CITY NOTES.

Races at the Driving park this afternoon at 2:30.

The funeral of Mrs. Patrick Conner-ton will take place from her late residence, 443 Third street, Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Interment in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Marriage licenses were yesterday pro-cured at the office of the clerk of the courts by Evan Armstrong, of Pittston, and Annie E. Faraday, of Lackawanna.

J. W. Kinsella, of the firm of Kinsella & Reddington, is dangerously ill of Bright's disease of the kidneys at New London, Conn., where he went a week ago for the benefit of his health.

The funeral of Anna, infant daughter of Attorney and Mrs. P. W. Stokes, of Webster avenue, will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

The annual outing meeting of the County Medical society will be held the second Tuesday of this month. It is rumored that Lake Ariel will be the spot chosen, that being favored by some of the committee in charge.

Colonel E. H. Ripple and Major W. S. Millar will leave on the 2.38 Delaware and Hudson train this afternoon for Philadelphia. They will travel from there to Glen Cairn, twenty-eight miles from Pittsburg, where the Second brigade will encamp next week.

M. J. Wichtman, of this city, has been granted a patent bearing date July 16, for the regulation of continuous current motors, which permeates the number of poles, so that the motor is changed from a two-pole to a four-pole motor or vice versa, to obtain variations of speed and torque.

WOMAN HORSE THIEF.

She Makes Off With a Rig Belonging to a Livestockman.

Thursday, about noon, a well dressed woman went to the livery of D. D. Jones & Son, on North Main avenue, and hired a horse and carriage to drive to Taylor. She said she would be back at 6 o'clock and would pay for the rig on her return.

Hour after hour went by and the rig did not come. Early yesterday morning Mr. Jones was informed by a friend that he had seen a boy driving his horse towards Clark's Summit, so Mr. Jones immediately set out after it.

Mr. Jones followed the clue and found his horse and carriage in the hotel barn at Clark's Summit. It had been left there by the woman, who said she would return soon. She has not been found.

A New Market.

S. Roos has opened a new cash market at 365 Wyoming avenue, which is stocked with the finest grades of canned goods, fresh and sealed meats of all kinds, spring chickens and fresh vegetables of every description. Everything in the Roos market is of the finest quality, and as the goods are sold strictly for cash, rock bottom prices are quoted on all goods. Customers in need of supplies for the table will do well to visit the Roos' cash market when out for provisions for the day.

Notice.

The members of Waverly lodge, No. 301, F. & A. M., will assemble at Masonic hall, Clark's Summit, Pa., on Sunday, Aug. 4, at 1 p. m. sharp, to attend the funeral of our late brother, Miles W. Bliss. Mem-bers of sister lodges are respectfully in- vited to attend. Funeral at residence in Waverly, Pa. By order of W. M.

Loans made; 7 bars for Mr. S. Roos' cash market, 365 Wyoming avenue.

THE THREE TINY THIEVES

They Make a Full Breast of Their Operations.

ENTERED SAME HOUSE TWICE

On Their Second Examination the Fact Is Elucidated That Those Juvenile Burg-lars Are Hooprod Breakers—Robbed One House Twice in a Week.

The two bold, bad, black, boy burglars, Jimmie Foster and Howley Dorsey, with their white confederate, George Seelye, were again subjected to a severe questioning by Chief of Police Simpson yesterday. Seelye stoutly maintained innocence throughout, but the colored boys swore just as hard that he was one of the gang.

Little further information was elicited by the second examination. They admitted that they twice burglarized John T. Howe's residence, but denied having taken the silver watch and gold pen, which are missed by Mr. Howe. The little fellows described their operations minutely and with such candor that there was no room left to doubt but that they did not realize the seriousness of their deeds.

One Little Reque Talked.

The Foster lad, the smallest of the trio, was the most communicative. His bare feet dangled fully six inches above the floor as he sat in the chief's office chair and his little round head scarcely appeared above the table at which he was sitting. His answers were straightforward, given without the least hesitancy and only contradicted occasionally by his companion, Dorsey, who would question the correctness of some little detail, such as the manner in which they opened a window, or whether or not they helped themselves to some preserves in a cellar, or which one of them secured the spool of thread for his kite.

As Chief Simpson believes that the boys' parents are fully capable of dealing with the children, now that they know of their misdoings, he concluded that the best thing to do was to turn them over to their parents, with the injunction to keep a watchful eye over them for the future.

WAS NO FOUL PLAY.

Italian Slept Near a Fire and the Smoke Suffocated Him.

Fuller particulars concerning the death of John Seran, who was found dead in the woods near the Northwest Thursday, have been received.

He was an Italian about 55 years of age, and was in the employ of Simpson & Watkins. He was subject to attacks of insanity, however, and it was thought that in one of them he killed himself.

Seran was last seen alive about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and was then going in the direction of the woods where his son-in-law and daughter were picking berries. When night fell and he did not return anxiety was felt by the family, and a search party formed, but no trace of the missing man could be found.

The search was continued in the morning and about 2 o'clock his son, Antonio, and his son-in-law discovered his lifeless body on the mountain.

Coroner Kelley held an autopsy, and the cause of death appeared to be due to suffocation. The supposition is that he fell asleep alongside the fire and was smothered by the smoke.

WANTS TO FLOAT BONDS.

Winton Borough Wants to Wipe Out Its Debt.

With the clerk of the courts a statement of the accounts of Winton borough was yesterday filed. The actual indebtedness is $1,759.69, and the amount of the last assessed valuation of the taxable property in the borough is $467,466. The amount of debt to be incurred is $5,000.

The court is petitioned to grant the borough officers the power to float fifty $100 bonds payable in five years, with interest at 5 per cent. The annual tax to be levied by the borough for the year 1895 for the payment of all obligations and interest will be five mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of taxable property.

A meeting of the town council of the borough in relation to the indebtedness as above stated was held on July 29, and it was resolved that the council authorize the issuance of bonds.

ST. LEO'S EXCURSION.

It Will Be Run to New York August 9.

The National Catholic Total Abstinence union convention will be held in the metropolis the following day. All the leading temperance advocates of the world will be present. Fare, $4.50; tickets, good for ten days. Tickets for sale at Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot and 128 Lackawanna avenue. The excursion leaves the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot Aug. 6, at 3:34 p. m.

CHASED THE DUCK.

And He Caught It and Twisted Its Wind-pipe until It Died.

Maude Belnap, of Dunmore, owned a fine duck that had one fault; it was too fond of rambling from its own friends. Peter Reiber lives next door and took exception to the visits of the duck. He caught it and killed it.

He was arrested and could not furnish bail, the charge against him being malicious mischief. Alderman Conroy committed him to the county jail.

"LETTING IN THE JUNGLE."

Brought Vividly Before an Audience at Elm Park Church.

Rev. L. R. Janney, who for eleven years was a missionary in India, last evening, at the Elm Park church, gave one of his very entertaining and in-structive lectures on his personal ob-servations in that most wonderful land. He took as his subject, "Jungle Life in India," telling in an extremely en-tertaining manner of the animals, serpents, poisonous insects and the na-tives, most interesting of all, besides many experiences which he himself en-counterred during his long stay among the idolatrous Hindoos. A number of Hindoo idols and a curious necklace placed upon Mr. Janney's neck by the Rajah of Joonagher were exhibited.

Mr. Janney was at one time a school-mate of Captain W. A. May, of this city.

CAPTAIN IS WILLING.

Officer Edwards Not Greatly Disturbed By the Sweeney Resolution.

Police Captain Edwards said yesterday, in a laughing tone, that he was ready and willing to be "sweened."

"If they are going to have an invest-igation," he added, "I want them to have Select Councilman Wade Finn there. Just to make it interesting, you know."

The general opinion about the city yesterday was that the resolution is somewhat of a joke.

ADULTERATED MILK.

Little of It in the Market Is Traced to Dishonest Drivers—Details of the Board of Health Meeting.

A regular meeting of the board of health was held yesterday.

Secretary Briggs read his report for the month of July. It is as follows: Deaths, 179; births, 159; marriages, 16; new cases of contagious diseases, scarlet fever, 7; diphtheria, 11; typhoid fever, 1; whooping cough, 1; total, 20. Nine deaths resulted from contagious diseases.

The report of Dr. Allen, health officer, dealt with the alleged pollution of the waters of the Stafford Meadow Brook by the drainage waters from the Hand brewery. In the health officer's opinion and that of many physicians, who had attended sick persons in that neighborhood, although there were no nauseous smells arising at times, the sickness was not due to them. In view of the fact that the sewer will be a reality on the South Side before many months have elapsed the board decided that it would work a hardship on Mr. Hand to compel him to construct a private sewer.

According to Food Inspector Thomas' report, the quality of the milk that reaches the Scranton dealers is much better than it has ever been heretofore. About all of the adulterated milk that is discovered in the hands of local dealers comes from Newton and the country near it. A very plausible explanation of the adulteration is furnished by a man named Rosenkranz from that vicinity, who reports that the driver of one of the wagons sold about 35 per cent. of the milk on the road and then put in a sufficient amount of water to make good the quantity.

The secretary was instructed by motion to have about five gallons of the water from the tannery that runs into the brook at Elmhurst sent to the Dr. Cresson, chemist of the state board of health, for a chemical and microscopic analysis; also the same quantity of the drinking water furnished to the city.

At the crematory during the past month 2,576 barrels of garbage were burned; also 11 dogs, 2 cats, 1 hog, 1 heifer, 1 alligator, 1 crane and 1 rac-coon.

SUSPICIOUS OF VIOLENCE.

Coroner Kelley Asked to Look Into the Sudden and Mysterious Death of Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Sarah Stewart, aged 64 years, who lived with her grown-up son, James, at the corner of Penn avenue and New York street, was found dead on the kitchen floor yesterday morning.

The family assert that she died from heart failure, but some of the neigh-bors have notified Coroner Kelley that they are not wholly satisfied with this theory and suggest an investigation.

There was some talk of bruises being discovered on the body, but Undertaker W. A. Raub said there was no evidence of violence, although there were some slight bruises on the body such as would be produced by a fall.

Neighbors, it is alleged, heard loud and angry voices on the previous night and believe that a quarrel took place.

Coroner Kelley upon his return from Carbonate last night, learning of these allegations, decided to investigate, and will hold an inquest today.

LOOKING FOR QUAY OATS.

Olyphant Horse Was Not Particular Where He Went.

A horse belonging to Barber Ed. Jones, of Olyphant, ran away in Pine Brook last evening and wound up in the Republican building, Washington avenue.

The animal rushed down Washington avenue and when a man attempted to head him off turned suddenly and bolted through the open door of the Re-publican building, rushed along the corridor and was at the top of the first short flight of stairs attempting to mount the second when he was cap-tured and led out with his legs out of joint.

BURNED BY GAS.

Miner Severely Scorched in an Explosion Yesterday.

As he was about to touch off a squib preparatory to firing a blast yesterday, a miner in the Sand Banks shaft was severely burned by an explosion of gas which ignited from a "blower."

He is 49 years of age and well known. The mine ambulance removed him to the Moses Taylor hospital. There is no danger that the burns will prove fatal.

YE ANCIENT ROADWAYS

City Engineer Phillips is Trying to Locate Them.

SOME QUEER OLD LANDMARKS

Indian Burying Grounds, Widows' Houses, and Stumps Near Blacksmith Shops Served as Marks in the Days of Our First Thoroughfares.

Frequently City Engineer Phillips is called upon to exactly define the loca-tion and original directions of certain roads, and every day almost he is asked to settle some disputed point about a fence line. This he has found to be a very difficult and in the majority of cases an almost impossible task, owing to the fact that some of the roads were laid out nearly one hundred years ago, and the landmarks, by which their course were designated, have long since disappeared.

A recent case which has come to the attention of the city engineer's de-partment shows how the original location of a road may be lost without possibility of its ever being found again.

The Scranton Traction company com-plaints that after it had placed its tracks along the center of North Main avenue, near the Richmond farm, ac-cording to the surveys of the city en-gineer, the telephone company erected poles in such close proximity to the tracks that a person riding on the foot board of a car is liable to be crushed against a pole. In answer to this ob-jection the telephone company says to the city engineer: "Give us curb lines and we will place our poles there."

Streets Change Their Courses.

The city engineer proceeded to get the dimensions and course of the street and found that the road has changed its location, and instead of being fifty feet in width, as the original survey called for, it is now wider than forty feet in any place. Now the city engineer will have to proceed against the property holders along the route to recover the ten feet or so of the old road that has been illegally occupied.

To get some idea of what these very ancient roads, such as Main avenue, West Market street, the like, re-ferred out, Mr. Phillips has begun a search of the oldest records in the de-partment, intending from these to es-tablish on a map as accurately as is possible the original course of the old-time thoroughfares.

To indicate what a difficult task the city engineer has set out to accomplish a personal survey of the old landmarks, street and, further on, the Abington turnpike. It is the introduction of the order of court establishing the road and extracts from the surveys sub-mitted with the petition, and which were finally adopted. It is dated November, 1801, and reads thus:

Many Years Ago.

Road in Providence township near the old Indian burying ground. The petition of Samuel Hull and others was read praying for viewers to be ap-pointed to view and lay out a road in Providence township, leading north-west from the side of Lackawanna river, to begin at or near where a road was formerly marked out, running easterly from the aforesaid road over said river near the old Indian burying ground, so as to intersect the road lead-ing by where the Widow Aylesworth now lives and then to run from the aforesaid place of beginning in a west-ly course through the gap on the mountain called Leggett's gap, until it intersects the road leading from Kee-ler's ferry to the Great Bend, from thence to be continued to the mouth of Tunkhannock creek.

Then follows the technical descrip-tion of the route, an extract from which is appended:

North 47 degrees west 100 rods, thence north 80 degrees west 360 rods to a pepperage sapling, thence north 45 de-grees west 100 rods to a black birch tree, thence north 40 degrees west 220 rods to a hemlock tree, thence north 20 degrees west 380 rods to a hemlock tree, thence north 30 degrees west 260 rods, thence north 35 degrees west 220 rods to a white wood tree, thence north 60 degrees west 260 rods to a maple tree, etc.

After turning at the "stump below the blacksmith shop" and cutting up divers such intelligent capers, it winds up at "a hemlock tree in a line of divi-sion between Jonathan Dean and Job Tripp."

Now all this information would be very useful, no doubt, to the fin de siecle surveyors if Widow Aylesworth's house was still standing and if the stump below the blacksmith shop and the various hemlock, black birch and pepperage sapplings of A. D. 1801 could only establish their identity, but as they can't, it is possible that City En-gineer Phillips will have to do some of the tallest guessing that he was ever called upon to do.

HERE IS A CHANCE.

Jersey Central Will Run an Excursion Al-most Free to the Seashore.

A week from today the Central Rail-road of New Jersey will conduct an excursion from this city to Long Branch, Ocean Grove and Asbury Park, for which special excursion tickets will be sold, the fare for the round trip being $2.35. This is the cheapest fare to these popular resorts this summer.

The tickets are good to go only on the train leaving the city at 8 a. m., Aug. 10; returning the excursion train will leave Ocean Grove and Asbury Park at 8:02 a. m., 12:05 and 2:10 p. m.; Long Branch at 8:19 a. m., 12:25 and 2:35 p. m. on Monday, Aug. 12. The train will arrive at the seashore in time to give the excursionists Saturday and Sunday there.

There is already a large demand for tickets, and it points to be one of the most popular trips of the season.

ONE HUNDRED AND SIX.

That is the Amount Subscribed for the Band Stand.

Twelve dollars more were added to the amount previously acknowledged toward the erection of a band stand for open air free concerts. Secretary D. B. Atherton did not go out of his office yesterday to solicit; he received the subscriptions from the following voluntary contributors:

ELMHURST.

Hotel Elmhurst is crowded with guests this season.

A wall has been erected by the Dela-ware, Lackawanna and Western in front of the postoffice.

The Junior Endeavor society will meet hereafter Saturdays at 7 p. m.

Rev. P. H. Brooks, of Wilkes-Barre, will fill the Presbyterian pulpit tomor-row.

Mrs. Sarah Giddis, of Olive street, Scranton, is the guest of Mrs. H. Wil-cox.

S. J. Knedler, M. D., of Allentown, will locate here the last of the month, and will have charge of Dr. J. C. Bate-son's practice, the latter having de-cided to devote more time to his Scranton office.

Dr. Bateson was called over to Moosie Lake yesterday morning to attend a servant girl in the household of I. X. Grier. The girl, whose name could not be ascertained, was subject to attacks of heart trouble, as a result of inflamma-tory rheumatism, and this being unusually severe she died yesterday noon. Her body will be removed today to her home in Danville.

OFFICER GURRELL SPRINTS.

Runs Down a Lively Youth After a Long Chase.

A fellow named Mallia gave Officer Gurrell a lively chase yesterday after-noon.

He was insulting people and begging money in the vicinity of the quack medicine tent on South Washington avenue, and it is said that he struck two women who resented his insults. An officer was sent for and Officer Gurrell was dispatched to the scene. Mallia was found loitering about the Jersey tracks.

At the approach of the officer he started on a run, and with the officer in hot pursuit, headed towards the cen-tral city. The chase attracted hun-dreds of people, and by the time the fugitive was run down at the Jersey Central station, an immense crowd was attracted.

It required the combined efforts of Officer Gurrell and Officer Duggan to take the fellow to the station house. His face was none the better for wear after Officer Gurrell brought him under subjection.

Paine's Celery Compound Restores Lost Nervous Energy.

For those many women who have suf-fered through the in-door life of winter and spring with tired, nerves, sleep-lessness, neuralgia, rheumatism, the dyspepsia that is best expressed by the words "no appetite"—for the many worn-out women, many of whom will get no real vacation, but must attend the whole summer long to household duties—for such women there is every need now of a brisker feeding of the re-duced blood and nervous tissues by means of the best nutritive agent in the wide world today—Paine's celery compound.

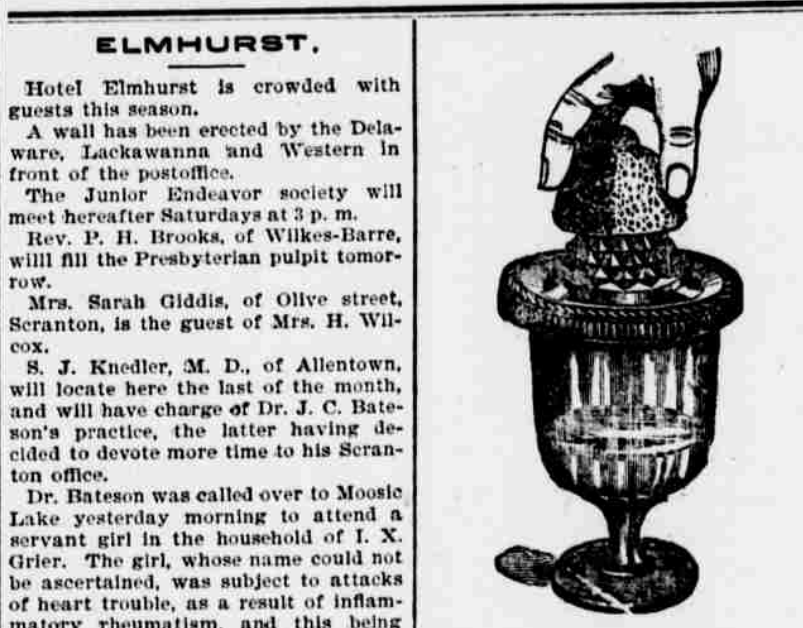

After building up the body by the use of this great modern restorative, dis-eases of special organs, heart troubles, kidney disease, dyspepsia and sleepless-ness will disappear.

Neglect to satisfy the demands of the nervous system by rapid, complete nourishment of all its parts, carries heavy penalties. Paine's celery com-pound, more effectively than anything else the world has yet known, restores health to men and women whose blood has been robbed of vitality from what-ever cause, and whose nerves have lost their healthy tone. Persons suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia and any of the countless results of loss of nerve power find a marked change for the bet-ter almost at once upon faithfully using Paine's celery compound.

Mrs. James Arthur, whose portrait is given above, writing from her home in Spokane, Wash., says:

"I suffered for three years with neu-ralgia and rheumatism. I tried differ-ent remedies which would give me only temporary relief. Last year in January and through the spring months I suf-fered terribly. I could walk only a short distance, and some days not at all. But then I began for the first time to use Paine's celery compound. It cured me permanently, and I have not been troubled since! My knees were so bad last year that I could not sit down or get up alone. Now I walk every day, and it causes no stiffness or lameness in the joints."

Testimonials from men and women in every state and county and town in the country might be published telling of similar speedy cures. They carry this plain advice to other sufferers: Take Paine's celery compound.
