SCRANTON, AUGUST 7, 1895.

day's convention belonged to Mr. Wright, and it obeyed him as implicitly as Mr. Wright obeys orders from Senator Quay.

The friends of Judge Stewart, of Chambersburg, seem to feel confident that Mr. Stewart will be named by the state convention for a Superior court judgeship in place of George B. Orady, of Huntington; but it is our belief that Judge Stewart himself would spurn a nomination forced at the expense of one of the governor's appointees.

From Acid to Honey. After trying, without avail, the tactics of abuse, during which period no previous governor has been treated to the vituperation poured out upon Governor Hastings, the Quay shouters have apparently received orders to try a new trick.

United—Powerful. The Wilkes-Barre Record, we are pleased to see, reproduces with approving comment the suggestion of The Tribune, that the two great and important counties of Luzerne and Lackawanna stand united politically and exert the potentiality in state politics to which they are entitled.

The Quays organs that are attacking Captain John C. Delaney's official work as Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds, apparently forget that it was the senator himself who is Captain Delaney's strongest indorser.

The Luzerne Judgeship. The Republicans of Luzerne yesterday nominated Lyman Hakes Bennett for judge to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Charles E. Rice.

Blames the New Man. "If I understand what is meant by the new woman, I do not like her." So says Walter Wellman in an article in the Bar Harbor letter to the Times-Herald, and the American who more than any other individual in the world is responsible for what is known as the "new woman movement" in this country.

Justice for the Red Man. One of the most consummately brutal epigrams yet coined by our self-proclaimed civilization was the dictum, recalled by the recent Bannock troubles in the west, that "the only good Indian is a dead Indian."

Third Term Sam's Convention. Third-term Register and Recorder Wright's county convention at Montrose, yesterday, did not have the exceeding honor to pass a resolution denouncing in Third-term Sam's choicest language, for which The Tribune bows its acknowledgments.

Indian pupils on the fertile farms of the Cumberland valley, where many of them labor during their midsummer's vacation; and the almost uniform testimony of their employers is that, upon the whole, they are a distinct improvement upon the average white labor available in the process of agriculture.

The officials of the Carlisle school say it is extremely uncommon for an educated Indian to relapse into his original condition. If an accurate census were taken of the whites who after enjoying all the advantages of the public and collegiate schools, deteriorate into criminals or drones, it is probable that the percentage of failures would be bound to exceed that which obtains among the schooled Indians.

The Quays organs are just now boasting of the victories they are going to achieve in Montgomery and Lycoming, precisely as they did in Bucks, Center and other counties.

The defeat of the administration delegates in Huntington county, has set going a number of stories to the effect that Judge Orady, feeling the slight implied in this selection of hostile delegates in his home county, will resign.

For the splendid work done in Luzerne county for Rice, Willard and the state administration, much of the credit belongs to Hon. Charles A. Miner.

The Luzerne brethren did not do quite so well as those in Lackawanna; their delegation is not absolutely solid, but eight out of a possible nine is very commendable indeed.

Hon. Henry W. Palmer wouldn't get off the fence and so there was nothing to do for the convention but to give him an assisting hand.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS. "Kernel" Bob as a Diplomat. Wilkes-Barre Record: "Robert Scranton took a hand in Luzerne county politics on Saturday. He was down in the South district trying to raise his hand in Quay's interest.

Leader of His Party. Wilkes-Barre News-Dealer: "The Scranton Free Press says William Connell should be put forward by the Republicans of northeastern Pennsylvania as their next candidate for governor.

or in their drives and sports. Even the fashionable and society-bred young men are getting to despise the dress coat in summer. The girls have been forced to accommodate themselves to the tastes of the men. They had no choice between that and isolation.

"Why, if this tendency increases, the first thing we know the young women will be compelled to make proposals of marriage or the next overboard. They have come dangerously near it already.

"These are the things which make me sigh for the good old days in which women were content to be companions and did not have to go telephoning from cottage to cottage and from hotel to hotel in order to secure an escort or companion of the male sex."

"In such society as that which we have at Bar Harbor it is not so much the new woman that afflicts us as the new man—the man who thinks more of his sports, his clubs, his male comrades, than of his sisters and other men's sisters.
