ARRESTED IN THE MINES. Andrew Phelix Looked Up for Assaulting

Phelix, a miner, residing at 83 Grant street, came home on Monday night, accompanied by a friend and made trouble. His wife objected to the friend and he went away, and Phelix went to bed. Yesterday morning at breakfast the quarrel was renewed and Phelix assaulted his wife with a broomstick, cut her face and blackened her eye. He then went to work in the mines and she came before the mayor and swore out a warrant for his arrest.

Andrew returned from work at 9 clock, found his wife absent and earning of an officer being at the house, took his two small boys, went to the mayor's office and with a good jag, demanded to know what the trouble was. He was locked up and at the hearing last evening said he was drunk and didn't know what he was doing. The mayor would not accept the ex-cuse, however, and held Andrew in de-fault of ball for court. Their two children accompanied their father in the norming and were sent home with the

LEFT-HAND PITCHERS. Outside of Bretonetein the League Clubs Cannot Boast of Many Good Ones. Bince the days of the great left-hand pitchers, Tom Ramsey, Kilroy, Morris and Madden, the league teams have not been blessed with many bright stars of this sort, says the New York Sun. Today probably the greatest left-hand pitcher in the country is Theodore Breitenstein, of St. Louis. He is not a big man physically, but he has an arm the most nurriling curves imaginable The fact that as high as $15,000 has been offered for "Breit's" release this year denotes his worth, and it will not be surprising if some rich Eastern club succeeds in landing him before another campaign. Outside of this young man, there are only a few left-hand pitchers who can hold their own. Killen, of Pittsburg, comes very near being a good one, but his work has been somewhat erratic, and he has also been on the hospital list for some time, owing to his collision with Wilson at the Polo Grounds last month. Dolan, of the Bostons, is only a youngster, but he has pitched remarkably well for a new-pitching, but it is really the case, because a left-hand hitter is hard for a right-hand man to pitch to, and consequently has an advantage. It is almost invariably the case that left-hand hitters turn around and bat right-handed when a "south paw" is in the box.

Some managers believe that it is good policy to have a left-hand pitcher on the team, no matter what his ability may be. For, when a team of left-hand hitters come along, there is more of a chance to fool them with a left-hand pitcher than with a right-hander. But 'south paws" are scarce, and as a rule are not worth the experiment.

A WHEELMAN'S VISION. I had last night a heavenly dreat The stars were in the sky;

The moon went saiking by. Sure perched upon the golden rim A maiden smiling sat. She worked her pedals with great vim, And wore a sailor hat.

She vanished down the Milky Way, I turned, and lo! the sun of day Had entered on the race.

"The planets wheel," I cried in joy, "See glorious Phoebus spin it." He, glancing back, said: "Yes, my boy, The universe is in it."

The Saturday Tribune.

NE of the secrets of the great and growing popular-ity of the Saturday Tribune is its originality. Unlike the special editions of many other papers, it is not made up largely if not exclusively, of stereotyped features widely syndicated for simultaneous publication. On the contrary, the bulk of the special matter presented in The Saturday Tribune is prepared especially for this paper. That The Saturday Tribune is satisfactorily filling its field is substantially manifested by a steadily growing constituency. No other paper ever printed in the history of Scranton journalism has achieved a fuller measure of success than The Satur-The Saturday Tribune is essentially Scranton's Favorite Newspaper.

BASE BALL AND OTHER SPORTS.

STOCKS AND BONDS

New York, July 30.—Speculation was less active today at the stock mar-ket. Total transactions were only 207,000 shares. The Industrials were more prominent in the early trading, when Sugar and Chicago Gas both sold at considerably higher figures, while the railway list was rather neglected in the early trading, but later on Louisville and Nashville and Missouri Pacific developed activity as well as strength. The advance brought out offerings for foreign account and a rally took place. Manhattan, on efforts to cover, rose from 112 to 114%. The Grangers were a shade easier. In the late afternoor trading speculation was guiet. The changes in the active railway shares
