HASTINGS AT CAMP CURTIN

Arrived with Division Commander Snowden from Sanatoga.

BRIGADE IS VERY PROFICIENT

Drills Executed in an Exceptionally Fine Manner—No Sickness Among the Members of the Thirteenth—Matters Will Be the Officer of the Day.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Camp Curtin, Mt. Gretna, July 23.—The arduous duties of the camp were not so severely felt by the citizen soldiers today...

The ground was not so thronged with sightseers as usual, as it is expected by those that the exercises after the governor's arrival will be more interesting.

Shortly after 10 o'clock tonight the governor and commanding general arrived here with their staffs on a special train from Sanatoga park...

The governor and General Snowden were met on their arrival by General Gobin and his staff and a guard of honor. The governor was escorted to his quarters...

The brigades are obeyed with promptitude and an exactness that is commendable. Company F, being first, makes a good impression which is not dispelled by the other companies...

The newly elected officers of the regiment passed a successful examination today and were congratulated on their knowledge of the duties by the general, Lieutenant Jesup, Sergeant Cullen, Privates Young and Stout...

Only two Carbondaleans of the three-score German singers of that city and Sanatoga who on Monday left for the Allentown saengerfest, returned last night. The main party will probably reach home tonight or tomorrow morning.

Yesterday the Saengerbund of Scranton, and the Germania of Carbondale, participated with other societies in a chorus contest. The two Carbondaleans were of the opinion that Scranton would be given first prize in the first class and Carbondale first prize in the second class.

The show which fell in the vicinity of Mount Gretna resulted today in a delightful change in the weather, so that the field movements were carried out with much less physical discomfort than yesterday.

The inspection of the Third brigade will commence at 7 a. m. tomorrow and will occupy two days. The regiments will be inspected first, followed by the inspection of the governor's troop and Battery C.

An Artillery Drill. This morning at 6 o'clock the occupants of the cottages on the grounds of the Pennsylvania Chautauque were startled by heavy cannonading. It was an artillery drill, commenced by Battery C, the detachments of which stationed below Lake Conewago, were firing at a long range target located far out on a spur of "Governor Dick," the highest peak of the South Mountain.

The provost guard continues to visit Lebanon daily, as the National Guardsmen will watch their opportunity to jump on passing trains of cars and escape to the "Iron City." Severe punishment is meted out to all offenders. General Gobin is determined that the members of his command absent without leave.

Brigade Sergeant Major A. Wilson Norris reports the strength in the brigade to be 2,715, of whom 2,686 are present on duty and twenty-nine sick and absent.

SNOWDEN REAPPOINTED. Announcement Made by Governor Hastings at First Brigade Camp, Sanatoga.

Sanatoga, Pa., July 23.—Governor Hastings and Major General George R. Snowden have been here for the past two days inspecting the regiments of the First Brigade now in camp here.

It was announced today that General Snowden had reappointed General Snowden as commanding general of the Pennsylvania National guard. It is just five years ago that General Snowden was first appointed general of the guard by Governor Beaver.

General Snowden, showed at Home-stead during the strike of the Carnegie men the tact and firmness that are the essential qualifications of a leader of men, and the course he pursued there in dealing with the strikers probably averted a bloody conflict between the men and the troops.

Furniture Firm Assigns. Allentown, Pa., July 23.—Three executions aggregating $13,000 were entered this morning by William Roth (father of one of the firm) against Herkimb & Roth, furniture manufacturers.

WELCH'S VAIN VALOR.

Philadelphia Pigeon Shooter Cuts High Capers in Hissid Reading.

Reading, Pa., July 23.—Robert Welch, the crack Philadelphia pigeon shooter, held up two officers who attempted to arrest him last night and gave them a lively reception.

The officer returned to his room. After the warrant was read Welch suddenly drew a revolver and covered Clous. Detective Martz, who was in company with Clous, and who was waiting below, becoming anxious at Clous' long stay, went upstairs. When he entered Welch's room he was also covered. Finally Welch made a dash for the door, when, after a lively tussle, he was seized by the officers.

It was afterwards turned out that Philadelphia officers, who took him to that city on a late train. The charge was desertion and adultery, and was issued at the instance of his wife.

OUR GERMAN SINGERS.

Scranton and Carbondale Chorusmen Sang in the State Saengerfest at Allentown.

Allentown, Pa., July 23.—The Schliesinger Quartet club, of New York, one hundred strong, came in at noon today. The clubs which will take part in the state Saengerfest are now all here.

The prizes are seven silver cups in four classes. They will be awarded tomorrow afternoon.

The Saengerbund of Scranton; Fröschi, of Allentown; Harmonia, of Williamsport; and Harmonie Maennerchor of Reading; competed in the first class. The Concordia, of Easton; Germania, of Carbondale; Liederkreis, of Reading; and Concordia, of Hazleton, and Liederkreis, of Bethlehem, were formerly contestants in the second class.

TO BE TRIED IN TORONTO

Murderer Holmes Will Be Surrendered to the Canadian Authorities.

SENSATIONAL HINTS CURRENT

The Father of Mrs. Pictel Intimates That Lawyer Howe of St. Louis, Could Supply Missing Information.

Philadelphia, July 23.—District Attorney Graham has not as yet formulated a definite plan for the prosecution of H. H. Holmes, the life insurance conspirator and alleged multi-murderer, in this city or elsewhere.

It is at no remote date arraigned upon the charge of killing one or more of his alleged victims without doubt, and the only hitch in the prosecution is the uncertainty in determining whether he can be tried here or at Toronto or Chicago with the safest possibility of securing a conviction.

Today's developments indicate that Holmes will not be turned over to the Chicago authorities on the charges of killing the Williams and Connor women, but that the case, as viewed from its present aspect, is now safe in the hands of the legal authorities of Canada, and that it is far to resume that his conviction there can be secured.

Lawyer Thomas Fahey, who represents the interests of Mrs. Pictel in this city, today received a letter from the father of his alleged victim, Mr. George Pictel, stating that there are others in connection with the mysterious case who should be arrested.

He stated that he thought all the conspirators were not yet known, and hints that Lawyer Howe, of St. Louis, played a more important part in the affair than has yet been suspected.

Detective Geyer Talks. Detroit, Mich., July 23.—Detective Geyer, of Philadelphia, gave up his search for the missing Howard Pictel in Detroit, Mich., before leaving for Indianapolis, he said he had found no positive evidence that Howard Pictel ever came to Detroit.

"There is one thing certain," said Mr. Geyer. "If Howard Pictel ever came to Detroit, he would have been seen at the Forest avenue house, and the indestructible portions of his clothing would have been carried away by Holmes."

More of Holmes' Talk. Philadelphia, July 23.—It is learned on good authority that Holmes has admitted 2,000 enthusiastic people attending a public trial in Chicago, which was held by a criminal operation performed upon her in Chicago. Beyond the manner of the woman's death none of the details could be learned.

Chicago, July 23.—Our laborers dug all day today in the cellar of the house formerly occupied by H. H. Holmes, at Sixty-third and Wallace streets, and found little encouragement for their toil. A catwalk found today had some dislocation on it which may be blood, but which looks like those which would be made by a piece of rusty iron.

MURDEROUS MAFIA AGAIN.

The Killing of an Italian and His Wife Causes Louisiana Italians to Believe the Deadly Society Has Resumed Operations.

New Orleans, July 23.—Two more horrible crimes were perpetrated by a Mafia in the parish of St. James, and near the home of a family of a family by a stillian named Naska. The latest victims were an Italian and his wife named Rogaro, and the murderer is supposed to be another Italian.

The highway. The negro was found by three shots fired, and, hurrying forward found the woman lying dead, filled with buckshot. The murderer must have been close to her, for her dress and the woman lay there, and stains on the ground for some distance to where the body of a dead man was found with a ghastly buckshot wound in his back. His shirt was also burned with powder.

The cause of the crime was evidently not for robbery, for the bodies were undisturbed and money was found on both of them. The woman was about to become a mother. It is believed that the orders were the work of the Mafia.

MINE WORKERS' DEMANDS.

Resolutions Passed at the Convention in Wilkes-Barre Yesterday.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 23.—The Independent Union of Mine Workers of America passed the following resolutions at a convention:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the conditions of coal should be advanced to such a figure as to give the miner a fair remuneration.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to investigate the conditions of the coal trade with a view to the securing of at least a committee of three from each mine inspector's district to be sent to New York at the next coal sales agents' meeting to ask for an advance.

Every coal company and operator received a copy of the resolutions today. When interviewed as to what their action would be, nearly all of them said that the conditions of the coal trade would not warrant an increase of wages, and that they would not attend such a conference as proposed.

HASTINGS IS CHOSEN.

Center County Republican Convention Elects the Governor a Delegate.

Bellefonte, Pa., July 23.—Governor Hastings was today elected a delegate to the Republican county convention, at the Center county Republican convention today the vote for delegates to this state convention resulted in 108 votes being cast for Hastings and Benning and 12 votes for Dale and Gray, the Quay candidates.

The vote was afterwards made unanimous on motion of one of the Quay delegates.

Wants to Get Sentiment of Voters. Washington, Pa., July 23.—Senator Quay has written to J. M. Dumm, chairman of the Republican county committee, asking him to submit to the suffrage of the people at the primaries Aug. 4, the question of a preference for state chairman, so that the delegates from the county to the state convention may know how to vote.

PURSE FOR KATE CHASE.

Working Men Contribute Enough to Maintain Her in Comfort.

New York, July 23.—The wealthy friends of Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague have come to her rescue and have raised a sum sufficient to maintain her in comfort for the rest of her life. It is understood that the amount subscribed is $50,000, to which Senator Bruce, John W. Wadsworth and C. S. Corcoran contributed $5,000 apiece.

The other contributors are prominent Republicans in this city, Washington, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Providence, and the exception of William C. Whitney, whose contribution is said to be the largest of all.

IDENTIFIED HER ASSAILANT.

William Brennan is Held in Philadelphia on a Serious Charge.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 23.—William Brennan, alias "Reddy Larkin," was today identified by Miss Davis as the burglar who was recently arrested here while robbing her parents' cottage at Atlantic City.

The young girl's life was despaired of for several days.

HERE IS A QUEER CHARGE.

Senator Quay, Who Sent Money Into Lackawanna County, Complains That the Bad Hastings People Are Using Cash.

Pittsburg, July 23.—The Leader today publishes a story as follows, in part: Harry H. Robinson, of Salisbury, Indiana, county, and Steele G. Hartman, of Indiana, delegates to the state Republican convention, were in Pittsburg today and placed in the hands of the friends of Senator Quay, evidence showing that an attempt is being made by the Hastings people to get money in the form of a check or note payable to the name of W. C. McKinley, an employee in the Allegheny county sheriff's office, and Hon. William Finin, are used in connection with the Hastings campaign.

Said that this was not the only evidence of work of this kind that he had information of. He declares that the same style of canvassing is being used in every county in the state where it can be, and that boodle is very plenty.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Miss Alice Frazer, of Albion, Meets Death at the Hands of a Little Boy.

Albion, Ind., July 23.—Miss Alice Frazer, aged 18, lost her life through the careless handling of a large gun in the hands of a five-year-old boy, Nataniel Bidwell, at whose home she was visiting.

The boy pointed the gun at her with the remark: "I'll shoot you," when the gun was discharged, the ball entering at the forehead and penetrating her brain. She died a few minutes afterward without regaining consciousness.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCES.

Duluth, July 23.—Two mysterious disappearances are bothering the police. One of the men is Matt Hanson, a conductor on the Iron Range railroad, who was last seen in a demented condition at the Soo some days ago.

The other man is Daniel Palmer, brother-in-law of ex-Mayor Stuphin, and he is believed to have been kidnapped by a stillian named Naska. The latest victims were an Italian and his wife named Rogaro, and the murderer is supposed to be another Italian.

Hostile Banock Indians Are Getting Ready for a Big Fight.

MASSACRE OF WHITES FEARED

The Shooting of Sixteen Red-Skin Prisoners by a Band of Palefaces is What Has Caused the Present Serious Uprising.

Salt Lake, July 23.—Advice from Jackson's Hole indicate that the position of the settlers is becoming very critical, and unless the troops get there quickly it is probable that a general massacre of whites will take place. A party of men left Jackson Hole for Hoback canyon to arrest Indians for the killing of cows and otherwise breaking the game laws. They took seventeen Indians prisoners and on the way back the reds attempted to escape and a fight ensued, in which all the Indians were killed but one papoose. Several of the whites were severely wounded, but none will die.

The Banock Indian warriors are assembled in force on the Hoback river and are sending away their squaws and children, which indicates that they mean to fight. The Indians are greatly incensed at the killing of the prisoners, and the situation is so critical that a general rising may occur any moment. The Banocks are said to be 400 strong. The cavalry troops are pushing to the scene of hostilities with all possible speed. Meantime the settlers are entrenched and awaiting an attack by the Indians.

RESTORED BY MESMERISM.

West Virginia Miner Regains His Eyesight After Having Been Blind for Nearly Four Years.

Charleston, W. Va., July 23.—A most remarkable case is reported from Mont-gomery, Fayette county, the heart of the Kanawha coal region. About four years ago John Canney, a miner, was stricken blind while at his work in the mines. The eyes gave no indication of weakness. They retained their brightness, and the muscles showed no sign of paralysis or weakness. Several specialists of more or less prominence were consulted, but none of them could do anything for the sightless eyes.

Among Canney's friends who frequently called upon him and talked and read to him was Mayor J. C. Montgomery. Montgomery had in his early days seen several tests of the power of mesmerism, and for the amusement of private companies had attempted to conduct the mesmeric force upon willing subjects. Some of these efforts had been more or less successful, but Mr. Montgomery had never made particular efforts to test his power. A few weeks ago he told Canney's wife that he believed Canney would be restored to sight through some mental cure, and not through any physical disability.

The Test is Successful. It was decided that Mr. Montgomery should employ whatever power he had toward helping the victim to see. Accordingly Montgomery called on Canney's house unknown to him, and seated in a room alone. Presently Canney, as Montgomery and his wife desired, walked into the room and lay down on a couch to take his nap. Montgomery contacted his vision on Canney's sightless eyes. He then concentrated his entire force of will upon a desire that Canney should see. Presently the latter called to his wife and declared that there was some one in the room. She said no, whereupon Canney, who is a mild-mannered man, flatly contradicted her and accused her of trying to deceive him. He was assured by others of the family that he had been alone, but he would not believe them. All this time Montgomery had been keeping his attention on his subject, not allowing the discussion to distract him.

Presently Canney flew into a passion, and declared he would be willing to blow his brains out if he could be permitted to see for one second and know his family were deceiving him. Almost at the same instant he shrieked: "You've lied to me; there's Montgomery!" The vision had come and he saw all in the room, and was able to describe their positions and clothing.

Although he could not see again after the first flash, he felt more at ease, and agreed with Montgomery to continue the test immediately. Every day Montgomery came to the house and they spent the time trying to restore Canney's vision. Canney entered into the spirit of it and placed himself as nearly as possible under Montgomery's control. Their work was continued in a small way at first, and improved from day to day, till after two weeks Canney was able to see a little, even when Montgomery was absent. The visits were continued regularly till yesterday Canney declared he could see as well as ever.

WEATHER REPORT.

For eastern Pennsylvania, fair; slightly cooler; northwesterly winds.

Herald's Forecasts. New York, July 24.—In the middle states and New England today, fair, slightly warmer weather and from north to westerly winds will prevail. On Thursday, in both these sections, warmer, fair weather will prevail, with such and light variable winds, becoming mostly southerly, and on Friday fair, warmer weather, with local thunder storms in the districts west of the Blue Ridge.

TO CONSULT THE SPIRITS.

Elwood Merchant Seeks to Unravel the Mystery of James Myers' Death.

Anderson, Ind., July 23.—Joseph Minnick, a merchant at Elwood, has gone to the Indian spiritists' camp east of this city to remain until he gets a clew as to whether James Myers, of Gem, is dead or not. He believes in spiritualism, and is confident that he can secure a clew to the missing man if he is dead.

Myers was insured for $5,500, payable to Dr. Cox, of Elwood, and was taken ill three days later. Dr. Cox was called. It is claimed that Myers was poisoned by Cox, who later went away. An effort was made to collect the insurance. It happened that the Forresters require their representative to see the corpse before the policy is paid. He had the coffin unheated. On the inside nothing was found but some fillings to give weight. It is supposed that the body was taken out during the long ride across the country to the family cemetery. Minnick is confident that he will succeed in learning from the spirits if the man is really dead.
