VICTORY FOR HASTINGS.

There Is Little Doubt That Luzerne Has

Fallen Into Line. is little doubt that Hastings has achieved a magnificent victory in Luzerne county in the fight at the Republican primaries last Saturday. Out of the nine state delegates to go to the convention from Luzerne there is little doubt that seven will be for Hastings, chance of securing the eighth. The delegates who will probably go to the state convention are as follows: First district, Dr. W. O. Weaver, and some other man firmly pledged to support the administration; Second distriet, J. D. Woodworth, Shickshinny, Alexander McDongall, West Pittston; Third district, William Oldfield, Nanticoke, Chris Wren, Plymouth; Fourth district, A. B. Smith, Pittston; Sixth district, C. S. Detro, of Ashley.

In this city the Quay men got only three out of thirty-nine delegates elected, although there were some close fights in many wards. The city delegates to the district convention, with their preferences, are as follows:

First ward - First district, William Smithey, H.; Second district, N. Pier-Second ward-First district, William Smeator, H.: Second district, Henry Deson, H.

Third ward-First district, John Conner, H.; David B. Thomas, H.; John Williams, H. Fourth ward—Bilward Carpenter, H.

Fifth ward—First district, Dr. A. G.
Fell, H.; Second district, Anthony

Sixth ward-First district, George Wallace, H.; Second district, George Wal-lace, H.; Second district, Harry Coxe, H. Seventh ward—Soi Bacharach, H. Eighth ward—First district, William Struthers, H.; Second district, Charles

Ninth ward-First district, Reese W. Morgan, H.; Second district, George St. Tenth ward-Thomas Atherton, H.

Eleventh ward-First district, John Ney, H.; Second district, W. S. Hicks, H.; Third district, M. Hoffmeler, H. Twelfth ward-First district, P. Kelth-

line, H.; Second district, Frank Stevens, H .: Third district, J. Laymester, H. Thirtsenth ward-First district, W. S. Robinson, H.; Second district, Paul Sherwood, H.; Third district, Ben Dane, H.; Fourth district, Walter Ricker, H.; Fifth district, tie. Thomas Phillips, H., and

Sixteenth ward-First district, George Weitzel, H.; Second district, Robert Marcy, Q.; Third district, Charles Gard-

In the first district Dr. W. G. Weaver will certainly go to the state convention as a delegate, and Hon. H. W. Palmer can go if he will announce himself for Hastings. If he refuses to do this, then the district convention will choose a man who will announce himself, probably Attorney A. L. Williams. However, in any case, it may be counted on vention. The delegates who go to the district convention tonight will not take any fooling in this matter, and if Mr. Palmer wants to go to this convention, he must come out flat-footed for

In the Second district, West Pittston and Exeter went solidly for Quay, and the senator very happy. When the later returns began to come in, however, and the other districts went all for Hastings, it began to look black and Hastings has probably carried the Goward Armstrong, the Quay man in the Thing district, failed utterly, being beaten in his own town, Plymouth, Wren and Oldfield and other parts of the district were all for Hastings. It is in this district that Hon. George W. Shonk, a close friend of Quay, has been making a hard fight for Armstrong, but despite his efforts Armstrong was

In the Fourth, everything went for Hastings, although the Quay men made a bot fight. Charles Voorhees and G. M. Davis, of Philadelphia, were in this region fighting the Hastings battle all day Saturday. In this district the battle was hotter than any political fight ever seen in the county. Hazleton city went solid for (Hastings, and at Upper Lehigh, Lattimer, Stockton, etc., there was little opposition to the administra-

The result is a little bit doubtful in the Fifth, which the Hastings people had not watched, and as a consequence Quay men, getting in some quiet work, did very well, getting eight out of twelve men in Pitteton alone. It may be that Smith is beaten here, but the vote will be close. Detro carried the sixth, although John Graham made a good fight. In Ashley Graham got two out of three, but in the near by districts the vote was about all Hastings, and Detro will probably represent that district in the Michael Marsinkouski, a Polander, was arrested on Saturday night and taken before Alderman Honeywell for forgery and obtaining goods under false pretenses. Marsinkouski sells prayer books and Bibles, receiving his goods from a firm in Chicago. Some time ago, it it alleged, he sent an order forging the name of Father Tomeavitch, pastor of the Plymouth Polish Catholic church, to it. Through Frank Finn, one of the church trustees, the pastor had Marsinkouski arrested. The evidence showed the defendant to be quite a slippery fellow, having been before Squire Honeywell and also before 'Squire Lookyer before, once for a similar charge. He was required to give ball for $1,000, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Married at Kingston

Rev. Dr. Edwards, of Kingston, on Saturday last, united in marriage Rev. Owen Lloyd Morris, of West Bromwick, England, and Miss Gwendoline C. Ed-England, and Miss Gwendoline C. Edwards, of Kingston, at the home of the bride's parents on Page street. Morgan O. and Miss Annie M. Edwards were best man and bridesmaid. The bridal party left at 1.85 for Niagara and Toronto. They will sail for England on Aug. II, where Mr. Morrie is pastor of a large and flourishing Congregational church. He is a graduate of Brecon college, and a matriculate of London uni-active church workers in the Edwardsville Congregational church.

TORN TO PIECES.

Awful Fate of Henry Sturdevant, an Employe of the Lehigh Valley Company. On Saturday morning last, Henry Sturdevant, an employe of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, who weighed the coal for the engines and kept account of the same, lost his life in the valley yards, near the round-He was about 65 years old, and fived at Luzerne, where he had a comfortable home. The unfortunate man stepped from one engine directly in the way of another that was coming at good speed. He had not noticed its approach and being thrown under the wheels his body was literally torn to pieces. The body was removed to the man's late home in Luzerne. He is surrived by his widow and an adopted daughter, Flora; a sister, Mrs. John R. White, who resides on Barney street, this city; three sisters, Mrs. Eliza Wakefield, Mrs. Mary Lacey and Mrs. Lydia Wakefield, who live near Skinner's Eddy, Wyoming county, and two brothers and two sisters, who live in the

Mr. Sturdevant was a distant relative of the Sturdevants of this city. He had an eventful career. When a young boy he had his right arm taken off near the shoulder by a thrashing machine. When he grew to manhood he had three fingers of the left hand taken off in a eash and blind factory at Binghamton. Then he had only the thumb and index finger, which he used to wonderful advantage, since he always earned his living without aid from any source and saved money enough to build a house. About a year ago he met with an accident from being thrown from an engine at the round house. At this time he was idle for several months.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his home in Luzerne borough. Interment will be made in the Forty Fort cemetery.

LOST IN THE WOODS.

Disagrepable Experience of a Party of Picnickers at Wanamie Reservoir. A few days ago a party of young people, who went to the Wanamie reservoir for a day's outing, met with a most disagreeable experience. The party consisted of the Misses Stewart, daughters of Superintendent Gibson Stewart, of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre: Misses Grace Le Grand, Ida Nesbitt, Bertha Marshall, Gertie Oliver and Messrs, Garrahan, Le Grand and Arthur Morgan. The young people went to Wanamie early in the morning, intending to return on the work train at night, but were not at the depot when the train pulled out. Later in the evening Superintendent Stewart received a message informing him that the party had beome separated in the woods, and that the ladies could not be found.

Dispatcher Davenport quickly got an engine and crew, and with a passenger car, started for Wanamie. Besides the dispatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and one or two friends were on board. When they arrived at Wanamie every effort had been made to find them. Searching parties were sent out, and about 9 o'clock the rescuers came in with the lost ones. They had taken the wrong road, and, instead of wandering aimin any case, it may be counted on lessly about, had very sensibly sat Wilkes-Barre city will send two down and awaited their rescue.

UP FROM ALLENTOWN.

Silk Mill Employes View the Sights o Wyoming's Hub.

About 1,200 Allentown people visited the hub of Wyoming Valley Saturday and their presence contributed greatly to the life and bustle of the streets. They came up on the Central and spent the morning at Mountain Park, coming down to Wilkes-Barre for dinner, and returning to the park for dancing and out-of-door receation this afternoon The immense excursion was under the auspices of the Lehigh Valley Y. B. N., and was made up of the operatives of the Adelaide silk mill of Allentown.

They were a joyous, good-looking crowd, and brought up the famous Allentown band with them. Although only two-thirds of the band were present, its playing under the leadership of Martin Klinges was very fine, and it may well be considered one of the best bands in eastern Pennsylvania. The band tendered a number of serenades at the various newspaper offices and its work, was generally remarked upon as being very fine.

A Slight Fire. While engine No. 348, of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, was being fired up at the Valley woodyard, at North Wilkes-Barre, on Saturday, the grates were overturned and the hot coals thrown upon the woodwork. A and, although the men made a good fight, the fire could not be controlled, and the department was called out The damage done was light.

Hurt in the Mines. Edward Roberts had two ribs frac tured by a fall of coal in the Woodward mine on Saturday. He was taken to his home, and will be able to be around again in a few days.

Paul, little 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kane, of North Main street, was the victim of a very painful accident yesterday afternoon. The little fellow had a nitro-glycerine cap of the kind used in exploding dynamite harges when blasting. He laid it upon a stone and struck it with another stone. It exploded, blowing off a portion of his hand and injuring him about the face and body. It was found necessary to amputate the little finger at the second joint and the third finger at the first joint. At first it was feared the injury would result in the loss of both eyes. An examination, however, demonstrated that the eyes were only slightly injured.

INLAND SEA SERPENT.

ported that a party of Grand Rapids young men, cruising north along the ast shore of Lake Michigan, went ashore in the evening near Ludington and built a fire by the side of a fallen tree about five feet in diameter and put up their tents for the night. After the night got to be pitch dark and their fire was blazing high in the air, giving the trees of the surrounding forest the appearance of ghostly giant sentinels staring at them, they were greatly surprised to witness the departure of the ntire tree against which their fire was burning into the forest with a crawling

They huddled together in their tents until morning, terror stricken, and then, after procuring axes and guns, started on the trail, bound to solve the mystery. Their investigations proved that the tree was about ninety feet long and hollow the entire length, the ole being about four feet in diameter that a snake probably a rod and a half in length had attempted to craw through this hollow and the recent howers fell suddenly upon the tree and swelled it to his body, until he could get no further. The intense heat of the camp fire made it uncomfortably warm for him and so be just crawled off, log and all.

The party succeeded in killing him by sawing the log in several places, and that will probably be the last of the great inland sea serpent for this season.

PENSION DECISIONS.

Service in the Confederate Army Will Be Assumed as Voluntary.

Washington, Aug. 4.—In a recent pen ion case Assistant Secretary Reynolds, of the interior department, decided that where there is a record of service in the Confederate army, such record failing to show whether the service was voluntary or involuntary, it will be pre-sumed that service was voluntary, but such presumption may be rebutted, the ourden of proof being on the claimant. Where the service was voluntary the claimant is not entitled to a pension, but where the service was wholly com pulsory he may be.

In another case the assistant secretary holds that when a soldier was discharged to re-enlist and did then and there re-enlist as a veteran volun-teer and thereafter deserted from the service and never returned to or was discharged from such service, he is not pensionable under any law for any disability contracted under the en-listment from which he was discharged or that from which he deserted.

85 Years of Age.
Vincennes, Ind., Aug. 4.—The twentyfourth annual meeting of the Knox County Old Settlers' association was held today. The principal address was delivered by Henry S. Cauthorn, of this

They were who were born Cot. 28, 1810. They were raised in Knox county on a farm. They each raised large families and are now blessed with children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Both of these aged men withdrew from actual labor some years ago, moved to this city, and are living in retirement. They will soom be 25 years of age.

SPANISH GENERAL IN A TRAP

It Is Believed That General Macco Can Hold at Bay the Eight Thousand Troops Sent Out to Relieve Campos.

New York, Aug. 4.-The belief is general among the officers and leaders of the Cuban Revolutionary society in this city that Captain General Camp is practically a prisoner, surrounded by the insurgents under Antonio Maceo at Bayamo, where he found refuge after Senor Palma, the delegate to the insurgent Cuban government from the clubs in America, has received a letter from one of his correspondents in Cuba, dated July 22, in which it is said that Campos was wounded in the right leg. and is now in Bayamo, unable to leave the town. Maceo, it says, has about 5,000 men, and the town is so situated that he is able to control all the approache to it, and will not find it difficult to hold at bay 8,000 Spaniards who are hastening to the rescue of Campos.

This information coincides with the statements of Charles Lynn, who arrived from Havana on the steamer Santiago on July 27.

Bayamo lies in a large plain forty miles from the town of Manzanillo, which is its seaport. The country between the towns is marshy, and is covered by a thick growth of forest. At the beginning of the war Bayamo had a population of 16,000. A portion of the town was burned by the insurgents early in the struggle. Mr. Palma said vesterday that he placed but little reliance on the reports that Campos had discharged a number of political prisoners in Havana.

Deluge of Troops. The Spanish government has notified the Spanish Steamship company to hold its ships in readiness to transport 30,-000 or 40,000 troops to Cuba between Aug. 20 and Sept. 10. The trip from Spain to Cuba requires fourteen days for the transport ships. These troops are to be used in the fall campaign, which will begin as soon as the rainy season is ended. The appeal for aid, issued last week.

has brought forth a generous response from all our friends, and we are receiving satisfactory returns from our solicitors," said Mr. Palma yesterday. In reply to a question about the shipment of arms to Cuba, he said: "We are helping our brothers in the field in evey way that iles in our power, but at the same time we wish it under stood that we are obeying the laws of the United States to the letter." Warfare Commenced Against Sunday Theaters and Park Pavilions. Duluth, Aug. 4.—The Sunday-closing craze has reached this city, and some of the most prominent people of Duluth are now circulating a petition asking the court to enjoin the managers of the various theaters from giving any performances on Sundays. This move is directed at one of the theaters which has been advertising to present a series of living pictures, and at the street railway company, at whose pavilion Sunday performances of a somewhat loud nature have been given for some time past.

The crusade was begun on account of the street rallway company having invited the clergymen to attend a performance at the pavillon just after the Sunday performances had been declared against. The theater people declare that if they are prevented from giving exhibitions on Sunday nothing else shall run. The outlook is good for a return to the old-time blue laws.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH Colorado Engineer Saves His Passengers

by Prompt Action. Wolcott, Col., Aug. 4 .- As the Rio Grande express, east-bound, with 200 passengers, passed this morning a fatal accident was averted by the prompt action of the engineer. While running along the high cliffs a rock weighing ten tons fell from the top of the canon, a height of a thousand feet, and scattered for a distance of two rods. Engineer Woolams was in the leading engine and, calling to his fireman, reversed and both men jumped into the The next moment the engine broke away from the second and tumbled down the canon, a distance of thirty feet. President Dodge, of the Rio Grande Western, was in his private car, but sustained no injury. President E. T. Woman Doctor Admits That She Administered the Wrong Drug. Westfield, Mass., Aug. 4.—The medical examiner conducted an autopsy yesterday on the body of Miss Lizzle L. French, who died on Wednesday night, because of rumors that she had been polsoned by mistake. Dr. Sigourney T. Cowles, a woman physician, said that she treated Miss French about two weeks ago, and sent for two prescriptions, one of bichloride of mercury and the other boracle acid.

She used the mercury bichloride by mistake, and says that the labels on the bottles had been transferred. She did not notify the druggist for some days, The labels are certainly transferred now, and they are in the medical examiner's custody. Dr. Cowles said the girl looked so badly when she left her office that she followed her. Then she discovered the fatal mistake.
