

THAT GREAT DWARFER

In prices, the close of the season, still continues with ruthless and unsparing hand to set early summer figures all topsy-turvy, and lucky is the buyer who comes in these latter days to purchase warm weather comforts, for the buying power of their dollars has expanded still it is all but 2 to 1 as compared with early June figures.

TERRIBLE CLOUD BURST

SAD FAITH OF NEWBY'S FAMILY

Awful Work of the Flood at Other Points. Eight Persons Perish at Socorro and Fifty Buildings Are Destroyed.

Casper, Wyo., Aug. 1.—A terrible cloudburst occurred south of this city on Casper mountain, at the head of Garden creek, last night.

The creek is about seven miles long from mouth to source, and is lined with campers. Near the head of the creek is a summer resort, frequented by local picnic parties and is credited with being one of the most beautiful spots in central Wyoming.

The first thing the flood reached was the pleasure resort at the head of Garden creek. At this point all the buildings were crushed and swept away and the original site of the hotel at this point is buried beneath debris twenty or more feet deep.

From here the water followed the course of the creek and demolished everything in its path. Judging from water marks a volume of water forty feet high and thirty rods wide must have passed a narrow defile about two miles from the mountain proper.

Without warning this great flood of water in its rush down the side of the mountain found many campers up and down the creek either sleeping or just ready to retire for the night.

Fate of Newby's Family.

S. Newby and his family had retired for the night, when all at once they were surrounded with water and a race for life commenced. Newby says that he heard his wife scream for help, he grabbed for her, but missed, and in the next second he was being carried on by a great rush of water. That was the last he saw of his wife and baby. Newby grabbed the limbs of a floating tree and after floating about forty rods was thrown on a bank. Mrs. Newby was found this morning beneath a pile of debris twenty feet high. The boy has not been found.

Near the Newby camp was camped Samuel Harrison, lately of Alliance, Neb. Harrison's two children were caught in the flood and carried away by the mad waters. The bodies of the children were recovered this morning. Some idea of the force of the torrent can be formed from the fact that the first two miles of its course five ledges of rock are to be found. These ledges are twenty-five feet high. In the first one are boulders torn from the mountain side that will weigh fifty tons. These two feet in diameter were torn up and carried down the stream.

The tents and wagons of all the campers up and down the creek were destroyed and at least fifty persons escaped with nothing but their sleeping garments. Food and clothing is being sent to the unfortunate by the citizens of Casper today.

Eight Persons Perish. Socorro, N. M., Aug. 1.—The excitement attendant upon the flood is over. The list of dead is eight, six of whom are the Duran family, and the other two children that were rescued from the flood and died yesterday. Fifty buildings in the city have been washed away and contents destroyed. About 100 buildings are more or less damaged, and a large portion of the contents damaged and destroyed. To these losses must be added the total destruction of gardens and vineyards, and these losses fall upon the poorer class of people.

The Magdalena branch of the Santa Fe railway is washed away for about five miles, and their loss will run into the thousands. The water washed away the main track just below the depot yard and covered the tracks in the yards about four inches deep. The lower part of Manzanara avenue is a total wreck, bridges and sidewalks being washed away. The water covered the whole valley from the vicinity of the Windsor hotel to the depot and for several miles above and below the city.

The Arroyo, which did the damage, comes into the city at the southwest corner from the mountains on the road to Magdalena. As it strikes the city it divided into two channels, one going down Spring street to the river bottom and the other to the west, emptying to the north of the city and swirling around passes to east of the city, mingling its waters with the one coming down Spring street. The flood came in two big waves, one filling the Arroyo over bank full and the other pouring out over every street in the city.

Storm at Denver. Denver, Col., Aug. 1.—Another terrible rain storm swept this region this evening and all railroads continue to suffer great losses. The Arkansas river is tonight a raging torrent, and all travel or roads crossing it has been stopped. In the city the storm again flooded everything. Cloudbursts at Morrison and Salida threatened much property.

WINDSCH ARRIVES. The Pittstonian Accused of Murdering His Wife in Wilkes-Barre's Guest. Wilkes-Barre, Aug. 1.—George Windisch, of Pittston, accused of murdering his wife on April 4, was brought to Wilkes-Barre tonight and lodged in the county jail. He was brought from Monrovia by Detectives Mcweeney and Bauer and Chief Loftus, of Pittston. He denied his guilt and has not so far as can be learned made anything like a confession.

To the detective Windisch says that he can prove his innocence when brought to trial, but beyond this he refused to say anything about himself or his crime.

DEATH BY DYNAMITE. Farmer is Killed While Blasting Stumps. Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 1.—While blasting stumps this morning James H. Cokwell, a farmer living four miles south of this city, was blown to pieces by dynamite. He was carrying twelve pounds of the explosive in a basket and ignited it while lighting a fuse. The body was terribly mutilated. This afternoon Charles Lucas, brother-in-law of W. H. McDoel, general manager of the Monon Railway, was killed by the cars at the new Monon shops. He, as foreman of the engine crew, was setting the brake on a flat car. The stem broke and he fell under the wheels. The top of his head and his right arm were cut off. The remains will be sent to his old home, at State Line, Ind., for burial.

MR. QUAY WELL CONTENT.

The Opposition, However, Estimate That His Fortune at Ending One Year Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—Senator Quay left here tonight for his home, at Beaver. Mr. Quay appeared well content with the shape his campaign is in and said that, as he had accomplished as much work here in six days as he expected to do in ten.

The opposition on the other hand, said that Mr. Quay has become frightened about the condition of his finances in Beaver county and was hurrying home to try and get them straightened out.

GILKESON AND QUAY.

Fine Points Raised at the Close of the Campaign—Lebanon Endorses the Old Man.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 1.—Tonight Colonel B. F. Gilkeson, chairman of the Republican state committee, sent the following letter to C. B. Birgham, chairman of the Chester county committee:

My Dear Sir—In reply to your letter of July 29, I have to say first, that I am a candidate for chairman under the rules of the Republican party and do not ask that they should be changed by reason of my candidacy; second, that a decision reached by the proposed means of submitting the names of the Hon. M. S. Quay and myself to the voters of Chester county is liable to be misleading by reason of the omission of the names of one or the other of the candidates from the ticket in many of the election districts; third, that the voters of Chester county, in my judgment, understand this contest and I am perfectly willing to trust to their intelligence to select delegates who will fairly represent them.

Chairman Gilkeson was indisposed today, and remained in bed at the Commonwealth hotel.

Lebanon, Pa., Aug. 1.—At a meeting of the delegates of this county to the Republican state convention held this evening, the following preambles and resolution were adopted:

Whereas, the sentiment of the Republican voters of Lebanon county is overwhelmingly in favor of the election of Hon. M. S. Quay as chairman of the Republican state committee; and

Whereas, we believe that this sentiment expresses a proper appreciation of the many great services rendered to the Republican party by Senator Quay, and a recognition of his fitness and ability to organize victory in the next presidential campaign; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the delegates elected by the Republican party of Lebanon county to the convention, hereby tender and pledge Senator Quay our hearty support in his candidacy for state chairman. (Sigs. E. H. Harris, D. M. Earnest, C. R. Hetrick.)

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 1.—C. M. Arbogast, chairman of the Snyder county Republican committee, has written to State Chairman Gilkeson stating that the primary election held in that county some time ago for the election of a delegate to the state convention was illegal under the rules of the party. He says another election will be held on Saturday, Aug. 3, when the state chairmanship matter would also be submitted to the people.

Colonel Gilkeson has not replied to the letter, but holds that the first election was all right, and the delegate then chosen will be recognized.

BURNED TO DEATH IN A JOKE

Blazer Ely's Pantaloons Filled With Shavings and Live Coals. Mascoutah, Ill., Aug. 1.—A flimsy outrage was committed in the name of a practical joke near Venedy Station, twelve miles east of here. Blazer Ely, a well-known character of the community, aged 62, had been on a three-weeks' drunk. His associates packed his pantaloons with shavings and live coals of fire, intending, it is supposed, to terrify the old man with the smoke cause thereby.

The coals set the shavings ablaze, and in a few minutes the would-be jokers found their victim burning to death. The fire was extinguished, but the old man died a few hours later.

CUBAN HEARTS HOPEFUL

They See Signs of Success for the Revolution.

INSURGENTS GAIN STRENGTH

More Progress by the Rebels in Five Months Now Than in Five Years in the Former Uprising—Spanish Show Signs of Weakness.

New York, Aug. 1.—With the enthusiasm which is the natural inheritance of the Cubans, the revolutionaries of the Latin race, the Cubans in New York were still inclined today to celebrate the landing of the patriots in the province of Santa Clara, news of which they received Tuesday.

It would be difficult now to find a Spaniard in this city who does not believe that the revolutionaries will ultimately win. This belief is based not only upon the success which attended the latest expedition, and upon the number and condition of the revolutionary troops, but also upon the fact that the first Spanish reserve has been called out. The Cuban army, especially if there were available regular troops, the reserves would not now be called for. The last revolt continued for ten years, and the reserves were not called for until the war was more than half over. During the five months that the present revolt has continued, the Cubans, it is said, have made as great progress as they did in the first five years of the revolution of 1895.

Rebels Stronger Than Ever. At no time during the former struggle were the Cubans as numerically strong as they are today. The largest number of men which they had in the field at any one time during that conflict was 12,000, and these were poorly armed. There are said to be 25,000 patriots in the field today.

If the city of Havana is considered a province, there are six provinces in Cuba. Of these the Spanish forces are in possession of the three most westerly ones—Pinar del Rio, Havana and Matanzas. The central provinces of Santa Clara and Puerto Principe, especially the latter, are in almost complete possession of the Cubans. Santiago de Cuba, the extreme eastern province, is the scene of the most active hostilities. It is in that province where Captain General Campos has his headquarters. In a territory occupied by the Spaniards there are only about 125,000 troops, as compared with the 250,000 men General Campos had under him during the last revolt.

Then it is asserted that the prejudices of the inhabitants of the island favor the success of revolt. It is in only the three western provinces that the Cubans are loyal to the Spanish, and even in those, it is said, if there were experienced leaders to go there, it would be only a short time before they would be in open revolt. The people of Santa Clara, the center of the wealth and the sugar plantations, and of Puerto Principe are said to be heart and soul with the revolutionists.

THE INDIAN UPRISING.

Utah Kanahomen Are Deserting Their Homes in Haste.

Salt Lake, Utah, Aug. 1.—Despatches from Soda Springs, in the valley, Market Lake and other frontier Mormon settlements report the constant arrival of ranchers and settlers who are in a wild state of alarm over the rumors of Indian uprising. The refugees come in wagons and on horseback, and mostly in a condition that shows they left their homes in the greatest haste.

This far none of these people report any outrages of their own knowledge, their statements being that they were alarmed by the night fires they saw kindled on the mountain peaks and of the stories which reached them from the newspapers.

The Sixtieth infantry is expected to reach the scene of the reported troubles today.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 1.—The people of Dubois are keeping a sharp lookout for the Indians who were encamped near Oregon Buttes last night. It was the talk among the Shoshones at Lander yesterday that they were starving and would rather die fighting the soldiers than by starvation.

It is understood that an agreement exists between the Bannocks, Utes, Lemhis and Shoshones by which the government will be informed at the proper time that peace can be secured only by increasing their rations.

Market Lake, Ida., Aug. 1.—A correspondent returning from the seat of Indian troubles in the Jackson's Hole country says that most reports of the actual danger of the situation have been greatly exaggerated and the indications are that the Indians will go to the reservation peacefully rather than meet the soldiers.

HE ATE RAW PORK.

And Now Martin Yenkowski Suffers from Trichinosis.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 1.—Reading physicians are greatly interested in a case of trichinosis, which is now being treated at the Reading hospital. The patient is Martin Yenkowski, a young Poland, who was admitted a few days ago. It is caused by eating raw pork.

Yenkowski admitted that he had been used to eating this kind of meat during the last two years. His condition is critical.

Sisters Separated for Forty-Two Years by Fort Mifflin.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 1.—Mrs. James Rosler and Mrs. John Miller, sisters, who had not seen or heard of each other for 58 years, met at Lake Maxinkuske.

They had lived only forty miles apart for 42 years without knowing it, and their reunion was brought about by a casual mention of the name of one to the other.

SHUN YELLOWSTONE PARK.

Italians Give It a Wide Birth as a Haunted Ground.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 1.—The sensational dispatches from Market Lake and other remote points in Idaho to the effect that there are Indians in Yellowstone Park, are undoubtedly the work of the "strange" Rev. Yellowstone Park is under government control, and in charge of a cavalry officer, under whose direction several companies of cavalry are constantly patrolling the great reservation for the purpose of preventing the destruction of game and objects of interest to tourists who come each year from all over the world to visit this wonderland.

As a matter of fact the Indians, who are the most superstitious people on the face of the earth, always give Yellowstone Park a wide berth, on the ground that it is the abode of evil spirits, on which account they abstain from the presence of geysers and other wonderful phenomena there found.

SHERIFF ARRESTED.

Tamsen Made Responsible for the Escape of the Postoffice Robbers.

New York, Aug. 1.—The grand jury, which has been investigating the escape of the postoffice robbers, Allen, Russell and Killoran, from Ludlow street jail on July 4, today handed in indictments against Sheriff Thomas, ex-Warden Haabe, of Ludlow street jail, ex-Keepers Schoben and Schner.

Later in the afternoon Sheriff Tamsen was arraigned before Recorder Goff. He was accompanied by Edward Groose, his attorney. He was arraigned on two indictments, one under section 89 of the Penal Code, for felony, and the other under section 117, for a misdemeanor.

Lawyer Groose entered a plea of not guilty, with leave to demur.

Recorder Goff fixed bail at $1,000, which was furnished.

BILL FRITZ IN BUSINESS.

He is Manufacturing "Mountain Dew" in the Wilds of Fayette.

Mounton, Pa., Aug. 1.—Twenty "mountain dew" stills are said to exist in two townships in Fayette county. County Detective Campbell has just returned from Springfield and Salt Lake townships along the Somerset border, making discoveries that will probably result in a number of arrests. Two stills of considerable pretensions have been definitely located, in a rough part of the mountain, far away from road or habitation, and the revenue officials have been notified.

Old Bill Fritz, the murderer of Hochstetter, is again operating a small still in the mountains not far from his home. This discovery was made by a party of surveyors.

Mrs. Augusta Matland Murderously Assaulted by Peter Wahlgren.

Omaha, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Augusta Matland, a statcher at the Model Steam laundry, was shot this afternoon by Edward Ritchie with preference. The Standard is reported as having $300,000 assets, and $400,000 liabilities, and the Davis company $150,000, but no statement of liabilities is given.

President Burrows, of the unfortunate concern, attributes the failure to the alleged fact that the banker's dollar has doubled in value, while the value of the manufacturer's dollar has decreased, and as a consequence depreciation in really good assets makes it impossible for him to meet liabilities.

MONEY ORDER FRAUD.

John Hellman Arrested for Boasting the Postoffice Officials.

Lebanon, Pa., Aug. 1.—John Hellman, of Annville, was arrested here this afternoon by Chief of Police Riley Ringler, at the request of Deputy Postmaster Jacob Welles, who alleges that Hellman, by means of false representation, had a money order, amounting to $14.25, cashed at the postoffice.

HAYES SCORES GORMAN

Beginning of the Downfall of Maryland Democracy.

A FEARFUL TONGUE-LASHING

In Plain English Senator Hayes Predicts the Defeat of Senator Gorman and His Followers and the Democratic Party of the State.

Baltimore, Aug. 1.—The sensational interview between United States Senator Gorman and State Senator Hayes, which took place just before the state Democratic convention met, and which was briefly outlined in these despatches yesterday, has excited wide interest and has all the city politicians agog.

The News, a Democratic afternoon paper, today prints what is claimed to be an accurate report of the stormy session. According to the report, Mr. Gorman sent for Mr. Hayes, and asked him, in view of the grave crisis which confronted the Democratic party in Maryland, to withdraw from the gubernatorial contest. As a reason for his request Mr. Gorman stated that "Free" Basin, the Baltimore leader, was unalterably opposed to him (Hayes), and without Basin's votes nothing could be accomplished in the way of defeating the nominee of the Cleveland Democrats, Judge Fisher.

Senator Hayes is quoted as replying to Senator Gorman in these words: "Do you think you can fool the people into believing this, Arthur Gorman? Do you think that they will believe for a moment that you could do as you wished with this convention, and have had me or any other man nominated, as well as John E. Hurst, who has always been against the issue on which we have fought and won this campaign? Do you imagine for a moment that any one will believe that you have been doing anything but deceiving them all the time? Why, you know that at least eight of the city delegates will leave Basin and vote as you order. You know this is all true, and yet you bow to Basin and allow him to sell the nomination and defy the popular will. You repudiate the issue on which you have won and expect to delude the people again, as you have deluded them before. You will not be warned. You have made mistakes before, and have recovered from their effects. From this you can never recover. You will drag down the party and bring it to defeat by your treachery. The party can recover from its defeat, but you never can."

Gorman Becomes Livid. Here Senator Gorman, who had become livid with rage and pale in turns, attempted to interrupt Mr. Hayes, but the latter continued:

"No, I will hear nothing from you. I would believe nothing you could say, even if you swore to it. Arthur Gorman, I have stood up for you and defended you for years, when you were attacked. I am one of the few men who have always believed you to be true. When some of my friends even hinted at possible treachery on your part I have spurned the very thought and would not believe it. Now I know that no deceit, treachery or baseness is too great for you. You have crowned at last a long career of double dealing, treachery and falsehood by this act of infamy. By your course today you will betray yourself beyond redemption. I am only sorry that you will bury the party with you. But the party can live, while you, overcome by your treachery and falsehood, will meet with the fate you deserve. I am no fool, no puppet to be fooled and trifled with, and I want nothing more to do with such a man as you."

"You have posed as in favor of reassessment and have used me for your base purposes. If you had given me a few more hours to expose your nefarious schemes I should have let the people of Maryland know of your deception. I despise your methods, and do not fear you or your henchmen. I am determined that if I can prevent it that your grip on the Democratic party shall end with your nomination of Hurst."

Mr. Hayes is said to have shaken his fist at Senator Gorman, as he stalked from the room saying: "We this day part forever, and my life's work shall be to help destroy you from the dictatorship now held by you over the party."

CHERRY PIT IN HER NOSE.

Peculiar Result of an Accident to a Grand Rapids Girl.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 1.—Gertrude Smith, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, got a cherry pit up her nose some time ago. She did not say anything about it until yesterday, when the child was taken to Dr. Prentice.

The pit was removed, and it was found that during the two weeks or more it had remained there it had started to grow. The shell had cracked and a tiny shoot had made for daylight at the end of the nose.

Food Must Be Pure.

Harrisburg, Aug. 1.—Secretary of Agriculture Edge today issued a circular letter to manufacturers and dealers in articles of food calling their attention to the provision of the oleomargarine law of March 13, 1886, and the act relating to the adulteration of food products, which will be enforced.
