GERMAN CHURCH DISRUPTS

Pastor and Majority of Congregation Will Form a New Church.

WISSWAESSER CASE RECALLED

Rev. August Lange Severs His Pastorate and Will Organize a New Congregation—Barring and McSweney's Detective Firm Concerned.

Unless a more amicable condition shall soon be brought about among the members of the Hickory Street German Presbyterian church, an upheaval in that fold is impending which threatens to stir it from center to circumference. Rev. August Lange, who had been pastor since the abrupt departure of Carl L. Wisswaesser, in 1893, sent his resignation to the board of trustees last Monday evening. John Lentjes, who was organist of the church choir and superintendent of the Sunday school, resigned yesterday morning, and both resignations have been accepted.

The congregation consists of about 450 members, and the church property is valued at $75,000. The church is one of the most imposing in Scranton, built of granite block; a new parsonage is now almost completed, and it is expected will be ready for occupancy in two weeks. Altogether it is a very important congregation, one which any clergyman might feel proud to be the pastor of. Rev. Mr. Lange came immediately after the flight of Wisswaesser. He is a young man of commanding appearance and possessed of a brilliant education; he is a son-in-law of Rev. W. Hausser, D. D., of Bloomfield Theological seminary, N. J. His resignation, in its full significance, implies that a majority of the Hickory street congregation will go with him, and a new congregation, independent of any Presbyterian or synod, will be formed. He will preach in some hall, Fruehan's, on Cedar avenue, very probably, next Sunday, and that will mark the beginning of the new epoch.

What Led to His Resignation.

The general impression is that a certain contingent of the parish worked so directly counter to his pastorate, because they retained a friendship for Wisswaesser, that he concluded to betake himself to another field. But the opposition to Wisswaesser's friends to him was so futile that it had nothing to do directly with his resignation. His resignation came indirectly from the action against Peter Hartman in the United States court for alleged obscene letter writing.

When Wisswaesser, not long ago, returned to the city in as sudden a style as he took himself off, rumors went out that he would be reinstated as pastor of the Hickory street church, and Rev. Mr. Lange would be sent away. A meeting was held of practically all of the members of the church, and a resolution upholding Mr. Lange passed along with one denouncing Wisswaesser.

Peter Hartman was present at the meeting, but took no action in the proceedings, remaining silent as an on-looker in one of the rear pews. The pastor received obscene letters through the mails and Hartman was at the time accused of the crime.

Kirst Became Responsible.

Barring & McSweney's detective agency was given the job of discovering the identity of the author, and extending Commissioner Philip Kirst, who is president of the board of trustees, became security for the payment to Barring & McSweney of the expense of the detective work. On Saturday, July 6, Rev. Mr. Lange received a letter from Mr. Kirst, enclosing the bill for $51 rendered by the detective firm. Receiving the bill enclosed in a letter from Mr. Kirst, he was curt treatment, for he felt that Mr. Kirst might visit him or send a messenger to his home. He called a meeting of the board of trustees and asked for his salary in advance, in order that he might pay the bill forthwith. The trustees are Alois Rudler, William Maus, August Lengler, Philip Kirst, John Hahn, and Charles Lengler. Only three of them were present, the first half, and they had no power to draw an order without the sanction of Mr. Kirst, the president of the board.

But that evening four of the trustees called at his home and said Mr. Kirst would pay the bill if the pastor would assign a month's salary to him. He refused and that caused the opening breach.

Another Point in the Case.

The second point in the case was a more serious one. On Thursday, July 11, the regular monthly meeting of the Sunday school was held. The pastor was out on the occasion, but his wife was present. A messenger boy came to the door with a telegram from her father, Dr. Hausser, of Bloomfield seminary, requesting her husband to go to him at once, and giving no explanation. Mr. Lentjes advised Rev. Mr. Lange to send a query as to his presence at the meeting in haste, it not being thought advisable by Mr. Lentjes that the pastor should go without finding out the nature of affairs at Bloomfield; perhaps if he went down he might be kept away from service on Sunday. To his telegram the pastor received a reply urging to come speedily and lose no time. On Friday night he left for Bloomfield. The next day, Saturday, two of the congregation wanted children baptized, and there was a baptism also for Sunday. This intelligence was communicated by telegram to Rev. Mr. Lange, and he sent back word to arrange a substitute. Mr. Lentjes at once went to Rev. Edward Lang, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church, of Prospect avenue and Beech street, making arrangements with him to attend to the baptisms and officiate at the morning services.

The Elders Were Angry.

However, the pastor was able to leave Bloomfield sooner than he anticipated, arriving home at 2:30 that Sunday morning, which dispensed with the necessity of asking Rev. Edward Lang to take his place temporarily. Some of the elders spoke very disparagingly of his trip to Bloomfield without making arrangements to have his church cared for in his absence, and he felt that the circumstances under which he went, receiving a telegram from his father-in-law, without any explanation, to come in haste, was sufficient excuse for him to go. Mr. Lentjes, he claimed, acted the part of a friend in a private matter which did not concern the congregation, and for his kindness deserved praise and not censure for making arrangements with Rev. Edward Lang. On both of these points the pastor thought he was justified in resigning, and it was accepted at a meeting of the trustees Monday night.

He will establish a New Church. He will be from this forth an independent pastor, and proposes to push the case against Peter Hartman to the bitter end. Already over 100 have broken away from the Hickory Street church to follow him. He has received two calls, one from Germany and one from a Congregational college in Chicago, but will not accept either, preferring to remain here. Next Sunday and hereafter his followers will worship in some of the halls on this side, and soon a move will be made to build a church. There has been no arrangement yet made for his successor at the Hickory Street church. He will preach there no more. A committee waited on him to proceed to the withdrawal of the resignation, but he refused point blank to do so. Those who were opposed to him, when asked if Wisswaesser would be reinstated, declared themselves negatively in most emphatic terms.

The Ontario and Western has issued mileage books to comply with the law passed last winter. They are in the shape of a book and will be sold for $20, but not at stations as heretofore. Persons desiring books must deposit the money and file their order with the station agent, who will forward the same and procure the book. These books are only good for the person whose name is written upon them and not for families. The mileage coupons will not be received by conductors, but will be taken up by the ticket agent who will detach the coupons and give in exchange a special ticket good for one continuous passage to destination for twenty-four hours after the date. Baggage will be checked on the tickets issued by the agent, but not on the mileage book.

DUNMORE

Miss Christie Fletcher, of East Drinker street, is visiting relatives in Hoboken. J. J. Wildowald, a former resident of this borough and who has been spending some time visiting friends and relatives here, has returned to his home at Ansonia, Conn. Mrs. F. D. Stevens and son, Harry, of West Drinker street, have returned home from a two weeks' sojourn at Lake Underwood. All persons interested in missions should be present at the prayer meeting in the Methodist church tonight to hear the address of Rev. Mr. Janney, a recently returned missionary from India, who will give a talk on that country, its customs and religions. William Bruning, of Brook street, spent last evening with Peckville friends. A large and jolly crowd of young folks gathered at the Exchange hotel last night to enjoy the hospitality of Proprietor O'Donnell and his wife. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, when supper was served. The Americans of this place and the Crackjacks of Green Ridge will cross bats on the No. 5 ground this afternoon at 2:30. A party consisting of Mrs. Johns and Mrs. Harris, of Scranton; Miss Johns and Miss Uting, of New York, were taken through the Gypsy Grove mine yesterday by John Hollow. They dug some black diamonds to take home with them as a reminder of their trip. A. L. Van Horn, aged 35 years, a former resident of this borough, but who for some time has resided with his mother, at Clark's Summit, died in the Lackawanna hospital yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, where he was taken on Friday last after a three months' illness. The deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythias, Masons and Order of Maccabees. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be under charge of the Masons. He is survived by his mother, two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Rought, of Long Island, and Mrs. J. W. Harpe, of Bloom street, this place, and three brothers, George, Frank and John. Interment will be made in Dunmore cemetery.
