WHEN WILL THIS STOP

Common Council's Ludicrous Wrestling Match Still On. Mr. Oliver Tries to Take a Fall Out of It, But He Receives Poor Encouragement. Even the Innocent Ordinance Files Plays Tricks on Them.

THE BRIDGE STILL ON TOP

Joseph Oliver last night in common council began the work of resuscitating the old Lackawanna avenue viaduct ordinance, which proposes a viaduct which will not occupy the entire street, but simply make a sort of bridge which steamers and pedestrians may optionally cross.

CRACKING AND SETTLING

Work Had to Be Suspended in Mine on Account of Caving. HUNDREDS OF TONS CAME DOWN Males Taken Out of the Central Mine. Three Yells Are Included in the Squeezes, Which Covers an Area of About Twenty Acres.

WHY

The Scranton Cash Store is the best place in Scranton to buy Groceries: They sell only strictly first-class goods. They sell at lower rates than any house in the valley.

WHY

They have no rent to pay; buy for cash; sell for cash; have no bad debts; and no traveling agents; do business on an economical basis and give the customer the benefit.

REED'S STRANGE DEATH.

Found in the Road Leading to Schultzville with a Bullet Wound in His Body. Lying unconscious by the road leading from this city to Schultzville, and at a point about two miles this side of the Hillside home, Ezra Reed, a young man, was discovered yesterday afternoon dark Wednesday night. A large quantity of blood had oozed from a bullet hole in his body, and a few feet from him was a thirty-eight calibre live-shooter revolver, with but one chamber empty. He died yesterday afternoon at the Lackawanna hospital.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Charles Packard Struck on the Head by a Bundle of Shingles. Charles Packard met with a serious accident at the new Episcopal rectory at Dunmore yesterday morning. He was working on a scaffolding about twenty feet from the ground, when a bunch of shingles became loosened from the roof and struck him in the back, and will have little trouble in the future. We expect to have the mines open by Monday for work. Damage to the mine is very light. On the outside, of course, we are unacquainted with the extent of the damage. We hope there will be no more damage.
