[The Tribune has opened a branch office at No. 23, Lanning building, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre. It is the purpose of the publishers to issue a newspaper as valuable to the general public as the metropolitan dailies, and deliver it to the people throughout northeastern Pennsylvania from three to five hours earlier than the Philadelphia and New York papers can reach them.]

NO RIGHT TO SERVE THE STATE

Several Prominent Members of the Ninth Regiment Discharged by Their Employers for Attending State Camp.

A number of members of Company E, of the Ninth regiment, located at Parsons, have been discharged from their positions because they attended camp with the regiment, as they were obliged to. The men discharged were Nelson Stranberg, captain of Company E, who has held the position of mine foreman in the Delaware and Hudson Coal company's Laurel Run mine for ten years, and who for the past few months has been in the Delaware and Hudson company's mine. He is counted one of the best mine experts in the county. He was notified of his discharge soon after his return home, and the other men received notice when they reported for work, one or two being allowed to work the three first days of this week. Mr. Stranberg's position will be filled for the present by Thomas Stoenen, of the Coningham mine, located in this city. The other men discharged are Will Pero and William Killgallon, who were drivers. They are privates in Company E. Austin Danbo, mason, who is a corporal attached to the hospital corps; Harvey Jenkins, mason, corporal in Company E; Hugh Evans, mason, a corporal in Company E; Thomas Francis, driver, a corporal, and Gus Nelson, laborer, a private. Another employe named Richard Evans, who is not connected with the militia, was also discharged. No reason has been given for the discharge of these men. All are reliable men and no fault has ever been found with their work. In case of a strike where violence is attempted the very corporations that have dealt this slap to the militia would be the first to call for their services.

TO RECOVER WITNESS FEES.

A Legal Setto in the Office of Alderman Mrs. Barbara Thomas brought suit yesterday morning before Alderman Davis to recover $2.06 witness fees which the commissioners refused to pay. Attorney Moore appeared for the county and Attorney Martin for the plaintiff. Like yesterday's ball game, it was a battle of pitchers with the attorneys occupying the points. Moore tried to strike out Martin and couldn't, but the straight delivery of the latter was so much for the little attorney from the town of mills, and he fanned the wind every time. The latter grew weary and his hand named passed. Mr. Martin said that the legal ignorance of Mr. Moore was responsible for the court house muddle, and Mr. Moore retorted by calling Mr. Martin a "muttonhead." Mr. Martin said if the diminutive Mr. Moore would step outside, he (Mr. Martin) would add the Town Improvement society by cleaning up the street with his (Mr. Moore's) person. Mr. Moore advised Mr. Martin to go to the north pole to cool off, and Mr. Martin told Mr. Moore to go to another place equally noted for its climate. Hostilities were finally suspended and the attorneys separated.

HELD FOR COURT.

John Urban to Answer Alleged Charges of Misappropriating Funds. The Blackman mine murder of a short time ago was forcibly recalled yesterday in a case tried before Alderman Davison. When Anthony Zemits, the man accused of the crime, was returned to jail, he confided $104 to the care of his best friend, John Urban, a fellow-countryman and a boarder in the same house. Recently Zemits suspected that Urban desired to retain the money for his own personal use, and he instructed another friend to procure the money from Urban. When the friend demanded the money, Urban refused to give it up and suit was brought. John McGarrett appeared for Urban, and James L. Lenahan for the prosecution. A number of witnesses were examined and Urban was held in $500 bail for appearance at court. Urban was known to be without a cent previous to the Franklin mine tragedy, when he was arrested. After being released, he deposited $179 in the Wilkes-Barre Deposit and Savings bank. When he was arrested, charged with unlawfully retaining the money, he had a bank book which he gave to Attorney John Shea to go his security.

ANNUAL SHOOTING MATCHES.

Regimental and Brigade Matches to Be Shot—Beginning Aug. 20. The annual regimental and brigade rifle matches will be shot at Mount Gretna during the week beginning Aug. 26, under direction of Colonel Asher Miner, general inspector of rifle practice. Each regiment will consist of four men and one reserve, and no commissioned officers will be present. Teams must arrive at 10 o'clock Aug. 26. Range open for practice Tuesday. Tents and mattresses will be provided, but the men must bring their own blankets. The regimental match will be shot Thursday, Aug. 29; skirmish match Friday, Aug. 30; brigade match Saturday, Aug. 31. A team to represent the state at Sea Girt Inter-State match, Sept. 1, will be chosen. The Ninth regiment team will probably be the same as last year—Harding, Innes, Everett, Leidner.

In the Courts. G. F. Shelly, through his attorneys, D. L. Rhone, G. L. Halsey and J. Q. Creveling, brought suit against Sheriff Walters yesterday for $25,000 damages. The claim is based on the grounds that Shelly was in possession of his property in Plymouth borough, engaged in mining the coal from some culm banks. Sheriff Walters, so Shelly alleges, levied on Shelly's machinery and leasehold and sold them at public sale without the proper warrant. Eugene Ward, attorney for Mike Budnick, brought suit for $200, against the Quaker City Mutual Fire Insurance company. The plaintiff's house was burned down and the company refuses to pay the damages.

The Red Men's Excursion. The excursion of the Red Men to Atlantic City left yesterday morning over the Jersey Central road with eleven cars, six of which were well filled and about two-thirds of the party being ladies. Among the excursionists were: Aldermen J. F. Donohue and John E. Forchuck, Aldermen E. P. McGovern and M. H. McAniff, Daniel F. and J. L. Behee, James Kinney, of Plains; and Joseph A. Ansmann, who will probably be the life of the party during its trip through to the sea shore.

A WHI Filed.

The will of Thomas Mooney, of Wilkes-Barre, was filed yesterday. He gives to his wife, Ann Mooney, all his estate, real and personal, during her life time. After her death the estate to be divided between his children, Michael, Thomas H. and Mrs. Annie Mooney, and his step-children, Mrs. Mary McCormick, John F. Cavanaugh, and David Cavanaugh, share and share alike. Mrs. A. M. Mooney, his wife, is appointed executrix. The estate is valued at $3,500.

Carried Off the Records.

Union House, of the Nanticoke fire department, was broken into last night and the books and records of the company, pictures, etc., were carried away. Suspicion rests on some of the well-known men on some of the records to be an object to certain persons to get the records out of the way.

BRIEF NOTES.

An unknown man was killed last Wednesday night on the Lehigh Valley railroad near White Haven, while trying to board a freight train. The other men discharged are Will Pero and William Killgallon, who were drivers. They are privates in Company E. Austin Danbo, mason, who is a corporal attached to the hospital corps; Harvey Jenkins, mason, corporal in Company E; Hugh Evans, mason, a corporal in Company E; Thomas Francis, driver, a corporal, and Gus Nelson, laborer, a private. OLYPHANT

Last evening the Suburban wheelmen took a run to Carbondale and returned. Mrs. Kate McAndrew, of Paterson, N. J., is visiting with friends here the past week.

Yesterday afternoon a large crowd witnessed the game of base ball between the F. and G.'s and the Mountain Lakes, in which the latter were victorious by a score of 21 to 9. The Mountain Lakes were handicapped primarily by the absence of Merchant and Watkins, but nevertheless put up an excellent game. A one-handed catch by Redington was one of the features. Both clubs will come together on Aug. 9 for a purse of $50.

Mrs. Thomas Langan, of Philadelphia, called on her friends yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Speicher is visiting her parents at Archbald.

Miss Laura McCawley, of Danville, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Schubmehl.

Mr. and Mrs. Webberger, of Peak's Pond, who have been visiting here for the past several weeks, returned yesterday.

The excursion of St. Patrick's church will take place next Thursday to Farview.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over thirty years by millions of Mothers for their children while Teething, with Perfect Success. It Soothes the Child, Softens the Gums, Allays all Pains; Cures Wind Colic, and is the best Remedy for Diarrhoea, or Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

HAWLEY.

A force of men are at work laying a foundation 60 by 100 feet on Joseph Atkinson's lot, near the one dock, opposite the Haystack. Glass works, on which a building which is to be of wooden structure, will soon be erected. It is rumored that it is to be used as a factory for manufacturing boxes, and will probably furnish employment for forty men and boys. The festival which was held on Wednesday evening at the residence of Rev. A. W. Cooper, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was well patronized and netted about $35, which will go toward paying off the church debt. E. R. Isenbergh, of Huntingdon Pa., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. James Colgate for several weeks, left for Harrisburg on Thursday morning. Misses Grace, Annie Gladys and Master Foster Ware, of New York city, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Palmer for several weeks, returned home on Thursday morning via Scranton. New consignments of parrots and canaries at Ferguson's, 129 Franklin avenue, Scranton. Miss Elsie Colgate left Thursday afternoon for Wilkes-Barre to visit with friends at that place. Before returning she will visit Philadelphia. Miss Colgate expects to be gone two weeks. Miss Sarah Lynn, of that place, and her friend, Miss Annie Gavin, of Pittston, are spending a week visiting friends in Honesdale. Mrs. Charles Haecker visited Honesdale on Thursday. Rev. J. H. Cruzer, agent, at No. 5 Williams street, where contribution of news, complaints of non-delivery, orders for job work of all descriptions, should be addressed, and requests and subscriptions received. Advertising and subscription rates cheerfully submitted.]

At a regular meeting of the select council last evening the bond of the city assessor was approved. A bill passed third reading creating the office for the assessor. A complaint was received from M. J. Dickson, of Avoca, demanding $13.50 damages for injuries to his buggy, received some time ago by a collision with a Pittston stone heap. Dickson had been offered $10 for the damages but refused to accept that amount. His case was referred to a committee.

Work was received from Wilkes-Barre last evening to the effect that Chief Loftus and Detectives McSweeney and Bowers had arrived from Virginia with George Windisch, the accused wife murderer. Windisch has been very talkative since his arrest, and still insists on his innocence. He will probably be brought to this city for a formal hearing today.

George Johnston, of West Pittston, well known throughout the state as land agent for the past quarter of a century for the Pennsylvania Coal company, resigned yesterday.

SINGER WANTS A DIVORCE.

Lea Van Dyck Seeks Legal Separation From Her Husband. Yankton, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Lea Davis, known in the operative world as Lea Van Dyck, is here to secure a divorce from her husband, Harry Davis, of Philadelphia. She declared today that she was a pupil of Marchess, had sung with Melba, Gerster, Nevada and others, and was under the chaperonage of Nevada when she first appeared on the stage. Her last appearance was in "Robin Hood."

Mrs. Davis is plentifully supplied with funds and jewelry, and is killing time in teaching a few pupils. Her husband is said to have paid her a flying visit lately, and seemed well pleased at the prospect of an early separation. The prima donna engaged to sing in the Episcopal church here when she first came, but the trustees opposed her and she was not allowed to sing. Mrs. Davis is accompanied by a maid, who carries the purse and exercises watchful care over her distinguished companion.

THEY BEAT THE PARSON. Lively Reception Accorded Rev. S. W. Jordan by His Flock. Camden, N. J., Aug. 1.—Rev. S. W. Jordan, the pastor of the Wrightsville (colored) Methodist Episcopal church, just over the city line, was taken aboard last night, when, entering the sacred edifice, he was seized by the nape of the neck and beaten by members of his own congregation. Rev. Mr. Jordan had been away on a vacation. He telegraphed ahead to the trustees of his church that he would return in time to conduct last evening's services. According to promise, he arrived about 8 o'clock.

He had hardly reached the altar before he felt a whack on the back of his head. Then somebody grabbed him by his trousers and neck, and tumbled him unceremoniously to the floor, where he was severely maltreated. There has been some talk of no wedding. Salary of the church and Rev. Mr. Jordan over money matters, and the brethren took this forceful method of settling the difficulty.

WILLING TO MARRY HER.

Mr Gallagher Expresses His Gratitude to His Savior. Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—A heroic life saver, Miss Carrie Vaughan, a prepossessing young belle of Gladwyn, Montgomery county, came bravely to the front at Rose Glen today. John Gallagher, a young man who resides in lower Merion township, accidentally fell from the boat landing while fishing at Rose Glen on the Schuylkill. The water at the landing is twelve feet deep and Gallagher was unable to swim. His struggles in the water and cries for help attracted Miss Vaughan, who was bathing in the river road.

She hastened to his assistance, and springing into a boat, pushed out from the shore. Afloat on the deep stream the heroic young rescuer grasped the drowning man by the hair, just in the nick of time. With a firm grip she towed him safely ashore. Miss Vaughan received the thanks of Gallagher not only, but he offered her his heart and hand as an evidence of his gratitude.

CAVE FULL OF SKELETONS.

Remains of Four Hundred Human Beings Found on the White River. Yuma, Arizona, Aug. 1.—On the White River, eight miles from Camp Apache, has been found a remarkable cave. For 600 feet of the distance the explorers were obliged to crawl on their hands and knees, using candles and bull's-eye lanterns for light. They found between 300 and 400 human skeletons, indicating the remains of persons who
