WAR WITH THE REDSKINS.

The News from Jackson's Hole is Encouraging.

INDIANS ARE ON MOUNTAINS.

Eighty-Five Armed and Mounted Men Start for Union Pass—Two Hundred Bannocks at Little Pappogio Canon.

Salt Lake, Utah, July 30.—The first reliable news of the Indian troubles at Jackson's Hole proper which has been received for more than a week came by messenger this evening via Griggs, Ida., from Fort Wilson, a little place located in the center of a valley in Jackson's Hole, over 100 miles from any railway. The dispatch is dated July 29 and says: "At about 10 o'clock of the valley are gathered at Wilson's ranch for protection. One hundred men are under arms. Night before last a council of war was held and four men were selected to reconnoiter and locate the Indians, but as yet the scouts have not returned. The Indians must have moved away back or left the district altogether, as no Redskins have been seen for three or four days. A company of volunteers came into Fort Wilson from Teton Wednesday after traveling all night. Exaggerated reports of the trouble led them to believe help was badly needed at the Hole, but on their arrival here they were surprised to find all quiet. A consultation was held as to the advisability of going out and fighting the Indians. It was most decidedly a passive for the present. The Indians are no doubt in the mountains and may make a descent on the settlers when they are not looking for it, but the opinion is that if they had been on the warpath properly, they would have attacked Fort Wilson before this."

ON FOR UNION PASS. Leader, Wyo., July 30.—Eighty-five well armed and mounted men have started for Union Pass, where they intend to stop any Indians who may come through, and also the passes from Jackson's Hole. They are divided into two squads under command of Sheriff Grimmet and ex-Sheriff Sparhawk. Recruits will be picked up along the route. Indian Fighter Frank Lewis reports 200 Bannocks camped by Little Pappogio canon, twenty miles north. Their actions are not particularly hostile. Companies B and C of the National Guard, have received orders from General Richards to co-operate with the civil authorities for the protection of the people of the country. The passes leading into Lander valley will be guarded and timely warning given if the reds are driven this way by the military.

ASSAULTED BY A TRAMP.

A Woman Is Knocked Down and Robbed and Then Thrown Over an Embankment.

Simpson Grove, Pa., July 30.—Mrs. McKenzie, wife of Dr. McKenzie, of Somerton, was brutally assaulted by a tramp on a bridge crossing the Bound Brook railroad today and robbed of a considerable sum of money. Mrs. McKenzie, in company with her 10-year-old daughter, started to walk to the Simpson Grove camp meeting, and when she reached a bridge over the railroad near Trevostone station she was accosted by the tramp, who knocked her down, robbed her and threw her over the bridge to an embankment below. She sustained severe injuries, but managed to get back to Somerton, where she informed the station agent for what had happened. The tramp escaped in the direction of Nesamity Falls, and the railroad agent there was wired to be on the lookout for him. The assailant was seen in the park at Nesamity Falls about an hour after the occurrence, trying to sell a railroad ticket, which it is supposed was in the purse stolen from Mrs. McKenzie. Sheriff Nicholas, of Doylestown, was in the vicinity at the time and gave chase to the highwayman, but at last accounts he had not been captured. The daughter was not injured.

WILL BLOW THINGS UP.

Mr. Carroll Will Go to Cuba With High Explosives.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 30.—Thomas Carroll, of this city, has gone to Cuba under contract with the insurgents to furnish a large supply of high explosive for making Mr. Carroll said: "I am to be there six weeks. With fifty men we can blow up 1,000,000 of the best drilled soldiers in the world. We can cut torpedoes under water and blow up ships and destroy cables. Under all the roads we can plant the explosive. I do not know how the Cubans have planned their campaign, but with the high explosive no generalship is needed. A boy can blow up half the island of Cuba. The revolutionists have given me my price and I am going to provide them with the material." From Cuba Mr. Carroll will go to San Francisco to meet agents of the Chilian government. His explosive has been tested by several governments and found to have very high power.

STAMPS ARE DISCOVERED.

Secret Service Men Find an Important Link of Evidence.

MRS. McMILLAN'S LAST HOPE.

She Fainted in Her Cell when Told That the Counterfeit Stamps Had Been Found—Result of a Long and Remarkable Chase.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 30.—The last link in the chain of evidence that for months the United States secret service has been following about Mrs. Mary McMILLAN, alias Mrs. Mack, the notorious stamp counterfeiter who is now in the Erie county jail, was forged Saturday in Postmaster Baker's private office, where a satchel belonging to the woman was opened and found to contain 23,000 counterfeit stamps excellently made and done up in five original packages. For two months secret service men have searched Buffalo for the value and the finding was one of the cleverest pieces of detective work done in Buffalo in years. With nothing except the fact that Mrs. Mack visited the American Express office with a grip early in the spring to work upon the officers after two months' discovery of his hiding place and Inspector Ashe, of New York city, now has the stamps in his possession. It was found on the Terrace in the possession of a well-known Buffalo man of ill-repute who may prove to be an important member of the big counterfeiting gang. His connection with the most famous work is being run down and for that reason his name is withheld.

OUTRAGE AT WATERTOWN.

A Frail Woman Is Treated to Tar and Feathers by a Mob of Prominent Citizens.

Watertown, N. Y., July 30.—Jayville, a village on the fringe of the Adirondack forest above Carthage, has been the scene of the punishment of a frail woman in a manner which has outraged decency, and which will set the wheels of the law in motion to punish the offenders. Some time ago a man named John P. Hirsch and Mrs. Bert Covey, of Jayville, eloped from that place. Neither were heard of until Saturday, when Mrs. Covey suddenly returned. On Sunday two men called on her telling her that if she did not immediately leave the place she would be tarred and feathered. She went to Pittsford on Monday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the two men who had threatened. In the evening she returned home. When the train stopped at Jayville and the woman stepped off she was suddenly surrounded by a crowd of men who seized her and took her into the railroad freight house, where they stripped her. There was a crowd of women present dressed in men's clothes and with blackened faces. The men then held the woman down on the floor while the women applied the tar and feathers with a paint brush, completely covering her with the stuff, after which they left her. She was taken to her mother's house where a physician was called and found that one arm and a number of ribs were broken. It is claimed that almost all of the party concerned in the case are known, and warrants will immediately be sworn out for their arrest.

Then Made a Personal Appeal to Governor Hastings, Hoping to Split the Combination Against Him—All These Negotiations Fail.

Philadelphia, July 30.—The Press today printed an amazing chapter of political history which carried considerable interest to the Quay forces and caused more talk than any other publication in a decade. It occupied nearly four columns, and in substance was that Senator Quay, after consenting to the withdrawal of Penrose as the slated candidate for mayor after a private caucus taken a few days before the Philadelphia city convention, had showed that Penrose could not be elected, without a hint of his purpose went back to Washington and delivered his famous senate speech arraigning David Martin, thus repeating his own acquaintance of two days before.

"The Crime of a Century" to be Investigated.

HATCH KNOWS HOLMES.

An Important Witness Has Been Secured to Throw Light Upon the Chicago Crimes.

Chicago, July 30.—There is now little doubt that the Chicago police will convict H. H. Holmes of the murder of at least seven persons. They know the name of the man who can hang Holmes by giving his testimony and that man is in their power. His name is Hatch, and he is now serving a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary at Little Rock, Ark., for horse stealing. He is as close to Holmes through all his murder plots as Janitor Quinan, and is ready to tell the story of the murders in the police station, as well as the information concerning the murder of Pletzel and his two children, and of Mrs. Julia Connors and her daughter Pearl. In short, this man is the only other living person, aside from Quinan, who can tell the story of the murders in the chancel house at Sixty-third and Wallace streets. Aside from Quinan he is the only man who can tell of Holmes' crimes in a way that will bring forth evidence, aside from Quinan, who can tell the story of the murders in the chancel house at Sixty-third and Wallace streets.
