By A. T. QUILLER COUCH.

[Copyright 1893 by Ireing Bacheller.]

Some three months after this, and on | two brace of woodcock. an exceptionally fine morning in September. Master Simon put Harmony.

making fast to the ferry steps, when a
making fast to the ferry steps, when a this celebrated traveling hen, into her thought struck him. He shipped the traveling hamper, and marched over to paddles again and pulled down to Pon-the cross-roads to take coach for Illogan, in the mining district where the and already a young moon glimmered natches for the championship cup were on the floods. to be flown that year.

Now Ann the cook had ventured no less than five pounds upon Harmony. annual wage, and a trifle less than half her annual saving. Therefore she spent the greater part of the following afternoon at her window, gazing westward in no smaall perturbation of spirit.

it wanted a few minutes to five when a carrier pigeon came traveling across dence, rubbing a lump of sugar gently on the lemon rind. and alighted on the roof. Ann climbed Eyes Opened Wide When They Fell on the Handwriting.

to the trap-door and put out a hand. The bird was preening his feathers, and allowed himself to be taken easily. circumstances less agitating Ann had not failed to observe that the thread about the messenger's wing was not of the kind that Master Simon used. But her eyes opened wide as they fell on the handwriting, and still wider as she

"It is all for the best, perhaps. If

A second messenger arrived toward evening with word of Harmony's suc- moonlight. But the news hardly relaxed Ann's brow, which kept a pensive conraction even when master arrived next evening, and poured out her winings on the table from the sliver challenge cup.

She were this frown at intervals for fortnight, and all the while mainained an unusual silence which puzzled faster Simon. Then one morning he eard her in the kitchen scolding the ap-boy with all her pristine heartiness. hat night, after mulling her master's she turned at the door, saucepan in that she knew. end coughed to attract attention.

'You've been philanderin' "

"Hey! pon my word. Ann--" Ann produced the Widow Waddilove's painfully.
"Are you going to marry the woman?"

Ann demanded.
"I think not."
"I reckon you will."
"Well, you see, there has been a hitch.

"That's all rise pecause I've gone and promised myself to a young farmer to the valley."

"I shan't tell you; for the reason that I've a second to fall back on, if I find on acquaintance the first won't do. But first or second, I'll marry one or t'other at the month end, and so I give you Master Simon sighed. "Well, well! I must get out as best I can with Tom for a while." Tom was the tap-boy. "Tom's going too. I bullied him so this norning that he means to give notice torrow; that is if he don't save himself the trouble of running off to sea." "The twelfth in five years!" ejaculated Master Simon, stopping his pipe vic-"And small blame to them. Married man or mariner—that's what a boy is born for. Better dare wreck or wedock than sit here and talk about both. Take my advice, master, and marry Ann carried out her own matrimonial program, at any rate, with spirit and letermination. Finding the first young You're a Very Obstinate Woman."

out Flowing Source. And Tom the boy fulfilled her prophecy and ran y to sea. And the old inn leaned ntil its timbers creaked.

directed street improvements, etc.
About once a year the meeting ordered an election, and whoever was chosen mayor was called mayor, but more by the way of a joke than seriously. One of the depositions said that matters were run by a "lot of people" and money was disbursed for things that had to be done and should be paid for.
There was seldom a question put to yote, and so one could remember bottoms had the luck to knock over

He rode back with his spoll, and was

The woodcock was cooked to a turn; jucier birds never reclined on toast. The waitress removed the cloth and re turned with a kettle; retired and returned again with a short-necked bottle, a glass and spoon, sugar, nut-:neg. and a lemon; retired with a twinkle in her eye.

"To fortify you," said Mistress Pru

"The night air," Master Simon mur-

"Against the damp house you're going back to," the lady corrected. "You talk without giving it a trial." "As you talk, in your parlor, of deep-

"As a ship's captain you would re-The root of the Greek is Sanskrit, and spect me, perhaps?" "No, for you haven't the head. But means simply to speak. The antiphon I should like your pluck. If I saw you setting off for sca in earnest,I would and Christian, and is to be found today run out and give you a chance to steer a woman instead of a ship. You would find her safer." Master Simon emptied his glass, rose, and wound his great comforter about his neck. The widow saw him to the back of a strong tide, and Master Simon arched his shoulders against it. "Married man or mariner," it piped, as he rounded the first bend.

"You're a very obstinate woman," he And with this he unmoored his boat and rowed resolutely homeward.

strong wind came piping down on the Master Simon pulled his left paddle hard and rounded the bend. "Married man or mar-"

Crash! His heels flew up and his head struck the bottom boards. Then, in a moment, the boat was gone, and a rush of water sang in his ears and choked him. He saw a black shadow overhanging, and clutched at it.

Mistress Prudence stood in her doorway on the quay, as Master Simon had only people have not begun to talk .- left her. In the room above, the waitress blew out her candle, drew up the blind and opened her window to the "Selina!" the mistress called.

Selina thrust out her head. "What's that coming down the river?" A black, amorphous mass was moving swiftly down toward the quay. "I think 'tis a haystack," Selina whisnered, and then, "Lord save us all, there's a man on it!"

"A man?" cried the widow, shrilly. "What man?" A voice answered the question, calling for help out of the river-a voice

"What is it?" she called back. "I think," quavered Master Simon, "I think 'tis the roof o' Flowing

Mistress Prudence ran down the quay note and flattened it out under Master steps, cast off the first boat that lay doubt that the germ of all national handy and pulled toward the dark mass | songs is to be found far back amon sweeping seaward. As it crossed ahead folk melodies anterior to the time when of her bows, she dropped the paddles ran to the painter, and flung it forward with all her might. The Pandora's Box Inn stands on English. Its first adaptation to words that is left of Flowing Source hangs on is obscure. The air itself was known Fig. 10 won't leave the Pandora's Box, and the wall of the best parlor—four dark as a folk song among various peoples. Fig. 10 mot going to budge from the Flow-oak timbers forming a frame around a It is the Danish netional air, it is the source. If a woman won't put her- portrait, the portrait of a women of Prussian national air and it is the Gercooks no bett so well.

Besides, middle age and comfortable countenance. In the right-hand top corner of ance. In the right-hand top corner of the pleture, in letters of faded gold, the pleture, in letters of faded gold, the pleture. ly brazen! Well, runs the legend: Uxor bona instar uth. I wasn't."

AUDIENCE HAD TO BE NICE. Actor Frawley Reintes an Incident in Ilis Experience.

Dale! Frawley, once a newspaper man, now an actor, tells the San Zan Francisco Call: At one little place called West Union, in Iowa, we had the oddest experience I ever yet met with. We Mayed in a half thirty feet under ground that had formerly been two saloons, and the stage being composed of two dining tables. Though the theatre was packed with people, we might have bee playing to wax figures for all the interest they exhibited in the play. There was not one laugh or sign of aplause from beginning to end of the performance. We noticed a man going up and down the aisles but did not pay much attention to him until he became behind the scenes after show and was introduced as the proprietor of theater-the ex-saloon keeper. "Pretty nice lot of an audience," he remarked to me, with the pride of own-

"Yes, quite a lady-like one," I answered, "very gentle and timid." "They've got to be. I walk up and down the aisles with a club, and if I er anyone making a noise, I throw

And that accounted for the silence The people stood in such awe of the sacon-keeper that they did not dare to

TOWN WITH NO GOVERNMENT.

Queer State of Affairs at Humboldt, Kan. Appears in Litigation. In the United States circuit court of ppeals, at St. Louis last Saturday, was filed the transcript of the record in the ease of Peter A. H. Jackson vs. the city of Humboldt, Kan. Jackson sued the city on bonds aggregating $86,500, and the city filed a plea to the jurisdiction on the ground that the officers of the city had not been summoned. The record, says the Globe-Democrat, dis-closes a story of a town without officers and without government except such as the citizens voluntarily furnished. Some fifteen years ago, for reasons that do not appear, there was a partial disorganization or discontinuance of the city government, and for twelve or fifteen years the town was run by citizens, who got together whenever occarion demanded and did what appeared should be done—levied taxes, directed street improvements, etc.

to the old Gaelic, Scotch, or Irish "Ellen Aroon"—a ballad, "Franklin Is Fled Away," first printed in 1669, showing ment; some one would say it was time to go and they all got up and went. Service was had on McElroy, who was this relationship. We have, therefore, as much right as "mayor" in 1894, and on the city officers of that year, out McElroy denied hav-Saxon, Norman or Dane to avail of that ing ever been mayor of the city, and which comes down the centuries, a the others swore that they had never common heritage of mankind. That a melody is English and that we should Upon a trial of the question of sernot sing it with a sense of nationalizavice a large amount of testimony was tion by ourselves is a mere superstition taken, involving the way the town was The air of "The Star-Spangled Banner" run; and the Kansas federal court held is admitted to be that previously adaptthat McElroy was a good enough mayor ed to "Adams and Liberty." for service, and the service on the by Samuel Arnold, of Oxford, it was others was good; and then the case baptized at the revolutionary font by went to trial and there was judgment Robert Treat Paine, jr., son of a signer for the plaintiff against the city for erday transcript in the case of Quincy

. Shaw versus Murry M. Kellogg.

from Colorado. It was a suit for the possession of a mining claim located by the defendants under the act of 1860.

allowing the selection of lands no nineral, and the question was whether the lands were mineral or not. Judge

Hallett rendered judgment for the de

OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM.

Here Is an Authority Which Contends

That the Star-Spangled Banner Fills the

What is an anthem? Strictly speaking, it is a composition in prose or verse al form of the anthem is both Greek in the ritual of every church which makes music part of its worship. This meaning of the word, it is agreed by the highest authorities, has disappeared.

composition or sacred motet usually set to verses of the psalms or other por neither the first nor the second sense is it applicable to a secular poem, set to music intended to express or symbolize love of country. Anthem, says the ford), is an inappropriate title for na-

The validity of a national anthen

It makes little difference how nove meanings come into universal speech closed on mere verbal archaeology. A this sense "The Star-Spangled Banner"

France, and "God Save the Queen" that of England. It is true that "America," the words of which were written by an American, Samuel Francis Smith, is to the tune of "God Save the Queen." That anthem is not, how-cause the government of the United States has officially recognized "The Star-Spangled Banner," and also "Hall

Columbia," which was originally General Washington's march, the music being by a German named Phyla, or Fayles, leader of the orchestra for the old John street theater in New York.

The melody was first played, so far as is known, on the occasion of Washing

Do Not Need a New One.

nationalities in the present sense existed. The air of "America" and o

"God Save the King" or Queen, is not

In the house?

Why, the wise mother. Because, who taken internally it cures in a few minute Cramps, Spasms, Sour Stomach, Heartbur Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Sick Headach Diarrhoza, Dysentery, Summer Complain Colic, Flatulency and all internal pains.

DOSE—Half a teaspoonful in half a tumbic

Used externally, it will cure Rheumatism Neuralgia, Mosquito Bites, Stings of Insect Sunburns, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Cough Colds and all throat troubles.

Radway's Ready Rellef, aided by Radway's Pills, will cure Fever and Ague; Malarious, Bilious and other Fevers.

BADWAY & CO., New York.

RADWAY'S

PILLS.

Furely vegetable, mild and reliable. Camperf-ct digestion, complete assimilation at neathful regularity. Cure constipation at its long list of unpleasant symptoms and rejuvenate the system. 25 cents a box. All drugists.

で REVIVO RESTORES VITALITY

Fifty Cents a Bettle.

WHO

IS

There appears to be no good reason to ton's first visit to that playbouse.

ever, strictly speaking, national, be fendant and the plaintiff appealed.

$81,438. The city appealed.
There was also filed in this court yes of the Declaration of Independence. The music of national anthems being common appropriation, the test of nationalism lies in the words and the circumstances of the marriage of the melody and the poem. Thus tested, no question whatever can arise concerning "The Star-Spangled Panner," "Hall, Columbia," or "My Country 'Tis of Thee," To raise the question is, on the side of language, mere pedantry, and on the side of music unfamiliarity with the ethics of adoption.

There is no reason in history or sentiment why the American people shall not pay to any one of these the deference which every other nation having what is conventionally called a national anthem renders to its own. That is to say, when any one of these three airs is played in the open it should be received sung antiphonally-that is, by two with applause and cheers. When sung voices or choirs respectively. The word comes from the Greek, antiphona standing and be participated in with en-(anti, over against, and phone, voice). thuslasm and love.

THE JUDGE'S SOLILOOUY.

(Picked up on the bench at Bloomsbu ounty court after Judge Bacon had mistaken a "New Woman" for a man.) "Is this a woman that I see before me In yonder gallery? Come, quickly tell me! highest authorities, has disappeared. I doubt my eyes; and yet I see a form
Its second significance is a musical Capp'd, collar'd, fronted, neck-tied like a

A form, methinks that wears a reefer tions of the scriptures and sung as an jacket. And, possibly-but no! I'll not go on integral part of public worship. In Is this same creature as insensil To feeling as to taste? or is it but

A phantom of my mind, a false creation Proceeding from a 'Yellow-Aster'd brain? I see it still, and in a shape so palpable new "English Dictionary on Historical I fear it is as true as it is 'new Principles" (Philological society, Ox- And yet if 'tis a woman that I see tional arthem. "It has, however, now What has unsexed her? what has made been so generally adopted that it would be pedantic not to use it." Her lord an master, man, before high need not be sought behind the word. I see her still-oh! 'tis a woman, eh?-

Then seize her, usher!-nay, I'll not com mit her, Once they are universal the door is What need of that? for she commits her But, in the name of outraged sense, re national anthem is that combination of move her, Not for contempt of court, but for a crime melody and words which is identified with a nation in an exclusive sense. In Far worse-contempt of her own woman hood!" -London Truth. is the American national anthem, in the same seese the "Marseillaise" is of Senators.

From the Detroit Tribune. "Senators' terms are fixed by law, are they not?"
"Oh, no. Legislatures are free to get whatever there is in it." HER ANSWER.

I think you might try to guess; It is awfully hard to tell you no, But I simply can't say yes. I'm fond of you-that I will confess And I've let my feelings show

Until you fancy it must be yes,

MEDALA

And you won't conceive of no

Oh, don't be angry, sweetheart! Don't go If I haven't quite said yes I haven't—now have I?—quite said no. I haven't—now have I?—quite said no. Oh—I think you might try to guess.

NEW POINT IN TRAVEL.

ns Refuse to Pay Extra for Seats in Parlor Cars.

A party of well-known men retur ing from the Newport session brought out a point in milroad travel the other day, says the Boston Herald. There were twelve in all, and they included Scentor Woods, of Providence; Senator Easton, of Pawtucket; ex-Senator Augustus S. Miller, General John M. Brennan, Attorney Isaac H. Southwick, jr., and clerks of the house and secure. They reached Wickford Junetion and walted for the Providence train. When it arrived there was but a single passenger coach outside the parlor cars.

Into this car they crowded with grips acal valises, and found the seats all taken and women standing. The delegation got to the rear of the dar, says the Providence Journal, and looked toward the drawing room car and its easy seats. Almost all the party were members of the bar, and somebody recollected a recent case wherein the court had decided that the purchaser of a railroad ticket was entitled to a

Whereupon the entire party filed into the drawing room car and picked out ome choice resting places. Eventually the parlor car conductor came along and accosted Mr. Southwick. The attorney handed out a little blue ticket which was good for one passage from Newport to Providence. The conductor said he wanted either a drawing room in an inclosure it should be listened to car ticket or 50 cents. The rest of the standing and be participated in with enwould be a fit subject for a test case, and they all made solemn affirmation that if he was arrested they would go out to the jail now and then to see him. Backed up by this consolation, the attorney said he had no drawing room car ticket and he wouldn't give up 50

> The conductor made a mental note of it and looked severe. Then he tackled Mr. Miller and was shown the ordinary thue traveling ticket. He made another mental note and was informed that the travelers were not inclined to place any blame on him for the condiion. He passed along and every man held up the blue piece of paper. The conductor went and conferred with the conductor of the train. Then the lat-

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SWEET CAPORAL

CICARETTE

MORE SOLD THAN ALL OTHER BRANDS COMBINED

FLOUR ...

ter came in and gathered up all the

The twelve men enjoyed the ride to ce, and there was no squad of officers to meet them upon their ar-rival. One clerk of the house who was on the train with a lady gave up $1 to the parlor car conductor upon demand. When he saw the action of the others he asked the man to uniform to return him $1. That official smiled and went on punching tickets.

WASN'T INTERRUPTED AGAIN.

The minister of a congregation in an ag-The minister of a congregation in an agricultural district was greatly annoyed Sunday after Sunday by the unruly conduct of the junior members of his flock. When any one of the younger representatives of the gentler sex got weary of the evening service she would invariably rise and go out. A moment later her admirer would seize his hat and sheepishly follow her. To such an extent would this course of action prevail that by the time the discourse was finished only the old people course was finished only the old people remained for the conclusion of the ser-vice. Mr. Jones concealed his chagrin for several weeks, but at last he firmly re-solved to act. A youth grew drowsy one Sunday evening, and, picking up his hat, stepped into the aisle. But the minister's seen eye was upon him, and, to the culprit's dismay, he stopped short in his ser-

"Young man," said he, "the girl who went out last is not the one you wish to walk home with. When she goes I will let you know at once. Please sit down. After this when a young woman goes out will call on the proper young man to The minister resumed his discourse

There was much tittering and consider errupted again .- Hartford Times.

Sho Was Frank. From Illustrated Fashion Review. She-Yes, I am very fond of pets. He-Indeed. What, may I ask, is your favorite animal? She (frankly)-Man.

"Off." "And now how will you have your hair ut?" said the voluble barber.
"Off," answered the angry customer. And the barber cut on.-Boston Com-

French Injection Compound

Curren positively, quickly, (not merely checks.) Guaranteed or money refunded. Avoid dangerous remedies. Price 50 cents per bottle, Sur Booties (will cure severest case) sent prepaid, secure from observation, with only scientifically made syringe, to any address for $3.69. CHENO MEDICAL CO.

CURES THE TOBACCO HABIT IN 4 TO 10 DAYS OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Use All the Tobacco You Want Till Your "Craving" Is Gone.

NARCOTI-CURE is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system tn from four to ten day. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from any injurious NARCOTI-CURE is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

NARCOTI-CURE is sold at the uniform price of $5.00 & bottle and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

PROF. W. N. WAITE, Of Amherst, Mass., Chewed Tobacco for 46 years, and Was Cured by Narcott-Cure.

AMBERST, Mass., Feb. 8, 1895.

Cure.

AMBERST. MASS., Feb. 8, 1835.

THE NARCOTI UNEMICAL Co.

Springfield, Mass.

Gentlemen:—Replying to yours of the lat, would say that I have used tobacco for if years, and of late have consumed a locent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was it years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took Narcoti-Curs. aithough I have tried ether so-called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days all "hankering" for chowing disappeared, and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further defire for the weed, and experienced he had effects, whatever. I am waining in fiesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say, use Narcoti-Curs.

Yours truly.

W. N. WAITE.

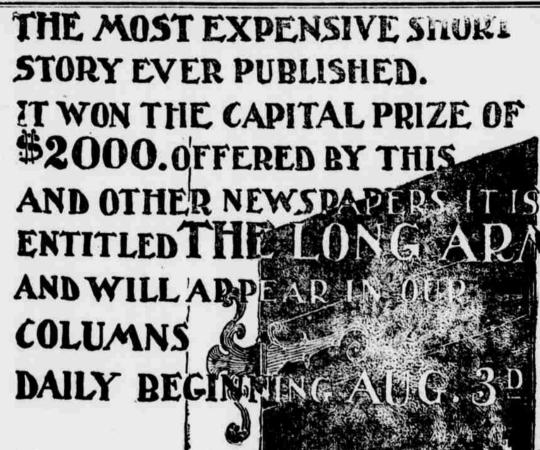

If your druggist is unable to give you full particulars about NARCOTI-CURE, send to us for Book of Particulars free, or send $5.00 for a bottle by mail.

THE NARCOTI CHEMICAL CO.,

Springfield, Mass.

Griginal and Only Genuine. Bare, always reliable, Ladies and Gold genuine. Brugglet for Chichaster's Empised Discher Service on the restrictions and initiations. As Draggist, or sound declarations and initiations. As Draggist, or sound declarations in stangerous substitutes to the restriction of the restrictions. As Draggist, or sound declarations in the restriction of the restrictions and initiations. As Draggist, or sound declaration in the restriction of the r OAK BILL STUFF.

TELEPHONE 422

THIS DOOD PENS

THIS REMARKABLE STORY WRITTEN DY-MISS MARY WILKINS THE FOREMOST AMERICAN NOVELIST, IN COLLABORATION WITH MR, JOSEPH E. CHAMBERLIN OF BOSTON.

of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding. This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands. Wholesale Agents.

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many patrons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop

IRON AND STEEL

Bolts, Nuts, Bolt Ends, Turnbuckles, Washers, Rivets, Horse Nails, Files, Taps, Dies, Tools and Supplies. Sail Duck for mine use in stock.

SOFT - STEEL - HORSE - SHOES, And a full stock of Wagon Makers' Supplies, Wheels,

Hubs, Rims, Spokes, Shafts, Poles, Bows, etc, Well Mar SCRANTON, PA

