Meaney was an easy mark for Buffalo's heavy hitters yesterday and Scranton was beaten from the beginning. The hits they secured off McGinnis were few and far between. Rochester and Springfield split even, and only for the or work of Pitcher Mark, Rochester might have captured both games. The youthful "Canuck," Robertson, replaced the big ex-National leaguer and did well. Harper clearly outpitched Callahan in the second game.

MEANEY'S OFF-DAY.

Buffalo Pounds Him for a Total of 29 Bases and Won with Fase. Buffalo, N. Y., July 28.-Buffalo layed a fine game in the field and at bat today, and easily defeated the Scranton team. McGinnis was very effective for the ome team, and the few hits secured off his delivery were kept well scattered antil the ninth inning, when having the game won, he let up and by a brace of single and a double two runs were queezed in by Scranton.

Meaney, too, pitched a steady game, but the local batemen had his curves uaged to a nicety, and pounded then for a total of twenty-nine bases. Atdance, 4,000. Score: BUFFALO.

Rochester and Springfield Break Even Before 10,000 Spectators. hester, N. Y., July 28.-Springfield and Rochester played two games this fernoon in the presence of nearly 10,-000 spectators and broke even. Baldwin started to pitch the first game for Rochester, and in the initial inning was slugged a d over the lot for eight singles and a trole, which made nine runs for Springfles'. Robinson replaced him in the third and did better, but the home team could not cut down the lead gained by Springfield, and the

of the game.

Umpire Bosscher was hit in the back with a batted ball during the first game, which caused him to retire. Baldwin and Gruber umpired the second game Harper and Callahan were pitted against each other in the second game and the former had the best of it. It was a pretty exhibition from start to finish. The Rochesters wielded their bats at timely intervals and fielded like flends. Scores:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

2.15. Umpires-Baldwin and Gruber.

Sunday's games resulted disastrous ly for Cleveland and Baltimore, which, with the game lost by Cleveland Saturday, brings the leaders back a peg or two. The biggest surprise of the two days was the defeat of Baltimore yesterday by the Louisvilles who made seven errors, and who were defeated lmost four to one by Baltimore on Saturday. By winning yesterday from the Browns, Broolyn ousts Philadelphia from seventh place.

The Derekard of View land teast see it through this sow composed of Milligan, Mulvey and Sweeney, of the old Allentowns, and the best of the Pottsville club. Pitcher Mayer, of Allentowns, will come to Scranton this week, but it is not probable that he will be signed. The management of the Pottsville base ball toam know nothing about its transfer to Allentowns. They have, will be made during the present week. Interest in base ball in Pottsville is virtually dead, at least for the present season.

TODAY'S RACES.

Bicycle Meeting Was Postponed from

Saturday Afternoon Bain on Saturday afternoon prevented the Green Ridge wheelmen's races, which were postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was fortunate that the many class A cracks, who were entered, had no dates for today, as the all remained in the city over Sunday and will appear in today's races.

It had been mentioned that possibly this afternoon's base ball game and races would conflict with each other, but an agreement was made to begin the races at 2.30 o'clock and hold the ball game until 4.30, which will give pleasure seekers an opportunity to see both attractions.

The races will be held at the Driving park, which may be reached by the Peckville or Green Ridge People's trolley lines, or by the 2.30 Delaware and Hudson train. It is likely that fast time will be made, as Saturday's rain served the purpose of putting the track n excellent condition.
