For first prize were entered: Harmonica, of Williameport; Saengerrunde, of Scranton; Harmonica, of Reading; the Frohston, of Altoona. and about a dozen other choral socie ties. The ones named won the prizes in the order given. The prizes consisted of medals, silver cups and trophies. The Carbondale Germania won third prize in the second class. The members of the Saengerrunde speak in glowing terms of the saengerfest, and feel highly elated at being one-half per cent, behind the Harmonica society of Williamsport, which won first prize. The Suengerrunde splendidly and feel satisfied that their efforts were appreciated.

Picule and Parade of Societies.

Allentown, Pa., July 24.—Although this was another day of festivity, the German singing zocieties began to leave for home this morning. The socleties that remained paraded at noon and marched to the fair grounds, where a jolly pionic was held, winding up tonight with a display of fireworks.

It was decided to call a meeting next year to decide upon the time and place for holding the next fest. This aftermoon Judges Carl Sarman, of Philadelphia; Wilhelm Mottfeld, of Brooklyn, and Carl Heyn, of New York, In nounced the percentages of the con terts as follows:

Members of the first class, Harmoni ca, of Williamsport, 58; Saengerrunde, of Scranton, 57%; Harmonica, of Reading. 52%; Frohsinn, of Altoona, 43. Members of the second class: Llederkrans, of Reading, 67; Concordia, of Hazleton, 64; Germania, of Carbondale, 5514; Concordia, of Easton, 4814; Bee oven, of Bethlehem (not competing) 64%. Non-members of the second class: Pfaelzer, of Philadelphia, 71; Frank Harth Quartette club, of Brooklyn, 69.

at his death. In his will Carey did not fail to romember his generous friend, and bequeathed him $50,000, in case he died, the money to go to Dr. Leete's heirs or assigns forever. Mrs. Baldwin did not rend through the horoscope of the past that Carey became a millionaire, or in fact a rich man at all, but she simply spun that part herself. By her power, ac-cording to this hypothesis, the letter was written and it reached Dr. Leete, only to work to his disappointment. Patrick H. McGeever, detective of Carbondale, yesterday asked the court to strike off the forfeited recognizance in the case of the commonwealth against John Chester Peck.
