LIGHTNING WRECKED BY Terrible Catastrophe at the Quakertown Methodist Church. SEVERAL PERSONS INJURED the emperor.

Victims of the Bolt Are Rendered Un conscions-The Congregation in a Wild Panio-Stampede of Frightened-Track of the Bolt.

Flemington, N. J., Aug. 4.-The words of a fervent benediction had scarcely left the lips of Rev. Mr. Bowman, in the Methodist church at Quakertown, seven miles above here, today, when there came a blinding flash of lightning and a terrifying burst of thunder that all but wrecked the little building. The bolt entered the church and injured a score of people, several of them prob-ably fatally. The list of those most seriously injured follows: James Hoff, Minnie Frace, Miss K. Hoffman, Asa Bannon, the sexton, Mrs. Bowman, wife of the pastor. The bolt seemed to enter the edifice by the basement, shooting up through the floor and bursting with the force of a huge cannon. Members of the con-gregation who had started to leave, or were standing in groups conversing with each other, were thrown into a wild panic, while at least twenty of them received injuries more or less Amid the tumult of screaming won any crying children, and groans of the injured, there was a stampede of fright-ened horses under the sheds outside. A number of them broke their tethers and ran away, wrecking the carriages to which they were attached and dashed down sections of fencing. Pastor Bowman and scores of willing hands were soon at work among the stricken ones. A number of them were unconscions, and it was thought at first they had been killed outright. They were laid upon the pew cushions. The parsonage, which adjoins the church, was converted into a hospital. The Sexton's Sad Plight. All the clothing was torn from Sexton

Bannon, while his shoes looked as though they had been run through a corn sheller. He is suffering from the shock and can hardly recover. The bolt struck through the floor right at the feet of Minnie Frace and she was thrown down with great vio lence. Her life is dispaired of. Mrs. Bowman, who stood near Mis Frace, was also thrown down by the awful explosion. Her hat was torn from her head and a steel ripped clean out of her corset. She is still uncon scious from the shock. James Hoff got the full force of the shock, and he lies in a semi-conscious ondition.

Examination of the building after the excitement had subsided somewhat showed that the bolt had struck an outer wall, ran down to the basement sixty feet to the joists, and shot up through the floor like a huge bullet. The large bell in the tower was loosened from its hangings, and only a slender strip of scantling kept it from crashing down upon the heads of scores of people at the doorway.

Hawley, Aug. 4.-Harry Lynn, aged 13 years, his brother, Oscar Lynn, and another young man went bathing this afternoon about 2 o'clock in the Paupack river, at a point about five miles from this place. While they were thus enjoying themselves Harry was carried into deep water, and, being unable to swim, was drowned before assistance could reach him. His remains were brought to his home in this place about 6.30 this evening.

BATTLE IN SUSQUEHANNA, The Hastings Republicans Put Up a Lively

Fight Against Bossism-Influence of The Tribune.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Montrose, Pa., Aug. 4 .- One of the flercest factional battles ever known in the history of Susquehanna county was fought yesterday. The Hastings and Quay leaders were collectively and in-dividually on the qui vive. Never before has the Republican party been so great cynosure as in the past month. The local Quay leaders deny that their master called them to Scranton, and that it was simply a coincidence that they all happened to run down and see him. They are also unneces sarily loud in their denial of the charge that Quay currency found its way to Susquehanna.

The higher grade Republicans were invariably for Hastings, and the Quay eaders were surprised when they found that Montrose, heretofore Quay from pit to dome, gave Hastings' delegates 115 votes, and Quay delegates 146. They knew then that their timbers were be ginning to rot, and while the present indications point to the county still being numbered among Quay's, it also shows that he has lost considerable ground. The Tribune was the bone of contention among the Quay men, and it is surprising to note what a strong influence it has had in this section. At the polls was frequently heard, "A vote for the Hastings delegates means a vote for the Scranton Tribune." Naturally the Quay men do not relish the fearless and open manner of the paper, and some are denouncing it. to Your correspondent was unable learn the total vote of the county, and it will not be known until Monday.

Williams was nothing loth to try the experiment suggested by Barnes and so the latter climbed into the big steel box, and curled up in the shallow vacancy between the row of drawers and the door. The heavy door swung shut and Williams pulled the lever that forces it into its jamb. He did not pull the lever clear over, but he pulled it so far that when he heard Barnes faintly calling for him to open the door a few minutes later, it could not be moved.

Williams jerked and tugged at the door. He heard Barnes begging for his release in barely audible tones, and strained every muscle to move the door. O. A. Hesla heard the call from a back

Princeton, Ill., Aug. 4.-The Italians of Spring Valley broke out today in a war upon the negroes, with a view of either massacreing them or driving them from without the city limits. The following negroes were seriously injured:

Granville Lewis, aged 45 years, may die; Clem L. Martin, aged 32, seriously injured; Norman Bird, aged 14; William Lee, aged 34 years; Jube Sterritt, aged 47 year: Oscar Prim, bruised with rocks and stones; Silas Burken, bruised with clubs and shot; Jude Stuart, Jim Kelly, aged 26 years; Will Beck, aged 30 years internal injuries; Frank Turner, aged is years, struck in back and shoulders by about forty buckshot; Frank Burns, head badly bruised and internal injurles.

An Italian Waylaid.

The Italians for many months have wished to drive the negroes out of the coal mining belt, and today a plausible excuse for so doing presented itself.

At 1 o'clock this morning an Italian was waylaid on the public highway by four negroes and robbed and shot four times, from the effects of which he cannot live until morning. A mass meeting of the Italians was called and at 10 o'clock a mob of over 300 that gathered. started out for the negro village, which s located two miles west of Spring Valley. They were headed by the Spring Valley Italian band, and to decelve the negroes into thinking the assembly a peaceable one, this band rendered several national airs. The negroes, as a result, remained in their nomes. The Italians fell on to them like a lot of Indians. The men were dragged out, clubbed, trampled upon and made the targets for the shotguns, rifles and small arms the mob had brought with them. The women were insulted, slapped and two of them while begging for mercy were shot down and fatally injured.

Sheriff Clark, of Princeton, was telegraphed for and arrived on the ground with a posse, but came too late, as the work had long been done before he arrived. The negroes fled terror-stricken over the surrounding hills, and tonightt are sleeping under trees and barns with the exception of a few whom the farmers are sheltering. Many of the injured are expected to die before morning. No arrests, as yet, have been attempted.

Mrs. Jennie Jones Drowned in the Delaware River.

Philadelphia, Aug. 4 .- A drowning that has the appearance of a murder took place in the Delaware river' last night. Barney Hayes, aged 22 years, Mrs. Jennie Jones, aged 35, and her sister, Harriet McCann, and Patrick Mc-Garry, aged 17, started out in a boat last evening to take a row on the river. There was a bottle of whiskey in the party and Hayes imbibed freely of it. The boat was rowed across to the Jersey shore, and here the party landed. The Jones woman wanted to return and Hayes resented this implied reflection on the entertaining powers of the party by beating and kicking the wo man severely. Peace was patched up, and the four returned to the boat and resumed the row. Mrs. Jones again said she wanted to return home and Hayes threatened to throw her over board if she did not keep quiet. Whether Hayes carried out his threat was preparing to throw a bomb which will be a task for the coroner to find out. At any rate the woman went overboard and was drowned. The Mc-Cann woman asserts Hayes threw her sister into the river, although she ad-mits she did not see him do it. Hayes s a dissolute fellow with no home, and the police found him asleep and drunk on a pile of boards on the wharf. Hayes oux was carried to the mayorality ouse, but died immediately after his was committed to await the coroner's action.
