoying his vacation camping out at Miss Elsie Moore, of Georgetown, is the guest of her brother. Everitt Moore, of South Blakely street. The Sunday school of the Presbyter an church will be treated to a picnic in the near future. Miss Helen Frost, of Mauch Chunk has been spending some time visiting friends in this place and Scranton. Ernest Close, of Elm street, is at Crys tal Lake. Louis Christ, of Dudley street, has returned from a fishing trip to Monro The Americans of this place and the West Side Stars of Scranton will battle for supremacy on the diamond Wednesday afternoon on the No. 5 grounds At the regular session of the Young Men's Institute last evening, Ambros J. Byrne was elected representative to the grand council, which convenes in September at Indianapolis. Mr Byrne's election is a popular one, and the society is to be congratulated; especially so, as the representative-elecis the secretary, and has proved himsel a faithful and obliging officer, and to this must be credited his success of last evening, which comes to him as a fit ting reward for his services.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoris, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
